The Label on your paper tells how your subscription account stands. John Cunningham #02 means that your paper is paid for the current year. Jan. 00 that you are a year behind and owe us a dollar. Other dates explain themselves.

No, we are not Buffalos.

Mark Hanna says he will get his subsidy steal through congress yet. Mark's prediction will come true.

The Manila editor who was deported by order of Gen. McArthur because he told of gigantic frauds by Uncle Sam's officials seemed to have told the truth.

President Schwab of the new steel trust is to receive a salary of a million dollars a year. That's all right, the people—the consumers—pay this princely sum.

The Sioux Falls Press is meeting with deserved success in its efforts to furnish the earliest and best telegraphic news in the state, within the reach of early train service. Canton gets the news of the world for breakfast. The Press is rapidly forging to the front as a first class morning daily.

There is no use for any further opposition to the Administration's Philippine policy. It will do no good. It seems to be the settled policy of President McKinley to retain the Philippine Islands with an American protectorate. Uncle Sam is bound to become a "world power" to the extent, at least, of holding all the Spanish possessions acquired during the war. The policy is full of trouble but a "world power" expects trouble, and the United States will get its share.

The ladies who travel and associate together as the famous 400 in New York, are reported as among the most willing converts to gambling and cigarette smoking. The reporters need not invade the inner circles of the 400 to find this growing evil, but to go into the ultra fashionable circles of the big cities and they will find the drunk, gambling and smoking curse a fixture and the evil growing. With imperialism and world power notions and titles, the American is learning the ways of ancient Rome too almighty fast.

A Cantonite who is well posted in Sioux Falls politics, was up there this week. He says both the Day and Phillips factions are still busy making the air blue with cuss words because Schlosser walked away with the post-office pie. Congressman Burke swears he was opposed to his brother-in-law, Schlosser, but the Day and Phillips men seem absent minded when they hear this. It was a nasty fight, and even the preachers up there covered themselves with political mud when they got into it. Your Uncle Nyrum has copies of protests to send to Washington which will make hot reading when he prints them, and he'll print em sure.

Gen. Funston's Capture of Aguinaldo may be considered brave and treacherous, cowardly and cunning. The plan to capture the Filipino chief was cunningly arranged through the treachery of natives. Funston took considerable risk in even trusting the natives, and if detected in his bid scheme he was liable to be shot. It is just as well that Aguinaldo has been captured because the natives could never gain their independence while President McKinley and the enormous power of the Republic was opposed to them. It is hoped some sort of peace can be arranged by which the natives can realize that even an American protectorate is better than Spanish rule.

The News last week gratuitously insulted Prof. Tuve and Ernest Wendt because they refused to decline a nomination for aldermen tendered them by a citizens caucus. Prof. Tuve and Mr. Wendt were not seeking aldermanic nominations, but they could not understand why any man should try to dictate to them their duty as citizens, public spirited and progressive. To Prof. Tuve is due the splendid success of the college, and if Mr. Wendt is laboring to secure the erection of the auditorium he should not be slurped because he is public spirited. It makes no particular difference, politically, who composes the city council but it does make a difference to the taxpayers whether the council is guided by economical business methods or otherwise. The News oversteps the bounds of decency and honesty in its sinister reference to such men as Prof. Tuve or Mr. Wendt, and the time is not far away when there will be less political bossism in City affairs than at present. County, State and National politics belong to the party boss and his whip, but when it comes to the management of a young, growing town like Canton, good business methods should prevail in preference to the dictum of any political boss.

Local.

Helga Hage has a new ad.
—American Beauties at Helga Hage's. The Grieg will give a concert April 24.

Wm. O'Connor of Harrisburg was in Canton Wednesday.

Mmes. W. S. Ingham and B. Hanson were at the Falls Wednesday between trains.

Capt. J. F. Smith of Parker was in the city Tuesday and made us a pleasant call.

Bishop Hare held confirmation services at the Episcopal church Wednesday evening.

R. E. Higbee and Miss Edna Campbell both of this city, were licensed to wed last Friday.

On Wednesday Burton W. Miner and Miss Freda W. Burke, both of Hudson, secured a license to wed.

Henderson & Ginter have something in their new ad. this week of interest to the "Nation." Read it.

Major Howard, S. D. V., of Aberdeen, was in the city Thursday between trains, and spent a few hours with Capt. VanHouten.

Henry F. Ellis and Miss Nannie, Mortkved were united in marriage by Rev. F. T. Drewitt, Friday March 29. The contracting parties are well and favorably known here. The LEADER extends congratulations.

The annual grand spring opening at Miss Hage's last week was largely attended, and all are free to say that her display of millinery goods was the finest ever seen in Canton. Besides viewing the latest styles, callers were treated to free coffee.

Superintendent A. P. Michie arrived from Milwaukee, Tuesday and is getting things in shape at the asylum so as to be ready for the force of men by the first of next week. Work will be pushed as rapidly as possible.

W. H. Wumpkes of Lennox purchased half a section of land north of that town for $8,900, and Sam Marston, one of the old timers sold his half section farm northeast of Lennox for $10,000. Men who own Lincoln county farms are in luck these days.

The Board of Regents of Augustana college met in this city Tuesday and considered the different plans for a new college building. The plans presented by Omeyer & Thori of St. Paul, were finally adopted. The building will be constructed of granite and brick and will cost about $20,000.

Tom Wardwell, who has been out west the past year, arrived Wednesday from Denver and went up to Harrisburg. Tom has been out on a prospecting trip and expects to go to Montana soon. His many Lincoln county friends will be pleased to learn of his success.

J. T. Hansen, formerly of the Western Supply Company, and Charles Grevious, have purchased the grocery and boot and shoe business of Satrang & Olson. The members of the new firm are well known and will take their place among the popular merchants in our city.

E. Foote of Red Wing, Minn., general manager of the Red Wing Butter & Egg Co., was here the first of the week. The large and steadily increasing business of the Canton house was found entirely satisfactory to Mr. Foote, which is certainly a high compliment to the resident manager, J. B. Ryan.

A bowling club has been organized in this city with a membership of sixteen. The first meeting of the club was held Tuesday night. They have arranged to rent the bowling alley of Hull & Case every Tuesday night, when an admission fee of ten cents will be charged. Some good bowlers constitute this club and no doubt they will soon challenge some outside team to a match game.

The Lincoln county banks are all in a splendid condition financially, and as a state bank the Lincoln County Bank of Canton ranks first as to carrying the largest amount of deposits. The First National Bank of Canton, stands well up in the list among the solid banks of the state, while the Canton State Bank, the youngest of the three, shows remarkable gains in deposits and business.

It was quite amusing to listen to the license advocates during the contest Monday. One no license man said: "I am tired of this prohibition license combine. The prohibition element always manage to nominate license men for office, and in case of their election hope to defeat license by duplicity." A license man said: "I want the city to derive some benefit from the sale of liquor, but I am opposed to the open saloon, because Canton's greatness will come from her being an educational center free from public temptation or private sink holes."

A Most Important Decision.

The decision handed down by the supreme court yesterday in which it was held that the referendum is void where two-thirds of the legislature declares that an emergency exists, is probably the most important one that has ever been handed down in the state. That it was unexpected by the people of all political parties, goes without saying. The effect of the decision is to practically nullify the intent of the referendum amendment. Just how the people can secure direct legislation is difficult to see, as it is within the power of the supreme court to destroy the constitution at pleasure.—Sioux Falls Press

Some papers find fault with President McKinley because he has no sympathy for the Boers. These kickers should remember that "world powers" have no sympathy for any struggling people.

Madame De Tournay as Mary Stuart.

The famous French tragedienne, Madame Elsie de Tournay, appears this season in America with her great historic production of "Mary Stuart" the ill-fated "Queen of Scots," and "Romeo and Juliet," presenting magnificent historic productions. It is a matter of some note in the theatrical world that Countess de Tournay and Madame Modjeska, both world famous stars of the tragic stage, are both featuring "Mary Stuart," the rightly considered masterpiece of Frederick von Schiller the great German author. In order that the wonderful contrast of a girlish part like "Juliet" may be compared the same season with that of the dignified personage of the "Queen of Scots," Madame de Tournay will present the second performance, Shakespeare's sublime love tragedy, "Romeo and Juliet." "Mary Stuart" is considered by many good judges as the greatest character in all history, which acquires the utmost ability of a real artist to dare to attempt. Madame de Tournay, according to the critics, is absolutely fitted to portray the peculiar moods of the wily, yet beautiful, "Queen of Scots." In fact it seems that she passes from this world, the moment she appears on the stage, and once more the grave, majestic and beautiful "Mary Stuart" lives in reality, within the famous English prison walls, where for eighteen years imprisoned, with plots and counterplots, crafty, yet delicate sarcasms for her enemies, and smiles intermingled with tears, for her friends she lives over again the most trying period of her unhappy life, until the tolling of the bells, and weeping of her faithful servants, foretell the end. They truly picture the last moments on earth of the ill-fated "Queen of Scots." The heart rendering parting scene, before laying her crowned head on the fatal block, to meet death as a common criminal, before the very eyes of her rightful subjects, and pass into the sleep of eternity, is the signal for general sympathy, for at this final climax the audience under the talents and magnetism of this famous tragedienne, breathless, speechless with interest, and spellbound with enthusiasm, almost makes every person reach for their handkerchiefs unknowingly and join the weeping, as the final curtain falls on the most beautiful tableaux and saddest historic picture known to modern stage craft.

ROYAL Baking Powder is indispensable to the preparation of the finest cake, hot-breads, rolls and muffins.

Housekeepers are sometimes importuned to buy other powders because they are "cheap." Housekeepers should stop and think. If such powders are lower priced, are they not inferior? Is it economy to spoil your digestion to save a few pennies?

Alum is used in some baking powders and in most of the so-called phosphate powders, because it is cheap, and makes a cheaper powder. But alum is a corrosive poison which, taken in food, acts injuriously upon the stomach, liver and kidneys.
