Miss Guthrie of Pittsburg Defeated by Mrs. Raymond in Straight Sets at Pelham

TRIO OF MEN REACH BRONX SEMI-FINALS

Voshell, Favorite, Pressed Harder Than Bassford and Chambers.

BINZEN BATTLES GAMELY

Abraham Bassford, Jr., of the Westchester Country Country Club; S. Howard Voshell of the Borough Park Lawn Tennis Club and Charles Chambers of the Kings County Tennis Club reached the semi-final round yesterday in the Bronx county tennis singles championship at the New York Lawn Tennis Club courts in Williamsbridge.

Voshell, a former holder of the title and looked upon as the strongest contender for it, was the only one of the trio who had to fight hard for his bracket. In the fifth round the left hander caught a tartar in Elliott Binzen, national junior indoor champion, and eked out a victory only in a hard three set match at 6—1, 6—8, 13—11. The Borough Park player started like a whirlwind and used his severe service to great advantage in paving the way for points on placement. In the opening set he played the kind of tennis that won him four successive matches in straight sets in the earlier rounds. His brilliant placing and careful covering of the court enabled him to score almost at will and to prevent his rival from making points.

Binzen Becomes Stronger.

In the second set Binzen showed a vast improvement, while Voshell became erratic. As a result the junior champion kept neck and neck with his veteran adversary and, although Voshell came within an ace of the match a couple of times, Binzen managed to nose him out. The third set was a repetition of the second. Both came close to victory, a point separating either Binzen or Voshell from it on various occasions. Voshell, however, finally recovered his form and ran out the set after twenty-four games had been played.

Chambers and Bashford both came through the fifth round by winning in straight sets. The Kings county player deposed of Dr. R. C. Thomas at 6—2, 6—3, while Bassford accounted for J. S. King at 6—1, 6—2. The summaries:

Bronx County Championship, Men's Singles, Fourth Round—J. S. King defeated G. A. Walker, Jr., 6—2, 2—6, 6—4; Willard Botsford defeated H. S. Morgan, 6—1, 6—4; Allan Behr defeated Paul Martelli, 6—4, 4—6, 6—4.

Fifth Round—Abraham Bassford, Jr., defeated J. S. King, 6—1, 6—2; S. Howard Voshell defeated Elliott Binzen, 6—1, 6—8, 13—11; Charles Chambers defeated Dr. R. C. Thomas, 6—2, 6—3.

Manhattan Championship Men's Doubles, Second Round—Ingo Hartmann and B. W. Burr defeated H. Sands and G. I. Burr, 6—4, 6—3; A. H. Man, Jr., and C. A. Maile defeated J. H. Steinkampf and W. Clark, 6—4, 6—1.

Third Round—Ingo Hartmann and H. Sands defeated J. S. King and F. Levy, 6—2, 6—4.

CITY CLUB AT ARDSLEY.

Cornelius Smith, Jr., Takes Gross Prize for Double Round.

ARDSLEY ON HUDSON, N. Y., May 25.—About twenty-five members of the City Club played their annual spring golf tournament to-day on the links of the Ardsley Club. The competition consisted of a thirty-six hole handicap with one gross and two net prizes.

Cornelius Smith, Jr., who is an Ardsley golfer and so was playing on his home course, won the gross prize with a score of 84—83, 167. The first net score was that of H. R. Reed, 191—44, 147; and Victor Whitlock's 210—60, 150 gave him the second prize. The scores:

H. R. Reed, 191—44, 147; Victor Whitlock, 210—60, 150; Cornelius Smith, Jr., 167—14, 153; L. G. Young, 173—18, 155; Frank W. Nye, 199—42, 157; W. F. Baylis, 186—28, 158; James Hertram, 174—16, 158; Hamilton, 191—26, 165; J. O. Radway, 195—30, 165; Robert C. Knapp, 214—48, 166; David H. Thomas, 200—26, 174; H. Bissell, 214—40, 174; M. R. Poucher, 230—38, 182; Jay Dounce, 274—92, 182; Hobson, 261—76, 185; C. E. Whitmore, 236—50, 186; A. G. Dickinson, 238—50, 188; W. H. Taft, 239—50, 189; Carrington, 224—30, 194; Wilhelm Funk, 247—50, 197; L. E. Kreider, 254—56, 198; Julius Kahn, 305—92, 213.

DATES FOR CONNECTICUT OPEN.

Professionals Will Visit New London on Aug. 30 and 31 This Year.

The Shennecossett Country Club at Eastern Point, New London, Conn., announced yesterday its schedule of golf events for the summer. The principal event on the list is the annual open tournament known as the Connecticut open championship, which will be played on August 30 and 31. Wednesday and Thursday of the week preceding the national amateur championship at Merion. Jack M. Barnes is the present holder of the Connecticut open title.

The Shennecossett amateur tournament will be played August 21 to 26 inclusive and there also will be a week end tournament on July 29 and 30.

PLAY FOURTEEN INNING TIE.

Senators and White Sox Score Three Runs Each.

WASHINGTON, May 25. — Darkness ended a hard fought game between the Washington Senators and the Chicago White Sox, the score standing 3 to 6 after the teams had battled fourteen innings. Unsteady pitching by Harper and errors gave the visitors three runs in the seventh. The Senators knocked Benz out of the box in the other half of the seventh and tied the score off Russell in the eighth. Wolfgang of the Sox and Johnson, the Senators' twirler, who finished the game, permitted no liberties. The score:

MISS GUTHRIE PUT OUT OF IT BY MRS. RAYMOND

Pittsburg Girl Beaten in Straight Sets, 6—2, 6—0, Same Score by Which She Lost to Miss Bjurstedt in Metropolitan Tourney.

PELHAM, N. Y., May 25.—Miss Martha Guthrie, the young Pittsburg tennis star, was eliminated from the Pelham Country Club invitation singles here to-day by Mrs. Edward Raymond in straight sets at 6—2, 6—0. It was an odd coincidence of the match that Mrs. Raymond, who had given Miss Molla Bjurstedt, national champion, a close hard battle in the Metropolitan tournament, vanquished the Pittsburg girl by exactly the same score as the Norse girl did in the final round of the Met championship. Mrs. Raymond did even a whit better than did Miss Bjurstedt, for the Norse girl in winning from Miss Guthrie scored 59 points against 35 for the Pittsburg girl, while to-day Mrs. Raymond scored 59 against 32.

Mrs. Raymond played the kind of tennis that would have been hard for any one to beat, while Miss Guthrie failed in exactly the same way as she had against Miss Bjurstedt. The Pittsburg girl, instead of playing the speedy kind of tennis that brought her to victory in her matches against Miss Vanderhoef and Mrs. Rawson Wood, evidently forgot to use her best strokes and repeatedly gave points to Mrs. Raymond on errors. The young Western girl started auspiciously enough. She carried off the first game on her opponent's service at love, but made little use of the advantage, for on the very next game she threw away four points by driving the ball into the net.

In the third game, after trailing at 15—40, Miss Guthrie again braced and once more broke through her rival's service for a winning game, but fell down on her own service in the fourth. The fourth game, which Mrs. Raymond won after it had gone to deuce three times, was the first of a run of eleven straight games for her. After taking that game Mrs. Raymond ran out the set on four straight games, in which she was scored upon only three times, and kept right on going until she had the next set and the match tucked away. In the second set the best that Miss Guthrie could do was to send the third and sixth games to deuce.

Mrs. Raymond's victory puts her in the semi-final round bracket with Miss Edith Handy of Staten Island. Miss Handy advanced by defeating Miss Helen Alexander of Philadelphia, in straight sets, at 6—1, 6—3, and to do it played some of the prettiest tennis of the tournament. Miss Handy started the first set by losing the opening game on her own service after it had gone to deuce three times, but more than made up for this by running right through the set on the next six games. In the second set, the Philadelphia girl won the first, fifth and seventh games on her own service. The first was the only one that went to deuce, and Miss Alexander won it after trailing at 15—40.

In the upper half of the draw Miss Margaret Taylor and Miss Molla Bjurstedt came through to the semi-final round. Miss Bjurstedt in coming through added one more victory over Miss Marie Wagner to her credit. The Norse girl took the match in straight sets at 10—8, 6—2.

Miss Taylor, who will meet Miss Bjurstedt to-morrow, came through by a surprising victory over Mrs. Frederick Schmitz at 6—2, 6—2. Mrs. Schmitz had defeated Miss Frances Brainard of Pittsburg earlier in the day at 1—6, 6—1, 6—4. Miss Taylor played close to the best tennis of her career and if she can keep up the pace should make Miss Bjurstedt fight hard for a victory to-morrow. The summaries:

Pelham Country Club, Women's Invitation Singles, Second Round—Mrs. Frederick Schmitz defeated Miss Frances Brainard, 1—6, 6—1, 6—4.

Third Round—Miss Margaret Taylor defeated Mrs. Frederick Schmitz, 6—2, 6—2; Miss Molla Bjurstedt defeated Miss Marie Wagner, 10—8, 6—2; Mrs. Edward Raymond defeated Miss Martha Guthrie, 6—2, 6—0; Miss Edith Handy defeated Miss Helen Alexander, 6—1, 6—3.

Poly Prep defeated Adelphi Academy at tennis yesterday on the latter's courts by a score of 3 to 2. L. Maxwell Banks scored one of Adelphi's points in winning his singles match from Reimer of Poly, at 6—2, 6—1. Later, teamed with Durham, Banks again triumphed, this time beating Poly's star doubles pair of Kent and Francis, at 6—3, 6—4. The summaries:

Singles—Banks, Adelphi Academy, defeated Reimer, Poly Prep, 6—2, 6—1; Kent, Poly Prep, defeated Durham, Adelphi Academy, 6—1, 4—7, 6—4; Francis, Poly Prep, defeated Towse, Adelphi Academy, 6—3, 6—0.

Doubles—Banks and Durham, Adelphi Academy, defeated Kent and Francis, Poly Prep, 6—3, 6—4; McKibbin and Reimer, Poly Prep, defeated Towse and Perkins, Adelphi Academy, 6—3, 6—1.

Brooklyn Prep won all four of its tennis matches from Boys High yesterday on the Crown Heights court. The fifth match will be played to-day. Brooklyn Prep also will play off the two matches with Poly Prep which were postponed from last Tuesday. The Boys High players forced the Brooklyn Prep representatives hard in each match. Taylor and Meyers each won their singles matches, while in the doubles Taylor and Dobbins and Meyers and Egan won.

De Witt Clinton is leading in the Manhattan-Bronx-Richmond division of the P. S. A. L. tennis tournament. It has won all four matches, defeating Curtis, Morris, Townsend Harris and Commerce. Capt. Letson, Gallagher and Sorrin have not been defeated in a league match. Should Clinton win the championship the members of the team will receive their letters. Tennis is a minor sport at the Tenth avenue school and letters are given only when a championship is won.

Coach Smith of Clinton has entered a strong team in the P. S. A. L. championship meet to-morrow. Bernie Wefers, Jr., is expected to win one or both of the sprints.

For the first time in four years Townsend Harris Hall will be represented in the P. S. A. L. championships to-morrow. Capt. Marks will start in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Testa, captain of the baseball team, has entered the 220. MacDowell and Hosley are entered in the half mile and Hartung in the one mile.

Subtarget shooting took a big jump during the last year. Five hundred and eighty-five qualified as marksmen and 375 as sharpshooters. The latter were required to make perfect scores of fifty while the marksmen made forty-five or better out of a possible fifty. Silver medals will be awarded to the sharpshooters and bronze to the marksmen.

Stuyvesant High School won the Wingate Trophy for scoring the largest number of points. Morris, which has won the trophy for the last six years, was second. The summary of the competition:

School.	Marksmen.	Sharpshooters.	Points.
Stuyvesant	134	177	799
Morris	76	27	283
Erasmus Hall	52	20	184
Commercial	40	22	146

Davis Ostrinsky has won the chess championship of Morris High School. He finished the tournament without a defeat. Borochow and Krieger finished second and third respectively. Chess boards will be presented to the winners at a meeting to-day.

The General Organization of Manual Training has awarded letters to members of the track and swimming teams. Those who received their M. T. H. S. are:

For Track—Jack Clark, Frank John, Phillip Magid, Caleb Bloomgarden, Max Friedenberg, Victor Greenwald, Stanley Lester, Maurice Moss, Charlie Titus, George Cassaza, David Deutsch, Adolf Grinsky, Robert Thornblade, Howard Thompson, Wainwright Swain, Howard Kraemer, Albert Paradise and Harold Biggs.

For Swimming—Gregory Demonet, Randolph Tyrell, Antonio De Fronzo, Wallace Lundquist, Edward Garnaus, Robert Cowan, Sherman Shipman, Hutton Hinch, Sidney Canter, George McManus, Leslie Gardner, Donald Relyea and George Desier.

Newtown High School has won both of its matches in the P. S. A. L. tennis tournament. It won from Bryant by a score of 5 to 0 and Jamaica by a score of 4 to 1.

The scheduled dual meet between Erasmus Hall and Poly Prep has been called off. They were to have met Tuesday, but rain caused a postponement.

The annual games of Adelphi Academy were held on the school field yesterday afternoon. The high school boys competed for a point trophy, emblematic of the all around championship. For this prize Doblin is leading with four firsts and one second. Nine events were decided, and then the meeting was adjourned until next Thursday. Doblin won the standing broad jump, the 100, 200 and 440 yard dashes. Winslow won both the 100 and 220 for juniors in very fair time. Kingsley Aldridge, starting from scratch, won the 75 yard event for boys between 12 and 14 years. His time was 10 seconds. Dr. Petit managed the events as usual. The summaries:

60 Yard Dash for Boys Under 12 Years—Won by Hubbell; Mabein, second; Totten, third. Time, 8 2-5 seconds.

75 Yard Dash for Boys 12 to 14 Years—Won by Kingsley Aldridge; Fuller, second; K. Lane, third. Time, 10 seconds.

100 Yard Dash for Juniors—Won by Winslow; T. Roll, second; Bayles, third. Time, 13 3-5 seconds.

100 Yard Dash, Seniors—Won by Doblin; Miller, second; Horton, third. Time, 11 1-5 seconds.

220 Yard Dash, Junior—Won by Winslow; Roll, second; Young, third. Time, 25 1-5 seconds.

220 Yard Dash, Seniors—Won by Doblin; A. Love, second; E. Miller, third. Time, 21 3-5 seconds.

440 Yard Run—Won by Doblin; Love, second; Miller, third. Time not taken.

Standing Broad Jump—Won by Doblin, with 8 feet 9 inches; Horton, second, with 8 feet 7 inches; Miller, third, with 8 feet.

Running Broad Jump—Won by Miller, with 16 feet 6 inches; Doblin, second, with 16 feet 3 inches; Love, third, with 15 feet 6 inches.

STARS OF COLLEGE WORLD ARE READY

New Records Looked for in Intercollegiates To-day and Tomorrow.

CORNELL TEAM FAVORITE

BOSTON, May 25.—The pick of the country's college athletes are quartered here to-night ready for the beginning of the annual championship games of the Intercollegiate A. A. A. A. in the Harvard Stadium to-morrow afternoon. Trials in the field events and preliminary heats of the track contests will be held then to cut down the immense fields to reasonable size for the finals Saturday.

Cornell is regarded on all hands as certain to continue its domination of the field. Some few Yale partisans are enthusiastic enough to think their team has a chance for the point trophy, but they are exceeding few. The majority of those who have kept in touch with the various dual meet results expect Cornell to lead the runner up by at least fifteen points and perhaps thirty. The Ithacans have strength in every event on the programme, are expected to score in at least ten of them and to win perhaps as many as six.

Next to Cornell and Yale there seems to be an almost even fight among Harvard, University of Pennsylvania and Stanford, with Michigan, Dartmouth, Ted Meredith of Pennsylvania, who set a new world's record for the half mile two weeks ago, will attempt to repeat his double victory of last year in the quarter and half. If in his best condition he may smash the record for either. He will get sterner opposition this year than before.

In the mile Windnagle will encounter another man trying a double trick in the person of Johnny Overton, the Yale flier. Overton also is out for the two miles. Wilson of Stanford, with a record of 4:19, looks dangerous in the mile. Colwell of Princeton, and Campbell of Harvard are others who have beaten 4:30. In the two miles Overton will find his chif opposition in Potter and Hoffmre of Cornell, with a nip and tuck battle in sight.

Fred Murray, captain of the Stanford team, is the star of all the Californians entered. The 120 yard hurdle race seems a gift to him, but Watt of Cornell, Farwell of Yale, Trenholm of Dartmouth and Kauffman of Penn will pursue him hotly in the 220 yard event.

Alma Richards, national all around champion, promises to be the star of the field events. In the high jump he will renew his duel with Wesley Oler of Yale. Spears of Dartmouth and Caughey of Stanford are his principal rivals in the shotput. In the broad jump he will meet Oler again, but neither seems to have a show of beating Worthington of Dartmouth, who has exceeded 24 feet and is likely to smash the world's record.

MEREDITH IS ELIGIBLE.

He Will Compete in Intercollegiates—Maine Barred.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., May 25.—Ted Meredith, Pennsylvania's star runner, is still an amateur in good standing, according to a ruling of the executive committee of the I. C. A. A. A. A. A. to-night. Meredith's newspaper work was seized upon as the basis for a protest, but the committee gave the Quaker star a clean bill.

House, the star hurdler from Leland Standford, Jr., University of California, however, did not fare as well. House was declared ineligible to compete owing to the fact that as a freshman he won a prize in an open meet.

The executive committee ruled that the University of Maine cannot compete in this year's games. The Maine college failed to file its application early enough, and the committee declared the application was not received in season to permit of the calling of a special meeting of the association, and the committee, therefore, could not change the by-laws under the rules.

SOUTHERN CHAMPION BEATEN.

Bush Puts Dexter Out of Fight for Golf Title.

DALLAS, TEX., May 25.—The defeat of the champion, Charles L. Dexter, Jr., on his home course was the outstanding feature of the fourth match round of the Southern golf championship to-day at the Dallas Country Club. Reuben G. Bush of New Orleans was the golfer who put the champion out of the running.

In the thirty-six hole final round to-morrow Bush will meet S. C. Hurst of the home club, and Bryan Heard, a sixty-year-old golfer of Houston, will play J. R. England.

More Land Added to Golf Park.

The control of a 543 acre tract of New York city land was acquired yesterday by Massapequa Golf, Inc., which is developing a golf park at Massapequa, L. I. The total area that will be included in the golf park is now 1,105 acres, and it is intended to lay out six eighteen hole golf courses and one nine hole course. The plans for establishing the park has been changed and instead of selling stock to members an initiation fee will be charged as at other clubs.

Changes Name to Hydewood.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., May 25.—The Park Golf Club of North Plainfield, at a special meeting to-night, voted to change its name to Hdyewood Golf Club as a compliment to Louis K. Hyde, on whose land the course is located and for the reason that the club was constantly being confused with the Park Club nearby.

MRS. BARLOW LOSES PHILADELPHIA TITLE

Four Year Reign Ends When Mrs. G. S. Munson Wins in Semi-final Round.

PHILADELPHIA, May 25.—Mrs. Ronald H. Barlow, woman golf champion of Philadelphia, was dethroned to-day from the pedestal she has occupied for four successive years by Mrs. George S. Munson, a fellow member of the Merion Cricket Club, in the semi-final round of the twentieth annual women's championship tournament at the Whitemarsh Valley Country Club. Mrs. Munson defeated the title holder by 3 up and 2 to play.

In the other semi-final match, Miss Mildred Caverly, Philadelphia Cricket Club, defeated Miss Ethel Campbell of the same club, also winning by 3 up and 2 to play. The two victors meet to-morrow in the final and championship round. The summary:

Championship Sixteen, Semi-final Round—Miss Mildred Caverly, Philadelphia Cricket, defeated Miss Ethel Campbell, Philadelphia Cricket, 3 and 2; Mrs. George S. Munson, Merion, defeated Mrs. Ronald H. Barlow, Merion, 3 and 2.

Defeated Eight, Semi-final Round—Mrs. G. Henry Stetson, Huntingdon Valley, defeated Mrs. W. J. Peck, St. David's, 6 and 5; Miss May Bell, Philadelphia Cricket, defeated Miss E. G. Hood, Philadelphia Cricket, 3 and 1.

Third Eight, Final Round—Mrs. Milton Herold, Philmont, defeated Miss Sarah Myers, St. David's, 4 and 2.

WOOL GOLFERS VISIT SIWANOY.

George Martin Wins Gross Prize With Score of 88.

MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., May 25.—The members of the Wool Trade Golf Association played their annual spring tournament to-day on the links of the Siwanoy Country Club. The main event on the programme was an eighteen hole handicap in which George Martin won the gross prize with an 88 and Herbert F. Howard, a class B golfer, the net prize with a card of 99—22, 77. The field was divided into three classes, and the trio of winners were: Class A, M. B. Metcalf, 99—15, 84; class B, Russell McIntosh, 99—20, 79; class C, Harry I. Cæsar, 105—27, 78.

There also was a driving contest, which was won by J. N. Mason, whose total for three balls was 680 yards. R. K. Vezin, 649 yards, was second and Fred Broom, 510 yards, third. The leading scores in the handicap:

Class A—M. B. Metcalf, 99—15, 84; George Martin, 88—2, 86; G. H. Williams, 94—8, 86; T. G. Donahue, 101—15, 86; Ethan Allen, 103—15, 88; J. H. Knapp, 102—12, 89.

Class B—Herbert Howard, 99—22, 77; Russell McIntosh, 99—20, 79; R. K. Vezin, 99—15, 82; M. Underhill, 109—26, 83; H. S. Mannhardt, 101—20, 87; H. G. Waterhouse, 104—17, 87.

Class C—H. J. Cæsar, 105—27, 78; W. Stroud, 109—28, 81; H. J. Ommerle, 108—25, 83; B. Waterhouse, 112—27, 85; M. H. Meinnard, 122—30, 92.

MISS RAMSAY REACHES FINAL.

Will Play Miss Allen To-day for Boston Women's Title.

BOSTON, Mass., May 25.—Miss Vera Ramsay and Miss Eleanor W. Allen are the finalists in the championship of the Boston Women's Golf Association. The former's victory over Miss F. C. Osgood was not unexpected, but the defeat of Miss Harriot S. Curtis by Miss Allen was unlooked for. The latter won at the nineteenth hole, being 3 up at the turn. After losing the tenth Miss Curtis took the next three holes and was one down after a perfect 3 at the sixteenth. Miss Curtis squared the match at the home green, but she lost the match through a short drive and topped second at the extra hole.

An unpleasant situation arose before Miss Ramsay started over a discussion about her caddy. Some of the women thought he was a professional and questioned her right to have him carry her clubs and advise her. Miss Ramsay was willing to default to Miss Osgood, but the latter would not permit it and the difficulty was smoothed over when it was learned the young man was an amateur whose name is the same as that of the Salem club professional. The summary:

Semi-final Round—Miss Vera Ramsay, Salem, defeated Miss F. C. Osgood, Brookline, 3 and 1; Miss Eleanor W. Allen, Oakley, defeated Miss H. S. Curtis, Brookline, 1 up (19 holes).

ANOTHER SHAKEUP AT PENN.

Only One Man in Crew Has Old Job When Wright Gets Through.

PHILADELPHIA, May 25.—For the third time in ten days, Coach Joe Wright of the Pennsylvania crews made a complete change of his varsity eight to-day. Only one man retained his original place this afternoon when the crews took to the water, and three of them were back in the junior boat. Littleton, Glanz and Madeira were sent back to the second boat, while Gotham was told to take a few days rest, as he has not been feeling well lately.

Chickering, Ross and Pepper were switched to other seats. Chickering went back to bow, while Wirkman was advanced to his place at No. 7. Ross, the stroke, was put into the No. 2 position and his place filled by Drayton, pacemaker of the junior boat. Pepper was changed from No. 7 to No. 4. Tilden of the juniors took Gotham's place at No. 3 and Guenther was sent to No. 6.

Thurman Lee Is Tennis Winner.

Thurman Lee won the class B section of the spring tennis tournament of the Real Estate Board of New York yesterday at the Harlem Tennis Club courts, defeating Leroy Coventry in the final round straight sets at 7—5, 6—2. In class A, Phillips and Fox reached the final. The former defeated S. M. Isaacs in the semi-final at 6—4, 6—2, while Fox eliminated Root at 6—0, 6—4.

CHURCH WINS TWICE AND IS IN TENNIS FINAL

Defeats Man and Ward in Straight Sets in Sleepy Hollow Tourney.

SCARBOROUGH, N. Y., May 25.—George M. Church reached the final round in the Sleepy Hollow Country Club invitation singles here to-day by taking straight set matches from Aldrick H. Mann, Jr., and Vanderbilt B. Ward. The Northwestern champion downed Man in the fourth round at 6—4, 6—3, and Ward in the semi-final at 6—2, 6—2. Ward had defeated King Smith in straight sets at 9—7, 6—2.

Mann gave Church a hard fight from start to finish in spite of the fact that he failed to win a set. In the opening set, after trailing at 1—3, the former New England champion developed a streak of brilliant playing and evened the score. He succeeded in passing Church time and again when the latter attempted to come to the net. After tying the score Man played with renewed energy, but Church seeing that he had a battle on his hands increased his speed too. As a result the next couple of games were the best of the set, and Church won both after deuce had been called. Man won the ninth on his own service and did not lose the tenth until it had gone to deuce four times.

Although the early part of the second set was replete with sustained rallies and pretty volleying, the games went quickly and Church won the first three in a row. This lead gave the former Princeton star his margin of victory, for thereafter each of the men won on service. In the double Harold A. Throckmorton, national interscholastic champion, and Willis E. Davis, the young California player, reached the final round by a straight set victory over Karl H. Behr and Watson M. Washburn at 6—2, 6—4. The latter pair had beaten James S. O'Neale and Dr. William Rosenbaum in the second round at 6—1, 6—0. The summaries:

Sleepy Hollow Country Club Men's Invitation, Singles, Fourth Round—George M. Church defeated Aldrick H. Man, Jr., 6—4, 6—3; Vanderbilt B. Ward defeated King Smith, 9—7, 6—2.

Semi-final Round—George M. Church defeated V. B. Ward, 6—2, 6—2.

Invitation Doubles, Second Round—Karl Behr and Watson M. Washburn defeated James S. O'Neale and Dr. William Rosenbaum, 6—1, 6—0.

Semi-final Round—Harold A. Throckmorton and Willis E. Davis defeated Karl Behr and Watson M. Washburn, 6—2, 6—4.

COURTNEY REORGANIZES CREW.

New Combination Will Tackle Yale and Princeton.

ITHACA, May 25.—An entirely new Cornell varsity crew will row Yale and Princeton Saturday unless Coach Charles E. Courtney changes his plans at the last minute. In a race to-day a combination made up of last year's junior, varsity and freshmen oarsmen beat the regular eight decisively over a two mile course, and Courtney probably will pick this eight to row for Cornell Saturday. He wants the fastest combination he can get together to race the Tigers and Eli, and there is little question that the new crew will have the call.

The new combination is stroked by Kingsland, who pared the freshman eight a year ago. The new Cornell varsity eight as it will probably row Saturday follows: Fitzpatrick, bow; Little, 2; Moir, 3; Bonney, 4; Kirkland, 5; Brinkerhoff, 6; Cowan, 7; Kingsland, stroke; Kephart, coxswain.
