CURB PRICES SHOW UNCERTAIN TREND

Several Securities in Decided Upward Movement During Much of Session.

The trend of prices for Curb stocks yesterday was uncertain, although during a large part of the session there was a decided upward movement in several issues. The market opened with moderate activity and movements were crossed and narrow. Toward the early afternoon a good buying wave carried several oils and industrials from 1 point to 3 points higher, but toward the close pressure wiped out a good part of the gains.

Homer Field stocks were active and among the few issues which maintained their advances. White Oil was most prominent with a 2 point gain. General Asphalt fell 3 points from its early high, but Carib Syndicate displayed a firmer tone toward the close. Skelley Oil was well bought in the morning and responded with a fractional advance.

Movements in the new chemical merger stock were not so wide as in previous sessions, but it ended with a small gain. Submarine Boat was well bought, while Grape Ola preferred stock was the centre of selling in the afternoon and sold more than a point lower. Metal stocks, except Boston and Montana, which was in good demand in the last hour, moved without attracting much attention.

French Government 8s sold up to 101 on good demand.
