MOST STOCKS IN CURB MOVE DOWN

Trading in Broad Street Market Reflects Many Cross Movements.

The Curb market session of yesterday was one of many cross movements and in its late afternoon trading there was a distinct downward movement in most issues. Trading was in fairly large volume and well distributed, but most interest was centred in oils. The movement in oils was simply a repetition of most recent sessions, in which prices moved lower after early demand sent values higher.

General Asphalt, Carib Syndicate, Simms Petroleum and White Oil displayed a strong morning tone, but at the close generally showed small losses. Boston and Mexico was under severe morning pressure and fell more than a point. Little selling made its appearance in the Standard Oils, which maintained a fairly steady tone. Dominion Oil rose more than a point, but had a subsequent small reaction.

R. J. Reynolds Tobacco again made itself conspicuous in the industrials, rising to its highest level in several weeks with a further advance of 2 points. High Speed Tool was a fraction higher, while Indian Packing, Hercules Paper and Aetna Explosives were slightly lower. Movements in the mining section were mixed.

Total sales and range of prices follow:
