Owing to the unusual interest being taken in the selection of appropriate costumes, the exhibition of sketches and robes of the Egyptian, Grecian and Hindu periods will be kept on view at the Herter Looms, Madison avenue and Seventieth street, all the week. The collection will be open to the public daily from 9 A. M. to 6 P. M., and Mrs. Irving Colson will be on hand every afternoon from 4 to 6 to give expert suggestions and advice.

Through the courtesy of Lucien Bonheur and of his theatrical company artists a benefit performance will be given on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 in the Berkeley Lyceum theatre for the ladies of St. Vincent de Paul's French Benevolent Society, in aid of the French orphans and French poor of the city of New York.

An attractive programme has been offered by Mr. Bonheur, who is not only giving "Blanchette," as was at first advertised, with the well known artists, Mlle. Mery and Mr. Benedict, but is also presenting Mlle. Garrick of the Theatre Francais, who will appear in monologues, and Mlle. Greuse, who will appear in an amusing short play, "Gros Chagrin."

The committee of the Ladies of St. Vincent de Paul is composed of Mrs. Charles du Vivier, Mrs. Maurice La Montagne, Mrs. Henry E. Gourd, Miss Georgine Iselin, Mrs. Alfred Chapin, Miss Marie La Montagne, Mrs. Huntington Norton, Miss Delmonico, Mrs. Picabia and Mrs. Henry Binsse.

Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Maurice La Montagne, 37 Park avenue, and at the Theatre Francais, on February 8, the afternoon of the performance.

Much interest is being manifested in the forthcoming Father Knickerbocker Ball to be given under the auspices of the City History Club at Sherry's on the night of February 15. There will be much of historic interest in the tableaux that are being planned and in which amateurs of society will pose. One of the groups will represent the purchase of Manhattan Island from the Indians. There will also be an early Dutch scene showing the night watch prowling through the streets.

Among the other tableaux will be one representing the duel between Alexander Hamilton and Aaron Burr, fought at the foot of the Devil's Pulpit, Weehawken. The final scene will be typical of the winter pastime in the early days on the lower part of Manhattan Island, showing an ice skating party. In this group will be members of the Junior Colonial Dames, of which Mrs. Edward Stettinius is chairman. The other members of the committee are Mrs. Lewis Gouverneur Morris, Miss Charlotte Delafield and Miss Crooke.

After the entertainment there will be general dancing. Miss Cordelia Hepburn is receiving applications for boxes and tickets. The boxes are $50 each and tickets including supper are $5 each.

Among the members of the junior ball committee are Miss Margaret C. Overton, chairman; and the Misses Louise Dixon, Cordelia Hepburn, Gladys Fries, Margaret Trevor, Catherine Colt, Isabel Stettinius, Anstiss De Veau, Helen Porter, Gretchen Damrosch, Christina Nichols, Rita Norris, Lucy Lord, Geraldine Adee, Marie Johnson, Mary Alexander, Maud Kahn, Jeannette Blake, Elizabeth Kirlin, Eva Mali, Margaret Luce, Eunice Clapp, Vera Cravath, Mary Francke, Irene Gibson, Sylvia Holt, Margaret Henderson, Amy Bradish Johnson, Joy Williams, Muriel Wiggin, Dorothy Greer, Hope Williams, Lillian Talmage, Adelaide and Aileen Sedgwick, Peggy Rathbone, Adelaide Flint, Mercer French, Kate Griffin, Helen Griffin, Lillian Palmer, Frederika Peterson, Constance Peabody, Helen Byrne, Margery and Eugenie Rand, Helen Pierce, Alice Davies, Constance Chapnell, Grace Bristed and Anne Bradley.

There will be an interesting entertainment at the Princess Theatre on the afternoon of February 24 for the benefit of the Normyl Welfare Work under the auspices of the Normyl Welfare Association, which recently has been incorporated with Miss Sarah Graham Mulhall as president, Mrs. Philip M. Lydig as vice-president and George Chase as treasurer. The organization is an outgrowth of the English Normyl Association and has been at work in this country and Canada for three years. The English society has for chairman the Metropolitan Magistrate, Cecil M. Chapman, and includes in its directorate among others the Primate of Ireland, the Bishop of Southwark and the Bishop of Chichester.

Among those who will take part in the programme are Mlle. Alice Verlet, colorature soprano of the Chicago Opera Company; Miss Margaret Huston, Mme. Alice Archainbaud of the Theatre Antoine, Paris; Mlle. le Fonteray and Miss Elise Du Four, dancer, George Copeland will give a programme of Debussy selections and Miss Du Four will dance to Debussy music.

In order to raise funds to carry on the work of the Union Settlement Association women interested in this organization have arranged a dance to be given at the Plaza on the night of February 29 under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary. The Union Settlement Association supports the settlement house and club rooms in East 104th street and much work is done for the welfare of the neighborhood. Tickets for the dance will be $3 and supper tickets will be $2, while iced cakes and coffee will be served at small tables in the ballroom at a small price. Music for dancing will be by Frantzen's orchestra.

Among the patronesses to whom applications for tickets may be made are Mmes. Henry P. Davison, William E. S. Griswold, Raymond Hoagland, George W. Perkins, Thomas Satterthwaite, Robert E. Tod and Minturn Post Collins.

Of interest to society in this city and Boston was the announcement of the engagement of Miss Rosamond Eliot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amory Eliot of Boston, to Frederic Munroe Burnham, also of that city. Both Miss Eliot and her fiance, who are prominent in society there, have many friends in New York. Miss Eliot has passed a great deal of her time at the country place of her parents at Manchester by the Sea.

Mr. Burnham is a son of William A. Burnham, and he is a brother of Mrs. Austen Gray of this city. He was graduated from Harvard in 1911. No date has been set for the wedding.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Oroville Wooster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wooster, to Walter L. Richard, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Richard of this city.

Miss Wooster, who was introduced to society in California a few years ago, is a niece of Mrs. C. August Spreckels and a cousin of Mrs. Spencer Eddy. She has passed a good deal of her time in travel and study in Europe.

Mr. Richard is a brother of Harold Richard, who married Miss Vera Van Buren two years ago. He was graduated from Princeton in 1908 and is a member of the Colonnade, Princeton and other clubs of this city. No date has been mentioned for the wedding, but it will probably take place in the spring, and Mr. Richard and his bride will live in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Wise Wood have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Brower Wood, to John Cyrus Distler of Baltimore, Md. Miss Wood, who has spent much of her time in Europe, was presented at the court of the Queen Dowager of Italy during her visit to Rome.

Mr. Distler was graduated from Lehigh University and he is a member of the Elkridge Valley Hunt, Maryland, University and Baltimore clubs. The wedding will take place in April.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Miriam Swift, daughter of Dr. Arthur L. Swift, to Edward H. Gilbert, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Gilbert of Flushing, L. I. No date has been set for the wedding.

Justice and Mrs. John Woodward of Buffalo, N. Y., announced recently the engagement of their daughter, Miss Frances Woodward, to Clarence Clark Prentice. Miss Woodward is a granddaughter of the late Justice George Barker.

A quiet wedding of this week will be that of Mrs. Edith Gale Tyng, widow of Sewell Tappan Tyng, to Williams Adams Kissam in the chantry of St. Thomas's Church on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Only a small company of relatives and friends will witness the ceremony, which will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Stires, rector of the church. The bride will be unattended, and Mr. Kissam's brother-in-law, Louis S. Kerr, will act as best man. There will be no ushers and no reception.

Mr. Kissam was graduated from Williams College and is a member of the Metropolitan, University and Rumson Country clubs.

Arrangements have been completed for the wedding of Miss Dorothy Jordan, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eben D. Jordan of Boston, to Monroe Douglas Robinson of this city on February 19. The wedding ceremony will be celebrated in Trinity Church, Boston, and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 48 Beacon street.

Miss Jordan will have as her only attendants Miss Lillian Mitchell and Miss Edith Deacon. Theodore Douglas Robinson will be his brother's best man. The ushers will be Oliver Bishop Harriman, Prescott Huldekooper, Maurice Burke Roche, Francis Burke Roche, Nathaniel Simpkins, Jr., Edwin D. Morgan, Jr., James G. Blaine 3d, E. Gerry Chadwick, Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Sheffield Cowles, cousins of the bridegroom-elect; Gaspar Bacon, John Cutler, George Wagstaff, Arthur Russell Jones, Wallace Hughes of Chicago, J. Harold Laurence of Chicago, Hamilton Fish, Jr., and Robert Jordan, a brother of the bride.

The series of Assembly Dances organized by the College Women's Club for the benefit of the educational fund of that organization began at the Gotham on Friday night. There will be two more dances given during the season and the next will take place on February 25. Mrs. M. Dryden Brewer is president of the organization and among the patronesses are Mmes. Francis McNeil Bacon, Jr., Charles Dana Gibson, Charles L. Tiffany, Reginald C. Vanderbilt, Otto H. Kahn, Lewis L. Delafield, Herbert M. Hyde, Thomas W. Lamont and Miss Annie B. Jennings.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Townsend and their daughters, the Misses Adeline and Marion Townsend, will shortly leave New York for Bermuda, where they will remain throughout next month.

The last for this season of the Three Dances, organized several years ago by Mrs. Ira Barrows, Mrs. Charles W. Romeyn, Mrs. Henry Bischoff and others, will be held on Tuesday night at the Plaza. Preceding it a dinner will be given by the patronesses and the dance will follow in the main ballroom. The dances will be continued next year.

Miss Vivian Hunter, a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Linnaeus J. Hunter of 848 Lexington avenue, will be among the debutantes of next season.

GENERAL NOTES OF SOCIETY.

PREPARATIONS are being made for the annual St. Valentine's luncheon of the Theatre Club, Mrs. John Hubbard Parker president, which will be held at the Hotel Astor on February 14. Mrs. Walter H. Gahagan of 231 Lincoln place, Brooklyn, is chairman, and Mrs. James P. Neimann vice-chairman of the entertainment committee. The treasurer of the luncheon committee is Mrs. H. C.
