SPANISH LINER SINKS AN AMERICAN BARK

Five Persons Killed When the Buenos Aires Hits the Wildrush.

MIDOCEAN IN MOONLIGHT

Thirteen of the Crew Rescued and No Explanation of the Collision.

A queer tale of a collision, costing five lives, in mid-Atlantic, on a bright moonlight night, was brought to port yesterday by the Spanish Royal Mail liner, Buenos Aires, survivor of the disaster. Aboard the liner were thirteen of the crew of the American bark Wildrush. Those who lost their lives were Donald MacDougall, first mate; James Rice, second mate; Charles Johnson, ship's carpenter; Gustave Pearson and Julius Backman. The first four drowned before the liner's small boats could reach them. Backman died of exposure after being picked up.

Captain Griffith Roberts of the Wildrush said he knew of no explanation for the collision, and none of the other survivors had anything else to say beyond the facts. Captain Antonio Vives, commander of the liner, agreed as to the correctness of the story told by survivors and passengers, but had no statement to make himself. The collision occurred May 10, at 39 degrees north latitude, 52 west longitude.

"We could see the Buenos Aires for half an hour before we were struck," Captain Roberts said. "It was a clear moonlight night. I was on deck in my pajamas. Just before the impact I ran across the deck toward the oncoming liner. I didn't exactly know what I was doing. I wanted to push the liner away with my hands. Then we were hit. The masts of the Wildrush were falling. I jumped and grabbed at the only thing on the liner I could catch, the anchor chain on the port bow. One of the sailors jumped with me.

"I caught hold of one point of the liner's anchor and he the other. We hung on for a short time and then were hauled aboard the Spaniard. I stood on their deck and saw my ship go down. She sank in less than three minutes."

One of those picked up was Griffith Roberts, Jr., eleven years old, who was learning seamanship from his father, on his first voyage. He managed to keep afloat in the cold water until a boat from the Buenos Aires reached him. Half of those picked up were without clothing, having dashed to deck from their bunks when the collision awoke them.

The bark was an iron vessel of 2,300 tons and was nine days out from New York with a cargo of oil, on her way to Buenos Aires. The bark was crossing the liner's bows when the collision occurred. A hole two feet long was torn in the bow of the Buenos Aires by the blow. An investigation will be made by the line.

Those saved beside Capt. Roberts and his son are Charles Kellogg, John Desmond, Seslie Moles, Alexander Steffnam, Jr.; Peter Older, August Piess, Carl Dant, Carl Amundson, Reginald Johnson, Carl Hohmeter, sailors, and Chung Lee, Chinese cook.

The Buenos Aires brought 300 passengers from Spain to New York and had 400 passengers in transit for Havana.

FOUR GREAT SHIPS BEAR 5,470 ABROAD

Philadelphia, Carmania, Celtic and Finland Depart.

Four large steamships, the Philadelphia of the American Line, the Carmania of the Cunard, the Finland of the Red Star and the Celtic of the White Star Line, backed out into the Hudson River yesterday bearing 5,470 passengers to Europe. Those who left include many who are the advance guard of Americans who will tour Europe for the first time since 1914.

Sir Oliver Lodge and Lady Lodge were among the passengers on the Celtic. They had been in this country since January 15 and Sir Oliver had delivered lectures in every part, including the Pacific slope.

"I have been impressed deeply by the widespread interest in psychical research in this country, and especially by the thorough study that so many people are devoting to this subject," Sir Oliver said. "Wherever I lectured I was greeted by large and enthusiastic audiences. Psychical research in this country undoubtedly has a great future."

Others on the Celtic were Charles W. Bowring of Bowring & Co., agents of the Red Cross Line; Miss Dorothy Paget, Miss Helen Clay Frick, Lieut.-Col. T. R. Gurden and Mrs. Gurden, Major Duncan Campbell, Mrs. F. M. Woolworth, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Douglas of Washington.

The Carmania carried $300,000 worth of bar silver in her strong room. She sailed four hours late, because many of her third class passengers, who came by train from a distance, were late. Among those on board were F. L. Appleby, New York agent for the Union Bank of Canada; W. H. Hurst, Major Evelyn Wrench, E. A. Bevan of the British Food Ministry and Gilbert Fox.

Aboard the Philadelphia were Baroness du Gabe of Paris, the Rev. Francis Garvey of San Francisco, Col. S. Earle Smith, who headed a party of ten Red Cross workers bound for Russia; Mrs. Juliette Low, founder of the Girl Scout movement in America, and Miss Ellen Mary Cassat, Girl Scout Commissioner from Philadelphia.

The Finland, which was held back because of the late arrival of her oil fuel, carried Mrs. Reginald De Koven, Bishop James Atkins, Col. L. N. Lewis, inventor of the Lewis machine gun; Mme. Louise Ysaye and Mrs. Jeane Aerts.

PRIZE BABIES TO BE THERE.

Dairy Farmers Also in Grand Central Palace To-morrow.

The prizes won by babies in the Health Department competition which closed yesterday will be awarded during the milk and child health exposition, which opens in the Grand Central Palace Monday afternoon. The Health Department is sending a corps of doctors and nurses to the exposition to examine and weigh sample children to note whether they are in proper condition. More than 600,000 tickets have been distributed through the schools in order to attract the young folks. Many of them will see real live cows for the first time, and they will be blue ribbon cows. Milkings will be demonstrated as an incentive for the use of this food.

Dairy farmers are coming in from all parts of the metropolitan zone to observe the improvements in dairy machinery and dairy products manufacture. New York State will have a booth with experts from the State College of Agriculture at Cornell in attendance.

LIBERTY Bonds or other good securities accepted for 8 room house (Staten Island), $6,000, and Lozier 7 passenger automobile, $800. HUTCHESON, 104 Wall St.

The corrected reading of the barometer (reduced to sea level) at New York on Saturday, May 15, 1920, at 8 AM, as reported by the United States Weather Bureau, was thirty and twenty hundredths (30.20) inches. This closely approximates seven hundred and sixty-seven (767) millimetres. Captains of all vessels now lying in or near the ports of New York and Brooklyn can advantageously use the above official data for observing whether their own barometers require any considerable correction or adjustment.

COOK'S TRAVEL SERVICE

The Foremost in Travel

Europe—
No matter where you are planning to go, nor what you wish to see, there is an escorted Cook's Tour that will dovetail into your itinerary. And then you will really attain the objects of your travel. Sailings during July, August and September.
Arrangements can be made for trips by airplanes and airships.

Saguenay River—
The Saguenay River, Quebec, etc. 14 glorious vacation days, including 6-day cruises by reserved steamer from Montreal, with visits to most of the places worth seeing in the lake and river country. Starting July 16th, 30th; August 13th, 17th.

California—
A visit to the Grand Canyon, the garden spots of Southern California, the majestic Yosemite Valley, Yellowstone Park, San Francisco, with return through the Colorado Rockies. Departures June 1st and later.

National Parks, Pacific Coast, and Alaska—
Taking in the glorious country that has been set aside for all time as the people's playground, and up through the great Northwest. Escorted tours leaving during June, July and August.

Japan—
A short summer tour leaves San Francisco June 26th.

Ask for booklets describing any of these carefully planned tours, or tell us of your own tentative plans, that we may develop them for you and offer the benefits of our unique experience.

"HERE IS A PICTURE OF My Two Children", said Mrs. Louis De Wyndt, of Woonsocket, R. I. "I have found that whenever they had a cold or if I was troubled myself with a cold or cough, Father John's Medicine helped to relieve. I have also advised my friends to always have a bottle in the house as a family medicine because it is easy to take and moreover it does not contain any narcotics." (Signed) Mrs. Louis De Wyndt, 427 East School St., Woonsocket, R. I.

Father John's Medicine contains no alcohol—no drugs. Its basis is one of Nature's best food medicines, which the body can easily take up and use. Father John's Medicine is a "builder" but not a "bracer." It gives new health and actually builds new flesh. Because of its purity it is safe for all the family. —Adv.
