United States Lawn Tennis Association Will Make a Redraw of the Davis Cup Entry So as to Let in France and Canada

DAVIS CUP ENTRY TO BE REDRAWN

U.S.L.T.A. Agrees to France's Belated Request—Canada May Come In Too.

France has reconsidered rather suddenly her intention of staying out of the international tennis tournament for the Davis cup this year and has requested the consent of every one of the four challenging countries, as well as the Australian cup holders, to a redraw.

News to that effect was received by the United States Lawn Tennis Association two days ago in a cable from the French organization, which read:

"Australia requests your consent to reopen draw for Davis cup to include France. If you consent please cable authorization to Sydney."

It is nearly six weeks now since entries closed with the Australasian Lawn Tennis Association. At that time a draw was made that coupled the United States with South Africa and England with Holland. After the cabled announcement of the draw from Sydney came the information that Canada's challenge had arrived after the date for closing of entries and that Australia under the rules governing Davis cup competition could not accept the entry without the unanimous consent of the countries already drawn.

It was learned later that Canada's challenge had been caught on a cable break at Vancouver and had been relayed to Australia by way of England instead. This caused a delay sufficient for the cable to arrive a day late. Australia suggested that Canada get in touch with the United States, England, Holland and South Africa and request a redraw. For some reason or other the suggestion was not acted upon. The draw apparently was to remain as originally announced and the United States Lawn Tennis Association, anxious to settle its international programme definitely, already had cabled South Africa to consent to the preliminaries being held in England.

From the first France's failure to challenge had been a mystery to tennis officials in this country, and it still remains so for no explanation has been given either of the original decision not to compete or of the reconsideration a month or more later.

At a meeting yesterday the Davis Cup Committee of the United States Lawn Tennis Association voted to consent to a redraw and immediately cabled the Australians as follows: "United States consents second draw Davis Cup admitting late entries. Cable decision immediately." At the same time the association took the opportunity of acquainting Canada with the facts of France's late entry, suggesting that if a redraw were to be made Canada could come in conveniently at this time. In a telegram to the president of the Canadian Lawn Tennis Association, Paul Williams, field secretary of the U. S. L. T. A., wrote: "Our Davis Cup Committee has consented to accept French entry and I thought in fairness you ought to be informed so that if you had not heard from Australia about this matter and still desired to enter, you would know there was a chance for another draw."

It is not thought that any of the other challenging countries will object to a redraw. A precedent was established in the spring of 1914 when Germany's late entry was accepted.

Hussas beat the barrier by a couple of lengths, which advantage made him the winner. He was bearing out through the stretch racing. True As Steel ran a good race. Probably would have won with an equal start. Earnest ran well. Annabelle tired badly in the final furlong. Enos had early speed.

51 SECOND RACE—Three-year-olds and upward. Claiming. Seven furlongs. Purse, $1,042.85. Time, 1:29 1-5. Post, 3:09. Off, 3:04. Winner, ch. f., 4, by Ivan the Terrible—Veracious. Owner, W. H. FIZER. Trainer, H. Randolph. Start good. Won easily.

Deckhand had no excuse and was always close to the pace. Ina Kay had speed for half mile, then collapsed utterly.

Marmite stole a long early lead, tired suddenly in the last sixteenth and just lasted to win. Hope, outrun to the stretch, slipped through on inside, closed fast and would have won in another stride. Tiger Rose tired following the early pace. Parrish ran a good race.

53 FOURTH RACE—For four-year-olds and upward. Selling. Six and a half furlongs. Purse, $1,042.85. Time, 1:21 4-5. At post 4:15. Off 4:19. Winner, b. g., 5, by Lovette—Indian Lass. Owner, JOHN KENNEDY. Trainer, O. F. Johnson. Start good. Won driving.

Winner entered for $1,000; sold to J. Kennedy for $2,800. Etzabe, under restraint to the stretch turn, saved ground, came fast, took lead at furlong pole, gamely held Ragnarok safe. The latter raced with pace all the way and was best of the others. Mumbo Jumbo tired from early pace making. Poultney ran a good race. Spivaro no speed.

54 FIFTH RACE—For four-year-olds and upward. The Bennings. Purse, $1,042.85. Time, 1:44 3-5. At post 4:42. Off 4:43. Winner, ch. g., 4, by Star Shoot—Continental. Owner, T. BRENNAN. Trainer, A. F. Dayton. Start good. Won driving.

Star Realm went into the lead quickly, bore out in the stretch turn, raced gamely through the stretch and won rather handily. Frank Monroe, in close quarters on turn, closed gamely. Mountain Rose II. had no excuse, saved ground for entire trip.

55 SIXTH RACE—For three-year-olds and upward. Claiming. One mile and a sixteenth. Purse, $1,042.85. Time, 1:52 2-5. At post 5:07. Off 5:07. Winner, br. g., 3, by Bannockburn—Belle Ward. Owner and trainer, B. E. CHAPMAN. Start good. Won handily.

STAR REALM LEADS HIS FIELD AT BOWIE

Ridden by C. Miller, He Runs Off With Purse.

Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.

BALTIMORE, April 9.—Star Realm, a Cuban campaigner, ridden by the veteran Charlie Miller, carried off the Bennings purse, the feature of the programme that was given over to the cheaper class of horses at Bowie to-day. Moderated weather attracted a large attendance, including many New Yorkers who came for the week end. Rodriguez's jockeyship continued to be one of the features of the sport. He rode two winners.

Star Realm scored after a spectacular contest. Away well from a start in which Queen Blonde, a well supported choice, was virtually left, he and Mountain Rose, the favorite, alternated as pacemaker for the greater part of the journey.

Entering the home stretch Star Realm bore toward the outside fence, but under urging finished in front with daylight between him and Frank Monroe, which had supplanted Mountain Rose at the home turn. Mountain Rose lasted long enough to outstay Queen Blonde, which came with a rush and finished fourth.

Etzabe scored his third successive victory at the meeting when he accounted for the fourth in a driving finish from Ragnarok and a fair lot of sprinters. The winner was bid up to $2,200 and retained by owner, John Kennedy.

Hussas, by virtue of a fortunate start, was enabled to take the first race under Rodriguez's energetic handling. The favorite, True As Steel, finished second, and Earnest third.

Marmite, after leading throughout, took the third in a drive from Hope and Tiger Rose.

WORLD'S TITLE BOUT MUST BE IN EUROPE

Carpentier's Latest Contract Reveals Inside Facts

By CHARLES F. MATHISON.

Any hope that the proposed championship bout between Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier would be staged in America has been swept away by an official statement by Victor Breyer, spokesman for the French champion and his manager, declaring that Carpentier now is bound by an ironclad contract, signed on the day he sailed for this country, under the terms of which he is to box Dempsey, if at all, under the management of Charles B. Cochran.

Under this new agreement, Carpentier will be compelled to box Dempsey when and where Cochran declares, and as the British promoter is on record with the assertion that the only place he would think of staging such a bout would be Olympia, in London, it is not difficult to understand that the world's champion, provided he is in a position to make a match with the Frenchman, will have to go to England or else abandon the entire project.

When Descamps arrived here he said Carpentier would box Dempsey anywhere, but this declaration is refuted by the statement of Breyer, as printed in the London Sporting Life, as follows:

"Francois Descamps, acting on behalf of Georges Carpentier, affixed his signature to an engagement binding the French crack to fight Dempsey exclusively under Mr. Cochran's management. This is not a new contract. Descamps had concluded an arrangement with the London promoter the very day after his man defeated Beckett. But it was not nearly so binding as the new contract. By the old contract Carpentier, in the event of Mr. Cochran being unable to secure Dempsey's signature, was to recover his liberty, whereas the new agreement explicitly states that even if the American does not come to terms with "C. B," his would-be opponent remains tied up for a considerable period and cannot meet him under any other promotion. In other words, it is a case of Dempsey being given the choice between two alternatives: meet Carpentier for Cochran or not at all.

"Considering that the latest developments respecting the world's champion point out to his being barred from boxing all over the States, it is now almost a certainty that Dempsey must yield and consent to box Carpentier in Europe unless he cares to lose the match, which is hardly likely in view of the big sum he is bound to collect for his end."

KRAMER IN MATCH RACE.

Frank L. Kramer will ride a one mile match race against Arthur Spencer at the Velodrome in Newark to-morrow afternoon. The race will be decided the best two out of three heats. John Stasble and Gus Lang, two former amateur champions, will ride a one mile team match race. All the stars will ride in the three mile open, while the six best riders at the track will compete in a special one mile invitation.

STECHER THE WINNER.

Joe Stecher, the world's wrestling champion, last night threw Fred Pilakoff, the Finnish giant, in less than thirty minutes, in their bout in the Forty-seventh Regiment Armory, Brooklyn. The titleholder disposed of his opponent in 22 minutes 4 seconds with a body scissors hold.

In the first bout Jim Londos, the Greek champion, threw Frank Sampson of Chicago with an arm barlock in 54 minutes 57 seconds.

GREYHOUND BEST DOG AT PINEHURST

Champion Lansdowne Sunflower Leads 180 Entries.

PINEHURST, N. C., April 9.—Mrs. B. F. Lewis Jr.'s celebrated Greyhound Champion Lansdowne Sunflower was adjudged best in the show at the conclusion of the second annual benching at Pinehurst to-day. Best of opposite sex was awarded to the Rexden Kennels shepherd dog Ali Altwurtemberg.

The show set a new mark for dog shows held outside of the great cities of the country, and it is doubtful whether any show as small as this one with its 180 entries has ever brought together so many dogs of national and international reputation. The English setters classes, won by Francis G. Taylor's Noblestone Warrior and R. F. Maloney's champion Reinstone Blue Bell, and the pointers classes, won by Charles S. Grace's Cairo and B. F. Lewis's Lansdowne Roxy Lynn, were exceptionally strong.

The special prize for the best brace was awarded to Aberfoyle Warrior and Aberfoyle Siren wire hairs, entered by C. L. Gilliland of Chester, Pa. Aberfoyle Warrior and Mrs. Stuyvesant Peabody's Brookhill Roxanna won the firsts in their respective classes, while the firsts in the smooth coated fox terrier classes went to Sabine Ricolo and Sabine Fragrance, entered by George Sinclaire of Toledo.

Entries from the North and middle West far outnumbered those from the Southern States. Pennsylvania was represented by twenty-nine dogs, and Michigan and Illinois by an entry of twenty.

Where the Flounders Are Biting.

Bay fishermen will find better conditions for flounder fishing on Sunday. At Great South Bay points the fish have been biting best on the last hour of the flood tide and particularly at high water slack. High water slack will occur at Freeport Point about 2:45 P. M., daylight saving time.

A few of the fishing stations and flounder fishing boats have a supply of bait, but the angler will do well to take his bait with him and probably avoid disappointment.

The cool weather of the past week has kept the fish from biting freely and a few real warm days are needed to make ideal fishing. Into portions of the South Bay have come many of the large sea flounders to spawn, but they will not spawn until the temperature of the water rises. A few of these are being caught each day.

From Week Lead boats are making daily trips and the catches are fair and the fish a good size. Charlie Day says that on the whole the season is measuring up with past seasons in the number of flounders caught.

In Jamaica Bay the fish have not yet shown any tendency to bite freely despite the fact that the baymen say there are plenty of flounders about. They are usually biting well at Goose Creek and the Haunt by the middle of March, but the season here is far behind. Charles Nostrem of Goose Creek says some catches run up to thirty to a boat and that the fish are larger than in past seasons. John Klein of Bergen Beach says that the average catch is about twenty to a boat, but that the twenty equal in weight fifty of past seasons. They will average two to the pound, with an occasional big fellow of 2½ or 3 pounds. We are five weeks backward, said Mr. Klein, and it is largely due to the great amount of fresh water from snow and ice that has been emptying into the bay.

Captain Lyons says that the Sound boats are getting some flounders in the bays on the north shore of Long Island, but here, too, the season is far behind. One real warm day will make a real difference, said the Captain, and there is every indication that the catches will be large.
