J. C. Solem, the young attorney from Canton, who has been in Hudson several times lately, has rented an office and decided to locate at this place to practice his profession. His professional card appears in our advertising column this week. Mr. Solem is an energetic young man, and after he pursued the study of law in the office of Judge Kennedy for about 4 years, he was recently admitted to the bar in the supreme court of the state, and is now permitted to practice in all the courts of the state. Mr. Solem is a typical Lincoln county boy, having been brought up in this county, and we hope to see him meet with success. His office will be located over Odell's drug store as soon as the rooms are vacated by the doctor's family. Until then he will quarter temporarily at the office of Dr. Wilson.—Hudson Tribune.

The annual election of officers of the Canton fire department occurred on Monday night. The newly elected officers are: A. W. Tucker, chief; Albert Johnson, first assistant chief; F. H.
Bacon, second assistant chief; L. H.
Larson, treasurer and L. J. Jones, secretary. The annual ball will be given in Bedford hall on Thursday night, Dec. 7, music to be furnished by Ainsworth's orchestra.

News reached this city of the death of A. B. Nupen at Armour. For many years Mr. Nupen was a resident of Pleasant township and about three years ago he removed to Douglas county to make his home. He had a large number of acquaintances in this county who will be pained to hear of his sudden death.

A great number of large fish are being caught in the Sioux this fall. Mr.
Brown, father of A. R. and O. K.
Brown landed a nine pound pike Sunday, to say nothing of the pickerel and cat fish caught this month weighing in the neighborhood of 10 and 12 pounds.

The ladies of the Baptist church held a chrysanthemum show last Wednesday afternoon and evening in the Connell building. The floral exhibit was exquisite both in variety and numbers.
The fancy work, with which the room was artistically decorated was beautiful and reflected great credit upon those who had contributed the many fancy and useful articles for the sale. Lunch was served to a large number during the afternoon and evening. The proceeds amounted to about $160.

Services at the Baptist church next

THAYER & STINSON

Information received in the city last week conveyed the news of the illness of Mrs. M. A. Ivens at Logan, Iowa.
She is much improved at the present writing.

Isakson & Chraft have leased the new building being erected by Wm Fowler, for five years. They will move into their new quarters in about three weeks.

I. M. Helmey received four new show cases Saturday which in many respects is a great improvement in the Corner Drug Store.

Miss Pearl Naylor visited at Hudson last week with the family of J. A.
Fowles. She returned overland Sunday.

J. A. Benz will move into his newly erected meat market building on Main street the first of next week.

The noon train from Sioux City has changed time from 11:59 to 12:05.

Miss Laura Luers, formerly of this city, will be married at San Jose, Cal., on Nov. 29, after which date her name will be Smith. Her many Canton friends will be pleased to note the happy event.

"Care makes luck." Farmers will always have good luck with their hogs if fed Dr. Haas' Hog Remedy, the only reliable medicine for swine. For sale by W. C. Gemmill.

Mrs. W. M. Seely returned to Canton last Friday, to spend the winter with relatives at the Harlan House. She has visited with relatives in the east most of the summer.

The court house is now illuminated with electricity and the clock is well lighted with four eight-candle power lights.

Mrs. Albert Huegin, of Milwaukee, arrived in the city Tuesday for a short visit with her sister, Mrs. J. A. Benz.

The Ladies' Aid society of Tetley's church held a Norsk dinner and supper in the Connell building on Main and Sixth streets. In the evening a large number of fancy articles were auctioned at most satisfactory prices. The proceeds of the day, amounted to about $200.

Dr. Haas offers to insure healthy hogs for a small fee per head when fed his Hog Remedy. Rates and terms for such contracts quoted upon application. This is the only remedy that will prevent and arrest swine disease. For sale by W. C. Gemmill.

M. N. Sheldon, of Los Angeles, Cal., is visiting for a few days in the city, the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs.
A. T. Sheldon.

Henry Flory departed Tuesday for his old home at Shannon, Ill., where he will visit for some time with relatives and friends.
