16 STORY BURRELL BUILDING IS RESOLD

Business Structure at Madison Ave. and 33d St. Changes Hands Again.

DWELLING MARKET BRISK

Taxpayer on Upper Broadway Corner Brings Rental of $3,000,000.

The sixteen story Burrell Building, at the northeast corner of Madison av. and Thirty-third st., was resold yesterday through Byrne & Bowman by Benjamin Winter to the Rochelle Realty Corporation, Jacob Durst president. The structure covers a plot 50x100, and is one of the best improved parcels in Madison av., returning a gross rental of $130,000 a year. Mr. Winter bought the building several months ago from the Pullman Holding Corporation, Loton H. Sawson president, which erected it eight years ago. Stroock & Stroock represented the buyers and Morris E. Gossert the seller, as attorneys.

Broadway Taxpayer Leased.

Robert M. Kern and Jacob Amron leased through Wm. B. May & Co. from Charles L. Bernheimer the three story taxpayer at the southwest corner of Broadway and Eighty-first st., 76x104, for twenty-one years, with two renewals for similar periods, and the rental in the aggregate will involve about $3,000,000. Samuel M. Reiss represented the lessees as attorney.

Sells Edinburgh Apartments.

M. Morgenthau, Jr., Company sold for the estate of Emile Lyle to the Terrau Realty Company the three five story houses known as the Edinburgh apartments, at 112 to 116 East Eighty-first st., on a plot 100x104.4. All the leases expire on October 1 next, and the tenants have been notified to move, so as to permit the alteration of the building, which will either be modernized or combined into one nine story elevator apartment. The present houses contain thirty suites of seven rooms each.

Factory for the Village.

Plans have been filed for the construction of a ten story factory, 201x322.9, to cover the block bounded by Greenwich st., Clarkson st., Hudson st. and West Houston st. for the 295 Hudson Street Corporation, Frank A. Ketcham president. McKenzie, Voorhees & Gilmelin, the architects, have estimated the cost at $2,700,000. It is understood that the building is being erected for the Western Electric Company.

Jewish Blind Guild Buys.

New York Guild for the Jewish Blind bought from the Federation Settlement, Inc., the three three story buildings, 50x100.11, at 236 to 240 East 105th st., to be used as the first community centre for the Jewish blind in New York city. ALL READY FOR GIANT BUILDING PROJECT

Financial Details Complete for Big 57th St. Structure.

By the terms of negotiations completed yesterday, one of the largest building projects in the United States will be launched immediately. The structure will be an office building twenty-five stories in height, with basements and subbasement, and will occupy the entire block along Fifty-seventh street, between Broadway and Eighth avenue. The frontage on Fifty-seventh street will be 240 feet, on Eighth avenue 100 feet and on Broadway 54 feet.

The Fisk Rubber Company will control the entire building under a lease for a term of years, using considerable space in the building for the principal executive offices and salesrooms, subletting whatever accommodations they do not utilize to tenants in the automobile and allied industries.

The ground and building will have a valuation of $7,050,000, on which S. W. Straus & Co. have underwritten a first mortgage 6 per cent. serial amortized bond issue of $5,000,000. The borrowing corporation is the 1767 Broadway Company, Inc., the principal stockholders of which are Fred T. Ley & Co., the Willys-Overland Rubber Company, the Willys Corporation and the Fisk Rubber Company.
