New Automobile Record at Chicago

RESTA WINS RACE AND MAKES RECORD

He Drives Giant Car 300 Miles at Rate of 98.61 Miles an Hour.

RALPH DE PALMA SECOND

CHICAGO, June 11.—Dario Resta won the fastest 300 mile race ever driven by automobiles to-day at Speedway Park in 3 hours 2 minutes 31.65 seconds, a speed of 98.61 miles an hour.

Ralph de Palma had the race well in hand and started out to cover the last six miles at a speed never before seen in actual contest when the old time hoodoo which has wrested four other races from him broke a spring on his motor and took the laurel wreath from off his brow.

Undaunted he disconnected the cylinder affected and sped around the course on the other three and won second place and its $6,000 prize.

It was a day of superlatives. Every winner of a prize, ten in all, drove faster than the fastest time made at Indianapolis on May 30, and the eleventh hour withdrawal of the Indianapolis team had no effect on the merits of this race.

Resta won his $12,000 prize, with the two extra $500 prizes for leading at 100 and at 200 miles. He fought Eddie Rickenbacher lap by lap until Eddie had to withdraw at the sixty-first lap because of a broken engine valve. Then De Palma got on his trail, and they never relaxed the bitterest fight ever seen on an American speedway until disaster overtook De Palma.

Only one accident occurred during the race and that was after Calvin, in the Number 16 Sunbeam, had finished the race and was coasting around the south turn. His car threw a right back tire and rolled over twice. He and his mechanician, Frank Kroll, were thrown out, but outside of a bruised arm neither was injured. Christiaens, winner of third money, drove out and brought the two men back to the pit.

The winners of the prizes, the cars they drove, the elapsed time and their total prize money were:

Car and Driver.	Time.	Prizes.
Peugeot, Resta	3:02:31.65	$13,000
Mercedes, De Palma	3:04:25.27	6,000

GORDON AGAIN FIRST IN MAYO MILE EVENT

Leads James Plant at Finish by More Than Fifty Yards —Banfield Is Third.

Willie Gordon, running under the colors of the New York Athletic Club, won as he pleased in the Mayo mile, the feature event at the annual games of the Mayo Men's Association held at Celtic Park yesterday. There were only two other starters, James W. Plant of the Long Island A. C. and Willie Banfield of the Knights of St. Anthony. They finished second and third respectively. Gordon began making the pace at the 220 yard mark, increasing his lead to ten by more than fifty yards. It is the second year in succession that Gordon won the race.

Walter Johnson of the Swedish-American A. C. made good use of the liberal handicap of 240 yards alotted him in the three mile chase. So long was his start that his lead was never once challenged. Horace H. Holden, formerly of Yale, now of the New York A. C., won second position from the fifty yard mark. The summaries:

One Mile Run, Scratch—Won by Willie Gordon, New York A. C.; Jim Plant, Long Island A. C., second; W. J. Banfield, Knights of St. Antony, third. Time, 4 minutes 19 2-5 seconds.

Three Mile Run, Handicap—Won by Walter Johnson, Swedish American A. C., 240 yards; H. R. Holden, New York A. C., 50 yards, second; Frank Masterson, New York A. C., 35 yards, third. Time, 15 minutes 14 2-5 seconds.

One Mile Run, Handicap—Won by R. Weisberg, New York A. C., 3 yards; A. Reinhardt, unattached, 5 yards, second; W. J. Banfield, Knights of St. Antony, 3 yards, third. Time, 33 2-5 seconds.

One Mile Run, Handicap—Won by A. J. Coughlin, Irish American A. C., 16 yards; J. Kelly, Irish American A. C., 6 yards, second; W. Rose, unattached, 5 yards, third. Time, 1 minute 15 2-5 seconds.

Quarter Mile Bicycle Race, Scratch—Won by F. Nuciarella, Unione Sportiva Italiana; J. Welsen, Acme Wheelmen, second; P. Reinecke, Acme Wheelmen, third. Time, 3 minutes 5 seconds.

BUSY ON POLO FIELDS.

Tourneys Stopped by Rain Will Be Resumed This Week.

A busy week is outlined for polo on turf and for away fields as soon as the turf dries out after the long spell of rain. On Long Island the arrival of the ponies from Lord Wimborne's English estate on Saturday night, after a late ride in motor vans from the liner Siberia to Westbury, furnished the only gossip among the players yesterday.

Play will be resumed in the tournament for the Hempstead cups this afternoon in the event of the Meadow Brook Club's fields being dry enough for galloping. A game between the Meadow Brook Cardinals and the Rockaway team is on the programme.

Weather and turf permitting, the regular practice games of the Squadron A Polo Club, scheduled for 5 P. M. every Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoon, will be resumed to-day at Van Cortlandt Park. They are of special interest as a free entertainment for visitors to New York's largest park and as an object lesson in riding skill of the military troopers.

At the Bryn Mawr Polo Club of the Philadelphia group on account of the wet days a new draw has had to be made for the remaining games in the series for the Wootton cup, the trophy given by G. W. Childs Drexel, and in days since 1911, as no team has won it three times. Play for the Fox Hunters cup, the gift of Robert E. Strawbridge, for which teams entered, has also to be run off this week, if possible, to give a free field for the Devon, Pa., tournament from June 20 to 27.

To-morrow a tournament of national significance is to begin at Dayton, Ohio, for the mid-Western circuit cups, in competition last year at the Thousand Island Club, Alexandria Bay, and won by the Westmoreland, Pa., four. The Westmoreland team will try again, and other entries are of the Miami Valley, Ohio, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Pittsburg and Thousand Island Polo Club teams.

Rain Prevents Trotting Races.

The weekly matinee of the Road Drivers Association, which was to have been held yesterday afternoon on the Harlem Speedway, was postponed on account of the inclement weather. The races will be held Wednesday.

VOSHELL GAINS FINAL IN WESTCHESTER TOURNEY

Beats Whitney in Hard Three Set Match and Will Meet Either Washburn or Baggs on Saturday.

S. Howard Voshell, Bronx county and eastern New York State champion, reached the final round in the singles of the invitation tennis tournament yesterday at the Country Club of Westchester courts by defeating E. H. Whitney, former Harvard player, two sets to one at 6—3, 4—6, 10—8. Whitney gained his place in the semi-final round by defeating Walter Merrill Hall, former middle States champion, earlier in the day in straight sets at 6—1, 6—4, and the impressive style in which he disposed of Hall made many of the onlookers believe that he would add Voshell to his list of victims.

Voshell, however, was in good form, and it was only the soft and slippery turf that prevented him from winning more easily than he did. The winner was especially effective on his overhead play and scored many of his points on placements by this style of stroke. Voshell was erratic in spots, as he usually is, but outside of losing the second set through his wild play it did not do him a great deal of harm, for Whitney had streaks of wildness too.

The soft strokes of the former Harvard player seemed to bother Voshell a great deal in the early games of the opening set. The balls dropped to the dead turf with such little force that Voshell had trouble making gets. The Brooklyn player won the opening game on Whitney's service, but dropped the next three in a row, two of them requiring extra points for decision. Voshell found his speed in the fifth game and then started a spurt, replete with sharp, sustained rallies and brilliant strokes, which he kept going until he had carried off five straight games and the set with them. Voshell was going faster at the finish than at the start, and ended the set with two successive love games.

The strain of the long stretch of fast tennis told on both the players and neither of them showed to great advantage in the second set. The men alternated winning games until the score stood 5—4 in favor of Whitney, he having won the odd and Voshell the even games. Voshell developed a wild streak in the tenth game, and his errors gave the game to Whitney at love, deciding the set in favor of the former Harvard man and tying up the match.

In the final set Whitney got away to an early lead of 2—1, but Voshell overtook him and was out in front at five games to three. A game here would have given the Brooklyn man the match, but he slowed up for a time and Whitney sent the set to deuce by winning the ninth and tenth games, in both of which Voshell's tenacity to overhit the ball was costly. For seven games more the men alternated on wins, Voshell taking the lead on the odd games only to have deuce called again on the even. The Brooklyn man had a hard time keeping his lead by winning the seventeenth game, which he could not count his own until deuce had been called twice, but he played brilliantly and broke through on the eighteenth game, which gave him the set and the match.

Frederick Baggs of the Borough Park Lawn Tennis Club came through to the semi-final round in the upper half by defeating Dr. William Rosenbaum two sets to one at 7—5, 3—6, 8—6. His victory brackets him with Watson M. Washburn. The Baggs-Washburn match will be played some time during the week, and the winner will meet Voshell next Saturday. The summaries:

Country Club of Westchester, Men's Invitation Singles, Third Round—Frederick C. Baggs defeated Dr. William Rosenbaum, 7—5, 3—6, 8—6. E. H. Whitney defeated Walter Merrill Hall, 6—1, 6—4.

Semi-final round—S. Howard Voshell defeated E. H. Whitney, 6—3, 4—6, 10—8. The point score:

FIRST SET.

Voshell	4	6	3	2	5	4	4	4	4	4	36	—	8
Whitney	1	8	5	4	3	1	2	0	0	0	24	—	3

SECOND SET.

Voshell	4	4	3	5	0	8	0	4	4	0	32	—	4
Whitney	6	6	5	3	4	6	4	2	6	4	40	—	6

THIRD SET.

Voshell	4	8	2	5	2	4	4	2	2	4	1	5	5	3	6	4	70	—	10
Whitney	2	10	4	3	0	1	1	4	2	4	3	7	3	5	4	1	62	—	8

Total—Voshell, 3 sets, 23 games, 138 points. Whitney, 1 set, 17 games, 126 points.

YALE AND HARVARD CREWS GO YACHTING

Oarsmen Spend Sunday in Trips on Sound—Crimson Freshman Is Ill.

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 11.—The Yale and Harvard rowing squads went yachting to-day, notwithstanding the drizzling rain that greeted them when they left camp about 11 o'clock this morning. The weather continued disagreeable until the return to quarters late in the afternoon.

Yale's squad was divided between the steam yachts Sultana, Kanawha and Margaret and the auxiliary schooner yacht Savarona. The oarsmen went on an excursion up and down Long Island Sound. Harvard's squad boarded the power yachts Gypsy and Needle, the varsity crews going to Fisher's Island on the former craft. The Needle also conveyed the freshmen to Fisher's Island, where the oarsmen spent a short while inspecting the fortifications. The freshmen also took a trip up the Thames River as far as Norwich. Head Coach Herrick went to Boston Saturday night, but was back in camp again this evening and will have the crews resume practice to-morrow morning.

John Linder, who has been rowing number three in Harvard's freshman boat has been sent back to Cambridge owing to a swollen gland in his neck. At Red Top to-night it was reported that Linder's absence from the shell will be temporary and he will probably be in the boat again by the middle of the week. This is the first break in any of the squads through illness since they came to Gales Ferry.

BROOKLYN CELTICS WIN.

Four Time Winners of State League Beat MacDonalds.

Once again the Shamrock triumphed over the Thistle at soccer when the Brooklyn Celtics, four time winners of the championship of New York State League, defeated the Clan MacDonalds of Brooklyn, runnersup in that competition, by the score of 3 goals to 0, at Celtic Park yesterday. The Celtics were at full strength and reenforced in the halfback line by Casey, recently returned from South America.

Scoring twice in the first half and again in the second, the State champions had it pretty much all their own way until near the close of the game, when the Clansmen braced up and frequently were dangerous. The field was about twenty yards longer than usual. From a corner forced by O'Halloran and kicked out by that player, McKenna, fifteen minutes from the start, headed in the first goal of the game after a brilliant save by Renzulli, custodian for the MacDonalds. Two minutes later McKenna worked the ball down on the left and Harrison, from inside right, placed the Celtics 2 up.

For twenty minutes of the second period the Clan MacDonalds held their own, but after a fierce bombardment their goal yielded once more as O'Halloran aimed a true shot past the goalkeeper. Tintle, in goal for the victors, gave a brilliant exhibition, being finely supported by McGreevey and Ferguson in the back division. O'Halloran, Hardy, McKenna, Ross, McChesnie and MacCulloch excelled among the forwards. The lineup:

Brooklyn Celtics.	Positions.	Clan MacDonalds.
Tintle	Goal	Renzulli
McGreevey	Right back	Gibb
Ferguson	Left back	Bell
Casey	Right half	Stuart
Bustard	Centre half	McCann
Boyd	Left half	Porter
O'Halloran	Outside right	Ross
Harrison	Inside right	McChesnie
Hardy	Centre	Mitchell
McKenna	Outside left	MacCulloch

Score—Brooklyn Celtics, 3; Clan MacDonalds, 0. Goals—McKenna, Harrison, O'Halloran. Brooklyn Celtics. Referee—William Moran, Greenpoint F. C. Linesmen—H. Rodin and J. Morrison. Time—Halves of 30 minutes.

Mixed Foursomes at Oakland.

W. V. Swords and Mrs. Theodore Cassebeer won a mixed foursome competition, which was concluded yesterday on the links of the Oakland Golf Club. Their score was 90—11, 79. There was a triple tie for second place, in which C. Van Burgen and Miss Smith, 101—18, 83; T. Taylor and Mrs. Ball, 99—16, 83, and Charles E. Finlay and Mrs. G. K. Morrell, 101—18, 83, participated.

COLLEGE OARSMEN SPEND DAY INDOORS

Rice Visits Courtney and Cornell Coach Decides to Remain to See Race.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 11.—The rowing colony spent its last day of rest to-day preliminary to the twenty-second annual regatta of the Intercollegiate Rowing Association Saturday. Because of the rain the squads did not even go on their usual hikes over the hills. The only exercise indulged in at any of the quarters was mental. The Cornell men are not through with their examinations, so they used the day to advantage over their books.

Because of the rain the Columbia and Cornell squads did not have their usual tea at Mrs. Van Cleef's place, about a mile up the river on the east bank. Consequently the traditional bettings of shirts on the outcome of the race was not indulged in, but the old time rivalry may result in the perennial wager of jerseys before race day, however.

The heralded departure of Coach Charles E. Courtney, scheduled for today, was another thing that did not occur. The veteran Cornell coach will remain with his men and says that he may even view the race from the observation train. Usually he spends regatta day on the porch of the quarters at Oakes or behind the boathouse whittling wood. This year he thinks he will be with his boys throughout the race. They are sure they can win if he is looking on.

"My physician," said Courtney, "does not believe I ought to put myself in any predicament where my nerves might get the best of me. He wants me to get far from the scene of the regatta. But I know it would be less of a strain to see the boys do their stunt than it would to be away thinking of what they were doing. I guess I will see that race all right."

Head Coach Jim Rice and Assistant Coach Fred Plaisted of Columbia visited Courtney in the morning and exchanged views on the crews. Fred Plaisted is twelve days older than Courtney and both are sixty-seven years of age. Plaisted is digging up the old days of professional sculling put the wizard of the Hudson in a happier mood that he has been in for more than a year.

Syracuse gave a minstrel show to the children of Highland last night. The Orange navy was invited by the Rev. Mr. Coddington of the M. E. Church, a former Syracuse athlete, to take part in the festivities. Coach Ten Eyck said that if they rowed as well as they performed on the stage the trophies might just as well be shipped to Syracuse tonight.

JAMES IN SEMI-FINAL ROUND.

Defeats Littell in Only Singles Match in Amackassin Tourney.

YONKERS, N. Y., June 11.—Owing to the rain in the forenoon and early afternoon, few of the contestants in the Amackassin Club tennis tournament came up to the courts here to-day and as a result only three matches were played. The lone singles contest resulted in a straight set victory for R. L. James over E. G. Littell, at 11—9, 6—3, in the fourth round and put the winner in the semi-finals.

In the doubles two teams moved out to the semi-final round, both in the upper half of the draw. Harry Steinkampf and R. L. James won easily in the third round from E. Henderson and E. H. Janes, at 6—3, 6—4, while Hugo Hartmann and Elliott Binzen defeated H. Harris and E. Field, at 6—2, 6—0. It is likely that these teams will play their semi-final round match to-morrow.

Golfers Tie at Great Neck.

Dr. Charles Merkel Niesley and Walter Clifford tied in a competition against bogey on the links of the Great Neck Golf Club yesterday, both being two down to their mythical opponent. Bogey for the course is 76, while the par for the eighteen holes is 73.

Two Point Lead for Marshall.

By defeating D. Janowski of Paris in the sixth game at the rooms of the Manhattan Chess Club yesterday F. J. Marshall, the United States champion, once more obtained a two point lead over his opponent. Janowski resigned after thirty-eight moves. The score is: Marshall, 3, Janowski, 1; drawn, 2.

16 FINNS TO BUILD FLAT OF THEIR OWN

High Rentals Forced Them to Provide Own House.—Will Cost $45,000.

On Forty-third street near Eighth avenue, South Brooklyn, sixteen Finns will erect a tenement for their own use. It is the first cooperative tenement to be planned in the borough.

The house will cost $45,000, according to plans filed for it last week. It is to be four stories high and will have accommodations for the sixteen owners and their families, who are to be known as the Finnish Home Building Company.

The Finns have been saving money for this purpose for many years. Lack of good housing facilities at reasonable rentals in that part of Brooklyn led to the project. The sixteen friends decided that they would have to provide a place of their own if they expected to have the type of home and surroundings desired.

The Finnish Home Building Company was the outcome of the desire. Officers were selected from among the sixteen in the company and a regular allotment toward a building fund was decided on. The Finns have remained steadfast in their plans and not long ago took the first step toward fulfilling them by purchasing a building site on the south side of Forty-third street 20 feet east of Eighth avenue. Architects were told to work out the details of the first cooperative tenement of this type to be planned in the city. Every apartment is planned to meet the wishes of the tenant and owner.

The cost of the operation will be divided pro rata. The scheme is similar to the big cooperative apartment projects of Manhattan in every respect except cost of structure.

ZONING PLAN READY.

Commission Sends Report to Board of Estimate.

The Commission on Building Districts and Restrictions has sent to the Board of Estimate a final report of its work of more than a year. With the report went maps and a resolution drafted by the commission giving a summary of the ordinance and suggesting that it be accepted by the city.

The Board of Estimate will take up consideration of the measure on June 19 at 10:30 A. M. in the Board of Estimate Chamber in City Hall. It will be open to the public. Before acceptance the public will be given plenty of opportunity to express itself on the plan.

SOUTHAMPTON RENTALS.

Alfred E. Schermerhorn has rented at Southampton for Mrs. Mary A. Henderson her cottage on Herrick road to Lucius Wilmerding; for George H. Fordham East Cottage, on Shinnecock road, to Mme. WILL DESIGN BIG FLATS.

George F. Pelham has been retained to prepare plans for the group of eight five-story apartment houses to be erected on the property bounded by Dyckman and Academy streets, Post and Nagle avenues, for Joseph Falk. Each building will occupy a plot 165x100. The entire project will cost $800,000.

SENATOR HASENPFLUG BUYS.

L. Covert has sold for John Hasselbring 167 Vanderveer place, Brooklyn Manor, a large Queen Anne cottage, garage and outbuildings on plot 80x100, to Senator Hasenpflug, who will use it as his residence.

ARVERNE PROPERTY SOLD.

The Lewis H. May Company has resold for C. K. Brosnan the Tostevin property on the east side of Straiton avenue, Arverne, L. I., to the Rekop Realty Company.

$100,000 BROADWAY FLATS.

On the north side of 150th street, 100 feet east of Broadway, two six story flats, each to contain thirty-one families, and each with a frontage of 37 feet and a depth of 86.11 feet, will be erected for the S. D. Davis Construction Company, Samuel D. Davis president. Samuel Cohen and Michael Bernstein are the architects and have estimated the cost at $100,000.

GAS CO. BUYS AT HEWLETT.

John F. Scott has sold for Paul Haller and Ellis R. Wood a plot, 100x338, on Franklin avenue at Hewlett Station, L. I., to the Queens Borough Gas & Electric Company.

TORCH CLEANS OUT JOINTS.

Oklahoma Girl Fires Places Where Father Spent Money.

BARTLESVILLE, Okla., June 11.—The torch is the most effective weapon to be used in fighting joints, according to the notion of a nineteen-year-old Copan girl, who admits she fired a Copan pool hall and rooming house where intoxicating liquors are said to have been sold and which has just been closed by an injunction.

The girl says her father was spending all his time and money there. Copan is on the booze trail leading out of Kansas into Oklahoma. The girl has warned all bootleggers that the town is to remain closed. She even threatens to form a squadron of women to be known as "High Jackies," to war against the liquor traffic.

Singer Games Are Postponed.

Rain caused a postponement of the annual games of the Singer Employees Athletic Association scheduled for yesterday at its field in Elizabethport, N. J. They will be held next Sunday. A number of New York city athletes went to the park, hoping the weather would clear.
