Campaign for Boxing in Armories Abandoned by Col. Bates---Chess Leaders Tied

CROSS FAMILY GETS MORE GLORY IN RING

Leach Gives Johnny Harvey Bad Beating and Marty Stops Gattle.

SECONDS TOSS IN SPONGE

Leach Cross outpointed Johnny Harvey in the main ten round bout of the inaugural show of the Manhattan A. C., 155th street and Eighth avenue, last night. Cross carried the fight to Harvey from start to finish and had Johnny winging at the end.

Leach outboxed and outfought Harvey all the way. The battling dentist was not forced to resort to his customary covering tactics so much as usual. Most of the time he was pursuing Harvey.

Cross appeared wild at times. He did a lot of missing, especially in the early rounds, when he wasted any number of good openings. His gauge was better by far the last half of the distance. Then he got his famous right working in conjunction with the left jab and soon had Harvey's face as badly disarranged as a hamburger steak.

After the opening round, which was even, Cross was not pushed. Near the end of the second Leach landed two heavy rights that shook Harvey to the toes. In the sixth Leach peppered Johnny all around the ring with scarcely any return fire. In the ninth Leach almost floored Harvey with a wicked right to the jaw. John was backed against the ropes and was light headed when the bell ended the round.

Marty Cross, the welterweight hope of the Wallach family, scored a technical knockout over Harry Gattle of Port Chester in the ninth round of the semi-final. It was a crackajack bout from start to finish. Each boy came within an ace of winning in the third round. Cross connected with his right to the point of the chin and sent the Port Chester lad to the canvas for a count of six. Working out of a clinch when he finally arose, Gattle connected with a terrific left jolt to Cross's midsection. The blow carried such a sting that Marty was helpless on his feet and but for the bell undoubtedly would have been beaten then and there.

Despite this knockdown Gattle appeared to be winning up to half a minute before the unexpected end. Cross in desperation coked his right to Gattle's wind in the middle of the ninth. As Gattle broke ground Marty pressed in and connected fairly with a long right swing to the chin. Gattle dropped like lead. Very foolishly he arose at the count of three. Marty rushed, connecting with another right that dropped Gattle over the lower rope in his own corner. He was helpless and Gattle's handlers tossed in the sponge.

The masked marvel, who won a reputation by knocking out Porky Flynn recently, was introduced. The marvel was to have fought last night, but all his prospective opponents left only their addresses.

The first show of the Manhattan A. C. was a distinct success. Every inch of space was filled when the main bout was called.

BOSTON A. A. BEATS ARENA.

Winners Have Easy Time in Second Half—Score 4 to 1.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 19.—With several of their men out of the lineup the Arena Hockey Club team proved to be only ordinary opponents for the Boston A. A. seven to-night, the latter aggregation winning 4 to 1. It was the first game of the Boston Hockey League series, and although the Arena team put up a fine defence in the first period the Boston players proved too strong for them both offensively and defensively.

Boston scored the only goal in the first half, when Skilton carried the puck down and tried a shot. The rubber rebounded from Snell's shins and Sands, who was uncovered, poked it into the net. The second half was one sided. The lineup:

Boston A.A.	Position	Arena.
Snell	Left wing	Whitten
Sands	Centre	Conley
Osgood	Rover	Sequin
Jones	Right wing	Desjardines
Hemington	Cover point	Lewis
Skilton	Point	Layton
Donahue	Goal	N. Small

Score—Boston A. A., 4; Arena Hockey Club, 1. Goals—Osgood, 2, Hutchinson, Sands, 1. Substitutes—Boston A. A., Hutchinson for Peabody; Arena Hockey Club, Cyr for Conley, Comeau for Desjardines. Referee—Fitzgerald. Time of halves—20 minutes.

LONGLEY MAY MEET FRAZIER.

They Seem Contenders in Golf at Palm Beach After Easy Wins.

Palm Beach, Fla., Jan. 19.—The new golf course reached the semi-final round today with this probability of Vardon Champion Walter Hagen, beat J. R. Hall, Scarsdale, 3 and 4. F. D. Frazier, Jr., beat F. C. van Duzee, Minikahda, 7 and 6. Kansawl won from L. M. Sumer, Ravisloe, by default.

First Division—William Thaw 3d, Lake Erie, beat R. Throckmorton, Lester, 4 and 3. W. Longley, Wannamoisett, beat J. R. Hall, Scarsdale, 3 and 4. F. D. Frazier, Jr., beat F. C. van Duzee, Minikahda, 7 and 6. Kansawl won from L. M. Sumer, Ravisloe, by default.

Second Division—R. F. Kroeger, Hamilton, beat A. J. Huston, St. David's, 2 up. D. Murray Vandergrift, beat A. Shumway, Ridgewood, 7 and 5. Harlon K. Dutton, Lake Forest, beat Hal Williams, Glen Echo, 3 and 2. C. M. Ransom, Buffalo, beat R. E. Gibson, Rosemont, 1 up.

MRS. DANFORTH GOLF VICTOR.

Has Best Net Score at Pinehurst and Mrs. Dutton Best Gross.

Pinehurst, N. C., Jan. 19.—The Silver Bells women golfers held a medal play handicap to-day with a prize for best gross and net scores. Mrs. F. S. Danforth, of Orient, L. I., won the net score with a card of 110—32, 78. Mrs. H. C. Dutton of Boston made the best gross score, which was 100.

Mrs. Whistler grappled in the third round of the only point competition. A. C. Montclair, with a handicap of 24, gained 7 points and beat Robert Hunter and N. P. Clark, 11 41. Treadwell Goodie, handicap 24, points 4, won in his group, and T. A. Sands, handicap 10, points 44, was the lucky group winner. These three will meet in the final to-morrow.

Three Straight for Kingsley.

Palm Beach, N. J., Jan. 19.—Kingsley, Princeton, won the third straight hard fought golf match from Field, Harvard, 2 up on the Palm Beach course today. Kingsley was dormy two holes up on the last hole and lost by two points at the end of the first half, but when Capt. Field entered the contest Kingsley jumped to the front. Field scored four field goals, and with Bingham starred for his team. King and Kenney did all the scoring for Summit.

N. Y. A. C. Men Seek Skating Title.

Paul Pilgrim of the New York A. C. said yesterday that the winged foot organization would be represented at the Eastern skating championship at Orange Lake, Newburgh, on February 12. Donald Baker, Walter Kuhne and Joseph Miller will carry the club colors.

COL. BATES WITHDRAWS FROM BOXING ARGUMENT

Ready to Turn In License of Seventy-first Regiment, He Tells Commission—Black vs. White Ban Not Removed.

Col. Bates of the Seventy-first Regiment has retired from the trenches and withdrawn the forces that he had marshalled on behalf of boxing bouts in State armories. A week ago, when Gov. Whitman intimated that he would not allow fights to be conducted under the auspices of the National Guard, Col. Bates called off the Welsh-Dundee bout, but announced at that time that he favored boxing in the armories and would wait for a more opportune time before insisting on the holding of bouts.

Since making that declaration the Colonel of the Seventy-first has seen a light, and at a meeting of the State Athletic Commission held yesterday he informed the Commissioners that he was ready to surrender the license which the commission granted him to put on professional fights. It is believed that the Twenty-second and Fourteenth regiments will follow the lead of Col. Bates and that no further attempt will be made to hold bouts in the armories, at least while Mr. Whitman is Governor.

Jim Buckley, who is manager for Harry Wills, the colored heavyweight, appeared before the commission and asked that the rule prohibiting bouts between colored and white fighters be rescinded. Buckley called attention to the decision of the then State Attorney-General, Carmody, that the rule which prevented Gunboat Smith and Sam Langford meeting in the Garden was unconstitutional. The commission reserved decision, but Chairman Wenck said that the matter would be decided with others when the new rules were issued.

John Reisler asked for permission to give a belt worth $1,000 to the winner of the Williams-Ertle scrap that is to be held in the Harlem Sporting Club. The Commissioners had no more sympathy with the idea of newspaper verdicts being accepted than with the notion that referees should render decisions, and the offer of a belt for the bantamweight title was declined with thanks. Evidence was heard on the charge that Selina Jack Burns had been allowed to enter the ring at Syracuse when he was suffering from locomotor ataxia. Tommy Ryan, manager of the Genesee A. C., which put the bout on, will be asked to appear before the commission at a meeting to be held at Syracuse on January 28.

Jack Curley returned from Kansas City yesterday after signing Jess Willard for a bout here with Frank Moran. The latter has not signed yet, and according to Curley trouble over getting his signature may prove an obstacle that will prevent the projected contest in April. Moran prefers to box in March, he said, and that may cause a hitch. Curley will get busy to-day trying to line him up. Gate receipts of $100,000 and a profit of $15,000 are likley if the bout is held, according to Curley.

DARTMOUTH BELIEVES IN PREPAREDNESS NOW

To Have Plenty of Football Before Tiger Game, So Its Old Excuse Is Gone.

Hanover, N. H., Jan. 19.—The Dartmouth Athletic Council announced today the football schedule for the season of 1916. It contains nine games. The schedule is one of the best Dartmouth has had in many years, because there will be five preliminary games, two of which will be hard, before Princeton is met. In the past it has been an excuse of Dartmouth that it always had met Princeton before the Green got under way. This year M. A. C. and Georgetown will be played prior to the Princeton game. There will be no let up from the M. A. C. game, for, following the Princeton game, Syracuse and Pennsylvania will be met.

Six games will be played at home instead of five as in the past, and the final game will be played here for the first time in many years. November 25 is still open, although there has been no special effort to fill this date. The schedule is unique in that two teams will make their first appearance in New England, West Virginia and Lebanon Valley College. For the first time also in years no game will be played in either New York or Boston. The schedule:

September 23, New Hampshire State College at Hanover. 30, Boston College at Hanover. October 7, Lebanon Valley College at Hanover. 14, M. A. C. at Hanover. 21, Georgetown University at Hanover. 28, Princeton at Princeton. November 4, Syracuse at Springfield. 11, Pennsylvania at Philadelphia. 18, West Virginia at Hanover.

CUNNINGHAM IS EXTENDED.

Two Games Go to Deuce, but He Is Victorious Over Scevа.

Play in the Columbia handball tournament was resumed yesterday in the University Hall gymnasium. W. D. Cunningham, formerly of Yale, and winner of the university tennis title in singles, defeating L. Scevа, 22—20, 22—20, in the feature match. Both games went to deuce, but Cunningham, by his speed and tactical advantages, managed to win out.

Because of the number of entries only half of the first round has been completed. Two matches were played in the second round. Grant Stone, a former varsity pole vaulter and manager of the baseball team, was defeated by L. I. Aronescu in easy style, 21—1, 21—4. Dr. Meylan, head of the department of physical education, who is promoting the sport at Columbia, said the tournament will have to be concluded this month, because the team which will represent Columbia against Rutgers, Yale and Princeton in the newly formed league will have to be picked on the showing of the candidates in the tournament. The summaries:

First Round—A. N. Boxer defeated E. Glueck, 22—20, 21—18. C. E. Conn defeated S. Oppenheim, 21—6, 21—7. W. D. Cunningham defeated L. Scevа, 22—20, 22—20, 21—19. W. T. Criswell defeated E. A. Vosseler, 21—9, 21—9.

Second Round—L. I. Aronescu defeated S. G. Stone, 21—1, 21—4. Kuchar defeated G. Williams, 21—7, 21—13.

MIDSHIPMEN WIN WITH EASE.

Score of 40 to 19 is Piled Up in Game Against St. John's.

Annapolis, Jan. 19.—The Midshipmen won at basketball here this afternoon from the team of St. John's, the local college, by 40 to 19. The first half was a good contest, resulting 19 to 10 in favor of the Navy, but early in the second half Calhoun shot five goals from the court in rapid succession, giving the Midshipmen a commanding lead. In passing and shooting the Navy players were clearly superior.

Six Perfect Rifle Scores.

[illegible] Agricultural College rifle team made a new record to-day when six members shot perfect scores for 1,000 points against the United States Naval Academy. Only five men can be counted in the final summary under the rules. Those who made perfect scores of 200 each were Kean, Berridge, Pennington, Harmon, Berry and Patch.

Packey in Retirement Again.

Chicago, Jan. 19.—"I'm through with the fight game," said Packey MacFarland, when it was suggested he go after Mike Gibbons for another bout. "I've got enough money and am in business."

JANOWSKI NOW TIED WITH CAPABLANCA

Winners of Adjourned Chess Games Draw to Play Together To-day.

HAVE TWO POINTS EACH

Three of the four adjourned games from the first round of the memorial chess masters tournament were played off at the rooms of the Manhattan Chess Club yesterday. Both Jose R. Capablanca of Havana and David Janowski of Paris won their games and tied for the lead with two points each to their credit. They are drawn to play together in the third round at the Hotel Ansonia this afternoon and evening.

Capablanca, with queen and knight against black's rook, bishop and two pawns, found a way of winning the game after ten additional moves, or sixty-three in all. Janowski, who had two connected pawns in the centre, broke up Tenenwurzel's position completely and scored the game after fifty-six moves.

The third game to be finished was between A. W. Fox of Washington and A. Schroeder of the Brooklyn Chess Club. Schroeder had a passed pawn on the queen's side of the board and used it to such good advantage that he won after forty-eight moves. Chajes and Kostic had a difficult ending with bishops of opposite colors, in which Kostic had two pawns to the good. He gave up one of these in an effort to force the game, but Chajes put up a stubborn defence and would not be rushed off his feet. This game was not finished. The standing of the players follows:

Players	W.	L.	Players	W.	L.
Capablanca	2	0	Kupchik	1	1
Janowski	2	0	Rosenthal	1	1
Bernstein	1½	½	Banks	½	1½
Perkins	1½	½	Black	0	2
Schroeder	1½	½	Fox	0	2
Chajes	1	0	Hodges	0	2
Kostic	1	0	Tenenwurzel	0	2

In the third round to be played at the Hotel Ansonia this afternoon and evening the pairings will be Rosenthal vs. Bernstein, Schroeder vs. Kupchik, Kostic vs. Fox, Perkins vs. Chajes, Tenenwurzel vs. Banks, Capablanca vs. Janowski and Black vs. Hodges.

Dartmouth Feels High Cost of Living

Hanover, N. H., Jan. 19.—The Dartmouth Athletic Council has made a radical change in the method of awarding of sweaters to members of teams who win their insignia. Hereafter a sweater will be awarded to the man the first time that he wins his insignia, but the second time he will receive two service stripes and the third time he will receive three service stripes. In the past it has been the custom to give a man a sweater every time that he won his insignia. This change will relieve the council of a heavy expense, as there have been cases in which one man received as many as ten sweaters.

Of Some Other Mind?
Can It Think Its Own Thoughts,
Like This Man's Mind?

"I BELIEVE MANY OF THE PEOPLE WHO PROFESS TO OBJECT ARE EXPRESSING, NOT THEIR OWN OPINION, BUT A POLTROON REFLECTION OF WHAT THEY THINK THEY OUGHT TO THINK.
"The fact is that 'THE PRIDE OF RACE' has one moment so supremely dramatic that AN AUDIBLE GASP CAME FROM THE ENTIRE AUDIENCE IN THE MAXINE ELLIOTT THEATRE LAST NIGHT WHEN THE WOMAN, UNABLE TO UNDERSTAND WHY THEY DO NOT BRING HER BABY TO HER, JUMPS OUT OF BED, DASHES THE NURSE ASIDE AND RUNS TO THE CHILD'S CRIB, IS SO SUPREMELY ARRESTING THAT EVERY FACULTY IN THE SPECTATOR SEEMS TO STAND STILL. SUCH A SENSATION IN AN AMERICAN THEATRE IS AMAZINGLY STRANGE AND NEW. Its novelty seems to have affected some of my confreres to such an extent that they mistook it for something shocking and were misled into declaring it a naughty piece.

Say what you like, but "THE PRIDE OF RACE" is drama from start to finish."

IT HAS THE OLD WALTER PUNCH
EVENING SUN.
The Author of "Paid in Full" puts over another success. Eugene Walter "came back" as a dramatist last night when "Just a Woman" was presented. This new play has the old Walter "punch" and thrill and cleverness of construction. Let us rejoice that Mr. Walter has once more scored an emphatic success. Of the six court room scenes in new plays we have witnessed this season this is the best. "Just a Woman" ranks high among this season's plays.
CHARLES DARNTON, EVENING WORLD.
We can feel the earnestness, the power and the reality that Eugene Walter can put into a play. Mr. Walter, first of all, is human in everything he writes. A big theme, and Eugene Walter has been big enough to see it. Mr. Walter has done something worth while. "Just A Woman" is just the sort of play that a neglected, self-sacrificing wife may enjoy.
