AN UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITY FOR FOUR MEN.

This company, operating under license from the United States Government, manufactures a calculating machine used throughout the world for over fifteen years. This machine has been purchased by the leading industrial organizations of the country, by most of the departments of the United States Government and by numbers of State and county organizations. In the further development of its business in the United States this company has an unusual opportunity for four thoroughly trained and able men to assist in the marketing of certain of its securities. The proposition is particularly high grade and calls for men of absolute integrity, whose earning capacity is large and who can represent this company with the dignity that its board of directors insist upon. A. A., 248 Sun-Herald, Herald square.

ADVERTISING SALESMAN.

Chicago advertising company wants Eastern sales representation on straight commission basis; requires a high grade man of mature experience in sale of recognized media direct to national advertisers; must be capable of earning at least $10,000 a year, and submit complete proof in confidence to arrange for interview; might consider part time arrangement with one who comes in constant touch with national advertisers in interests of other media; no inquiry will be made of references until after interview. Write, E. C. Cord, Lytton Building, Chicago.
