The corrected reading of the barometer (reduced to sea level) at New York on Saturday, Feb 7, 1920, at 8 AM, as reported by the United States Weather Bureau, was twenty-nine and forty-three hundredths (29.43) inches. This closely approximates seven hundred and forty-seven and five-tenths (747.5) millimetres. Captains of all vessels now lying in or near the ports of New York and Brooklyn can advantageously use the above official data for observing whether their own barometers require any considerable correction or adjustment.

Wind at Sandy Hook, 8 PM, NW, 18 miles; clear and light sea. At City Island at sunset, NW, light; clear; no sea on account of ice.

FOREIGN WEATHER CABLEGRAMS.

CAPE RACE, NF, Feb 7—Barometer at noon, 29.28 inches; wind, S, fresh; weather, dense fog; temperature, 32 deg Fahr.

MARITIME MISCELLANY.

A wireless message from str Polar Bear, Baker for New York via Bermuda, saying that the vessel was drifting helpless near the coast of Bermuda, was received by str Princess Matoika late Friday night. The Princess Matoika docked at the army base, Brooklyn, yesterday. The message said the vessel needed assistance and was in lat 34 40 N, lon 66 40 W.

In the floe last night broke a plank in the old ferryboat Rockland, laid up in the Tietjen & Lang Dry Dock in Hoboken, and the boat sank. The vessel is about 60 years old. It plies between Nyack and Tarrytown.

Among the passengers of the str Princess Matoika, which arrived at this port yesterday from Cristobal, were thirty-three members of the crew of the str Marne, New York for Melbourne, which took fire at the Canal Zone and was sunk by submarine January 28.

BOSTON, Mass, Feb 7, 10 AM—A wireless message received from the str Pollux reports str Jan on Calley Ledges, off Port Clyde, near Rockland, at 6 PM yesterday while running at a speed of 8½ knots; bottom is stove in and vessel is full of water; one boat containing ten men left at 9:30 PM and is unaccounted for; the remainder of the crew were taken off by the coast guard crews from stations Nos 6 and 7 and landed on cutter Acushnet.

CAPE MAY, NJ, Feb 7—Four of the crew of the three masted barge George W Scofield were rescued from the ship when she broke loose from a tow and went ashore on the north end of Corson Inlet yesterday. The barge was bound from Boston to Philadelphia in tow with two other barges when her line broke.

CITY ISLAND, NY, Feb 7—Strs Pequonnock and New York, bound from New London, Ct, for New York, which have been fast in the ice east of Execution Light for three days, were released today and passed south.

HAVANA, Feb 6—Fire broke out this afternoon aboard str Rookland at the Regla Docks in Havana Harbor. It spread to the principal buildings of the American Agricultural and Chemical Company, destroying the buildings and their contents. The loss is estimated at more than $10,000,000.

LEWES, Del, Feb 7, 9 AM—Pilotboat Edmunds is ashore inside of Cape Henlopen.

NORFOLK, Va, Feb 6—Coast guard cutter Manning has reached str Jacksonville, disabled southeast of Cape Hatteras, and is trying to get a line to her, but heavy seas and a strong wind is making the task difficult.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa, Feb 7—Str Lake Frazee, while proceeding to the Philadelphia Navy Yard, grounded off Gloucester about 9:30 AM.

Str Washington, which sailed from Claymont, Del, for New York, returned to port displaying two black balls, meaning vessel not under control.

REEDY ISLAND, Del, Feb 7—Tug Atkins Bigsby, towing tug John F Lewis, passed up here at 9 AM; the Lewis has pilot house damaged and forward flagpole broken.

SANDY HOOK, NJ, Feb 7, 11:09 AM—Str Catalina (Sp), for Cadiz, &c, which passed out Quarantine at 4:34 PM Feb 3, is anchored outside the bar; appears to be damaged on dock and port side.

VANCOUVER, BC, Feb 7—Two steamship services between Vancouver and New York will be started within three months, say announcements made here to-day. The Canadian Robert Dollar Co announced the early starting of a New York-Vancouver-Orient service with five large steamers, and the Maple Leaf line, of New York, announced it would resume the pre-war schedule of a monthly ship the latter part of this month.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

WASHINGTON, DC, Feb 7, 10 AM—Northwest storm warning, New York, Rock Island and Nantucket; storm centered over Nova Scotia, moving northeastward; strong northwest winds will probably continue the next twenty-four hours.
