Tigers Beat Yankees 3-1 and Giants Defeat Cardinals 7-4---Dodgers Win and Are Only Half a Game From Top

ONLY BABE RUTH ABLE TO HIT EHMKE

Which Isn't Enough, and Detroits Win, 3 to 1, From the Yankees.

MAYS GOES WELL TOO

Walter Pipp Runs Afoul the Umpire and Spends Rest of Game Looking On.

By WILLIAM B. HANNA.

Howard Ehmke did the best pitching yesterday that has graced the Polo Grounds this spring, and the Tigers, docile and toneless as was the game they played, nevertheless beat the Yankees. The Detroiters played a game which was largely perfunctory and without savor, save the deft shortstopping of Owen Bush; but they won because they made three runs to support the impregnable pitching of Ehmke. The score was 3 to 1.

Good pitching was needed by Ehmke to bring his crowd home winners. Carl Mays opposed him, and he, too, pitched a game of sterling quality, though it was not as effective as Ehmke's. However, the cheerful part of it was that Mays did first class work, which may be a sign that he is rounding in after being backward, for weather reasons, in getting into form.

It was a quickly played set-to, but tame. There's a whole lot of buncombe spilled periodically about "fast" games in the sense of quick as opposed to long games. Short games can be tedious and long games snappy. It is the action of a game that appeals to the fans, who don't mind the amount of time consumed if there's plenty going on. In yesterday's tilt the outs came as rapidly as the ticking of a clock, but the contest was flat and somewhat featureless.

Ruth barred, Ehmke pitched a no hit game. Eliminate the Babe, who filled a double role for the Yankees, and the latter went hitless. Ruth made two hits, one a triple, and that was all sulled off the angular Detroiter. It seems that up to yesterday Ruth never had hit the ball out of the infield against Ehmke except for a home run over the right field fence wall in Detroit. Well, he hit two clean, sharp ones out of the infield yesterday and he blew the belief that he was easily baffled by slow ones into atoms. Both of his hits were on slow balls.

Walter Pipp and a good many others firmly believe the Yankees made three hits and that Nallin, the field umpire, blundered on a decision—which would be nothing new for him or his partner, Dinneen—when he called Pipp out at first in the fourth inning. It was on a ball to deep short fielded by Bush.

Pipp in his indignation at the decision ran up to the umpire, jostled him in the heat of the moment, and for that lese majeste he was put out of the game. We'll say this as showing the self-control of these two umpires: If they were put out for kicking on kicks made on every poor decision they've made in New York this spring there isn't a game they'd have lasted through.

Ruth played first after Pipp was put out. The Tigers made three runs off of two hits. Mays passed Heilman in the second inning and Flagstead hit a home run which bounded into the stand from the top of the wall. Lewis fumbled and pawed Cobb's single in the fourth inning and allowed Ty to reach third. He scored on Veach's fly to Lewis.

A triple by Ruth in the second inning was a powerful lick. It went low and bounded to the bleachers in right centre after Cobb had made a vain attempt to grab it. The Tiger infield played back, so Ruth scored on Pratt's grounder to Young. By playing in the Detroiters could have blanked the New Yorkers. The six hits off Mays were scattered. One to an inning was the thickest they came, and that's good pitching. The score:

DODGERS WIN, 1-0, AS KONEY DOUBLES

Johnston Scores Only Run Game With Pirates—Mamaux in Superb Form.

Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 24.—Al Mamaux and Ed Konetchy, two former Pirates, were the heroes of the Dodgers' spending 1 to 0 victory over the league leading Pirates here this afternoon. The triumph brought the Dodgers to within half a game of first place in the National League's pennant race.

It was the veteran Konetchy who cracked out a timely double off Babe Adams in the fourth round which sent Jimmy Johnston over the plate with the only run of the hard fought conflict. Babe Adams was outpitched by his rival all the way. The Dodgers collected nine hits off him. He received great support from the Pirate infielders.

Johnston started the fourth by drawing a base on balls. Wheat struck out and Myers shot a grounder to Grimm, who threw to second in an effort to get Johnston. The throw was not accurate and Johnston was safe. Caton, who took the peg, heated back to Grimm in time to retire Myers. Koney then hit to right for two bases and Johnston scored.

The blow upset the veteran Adams and he passed Kilduff. Miller bounced a single off Whitted's shins, filling the bases, but Mamaux ended the session by forcing Kilduff at third.

The Pirates in their half of the same round threatened to even the score. After Carey had struck out Southworth doubled to left. The Dodgers' pitcher then fanned Whitted, and Nicholson grounded weakly to Kilduff, who tossed him out.

With two out in the Dodgers' half of the ninth, Kilduff smacked the ball between Nicholson and Carey to deep left centre. The blow netted three bases, but when Kilduff tried to stretch it into a home run he was caught at the plate. He collapsed and it was several minutes before he could take his position at third base.

In the eighth frame a wonderful throw from the outfield by Johnston helped the Brooklyn pitcher. Walter Schmidt, the first man up, walled. Adams attempted to sacrifice. He bunted to Mamaux, who threw to Ward at second. Umpire Hildebrand ruled that Schmidt beat the throw and both were safe. Caton then sent a long fly to Johnston and Schmidt started to third after the catch. Johnston's long but perfect throw to Kilduff cut down the Pirate backstop, and Carey ended the inning by grounding to Koney.

3 SOUTHPAWS FAIL TO STOP GIANTS

King, Substituting for Kauff, Bats In Five Runs Against Cardinals.

Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 24.—Three Cardinal southpaws, Ferdie Schupp, Bill Sherdel and Jake May, could not prevail against the Giants to-day and McGraw's men romped away with the third game of the series by a score of 7 to 4. Lee King was the batting hero. He sent in five of the Giants' runs.

Arthur Nehf was hit a bit hard most of the way, but generally was effective in the pinches. He moved along smoothly until the eighth inning, when he twisted his right ankle. The accident necessitated his retirement in favor of Fred Toney.

The Giants counted twice in the third inning. Fletcher doubled to right. He went to third on a single by Doyle. King, playing centre in place of Kauff because of the presence of a left hander in the box for the Cardinals, then tripled over Henry's head, scoring Fletcher and Doyle.

In the fifth inning Fletcher rapped a [illegible] to centre. Doyle fouled to [illegible] but King singled to left, scoring Fletcher.

Cardinals reached Nehf for a run in the half of the fifth inning. Lavan and Simons singled to left. Schupp was withdrawn to permit Haines to bat for [illegible]. The pinch hitter fanned, but Janvrin pounded a single to left and Lavan crossed the plate. Stock led off in the [illegible] with a single to right and Hornsby followed with another one base blow, [illegible] right. Stock scored while Hornsby was being forced at second by Fournier.

Sherdel, who had replaced Schupp on the hill, [illegible] the sixth inning unscathed. In the seventh he was hit hard and [illegible] way to May. Nehf started the assault on Sherdel with a single to [illegible] centre and went on to second while Henry fumbled the ball. Burns singled to centre, scoring Nehf, and Young hit out a hit to Fournier. Fletcher sing to right, scoring Burns. Young pulled up at second. Doyle moved the men along with a sacrifice. Kingan bobbed up with his third timely a single to right, which sent Young. Fletcher scurrying over the rubber.

In the eighth inning the Cardinals counted twice. Stock singled to centre and Hornsby doubled to right. Stock stopping at 3d. Fournier rolled one past the batter an infield hit and Stock scored it was while attempting to field this that Nehf wrenched his ankle. He Toney stepped into the breach. Meloy hit into a double play, Hornsby scoring while the two-play killing was in progress.

REDS WIN A GAME.

Break Losing Streak by Defeating Braves, 4 to 2.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, May 24 (National).—Cincinnati broke its losing streak to-day by winning from Boston, 4 to 2. McQuillen pitched brilliantly for six innings, but in the seventh the Reds bunched five hits for three runs and scored another on three hits off Hearn in the eighth.

Huether was in rare form except in the fourth, when the Braves collected three singles and a sacrifice for their two runs. The score:
