The probability of "a war" is the universal theme. Even the old market women may be heard speculating upon the certain advance of the prices for chickens and eggs "if there is a war with the British again." There seems not to be a dissenting voice to a war. But what with Brazil, and Mexico, and Sir Robert Peel, we shall have our hands full, in the event of a bona fide demonstration. It is a momentous crisis for the country and the world. The administration is startled, though not dismayed, at the aspect of affairs respecting Texas, South America, and Oregon. The President says that the honor of the Union and the flag of the Union must be sustained in the matter with Brazil. Mr. Buchanan echoes the sentiment, and Cave Johnson protests that he knows not how to account for the surrender of a ship with $80,000 on board under any contingency, blow up or no blow up. What would old Hickory do in this emergency, were he the head of the administration? He would, to-morrow morning, "assume the responsibility" of sending a reinforcement to our solitary frigate at Rio Janeiro, with orders for the demand of the immediate surrender of the slave ship in dispute, including particularly the negroes and mulattos on board. Will Captain Polk do less? Will Mr. Buchanan shrink in a case where the proceeding would be so perfectly clear to John C. Calhoun? We shall see. We know that the present Secretary of State has a mortal dread of the smell of gunpowder—an aversion equal to that of the cornfield crow—but corner him, just corner him, and he will fight like a wolf. Appearances now indicate that he is cornered. With John Bull on the East—John Bull on the West—John Bull on the North, and Mexico and Brazil on the South, the administration is fairly at bay—completely cornered, one would think. And what's to be done? Negotiate? Are we to negotiate for that ship wrested from our very teeth by the bizzarroni of Brazil? Are we to negotiate for Texas, against the omnipotent influence of British gold? Are we to negotiate for Oregon, when, after twenty years' negotiations, we have solemnly declared it ours, and our determination to hold it manifestly? Negotiations will not answer, nor would the convention of Congress be of the least avail in the exigencies surrounding us.

Yet the necessity of a contingent session, and the expediency of it, anticipated by Captain Polk, from the day of the inauguration, becomes more plausible and palpable. New and more liberal terms are now undeniably necessary, to secure the great "God-send" of annexation. England is bidding high, Mexico is bidding, France is eager to bid, and all against us. Sam. Houston is working in opposition to Uncle Sam's proposed marriage covenant with Miss Texas. No doubt Mr. Dickinson would give all his mileage money for constructive travelling to see his poor pet, "that dark-eyed, red-haired, mourning daughter of the South," admitted to the bed and board of Uncle Sam,—but the refugees in Texas are against him—they are "dead set agin annexation." Seven months yet before the regular meeting of Congress, however, and unless Captain Polk assumes the authority to bid higher, Texas may be transferred as the femme de chambre of Sir Robert Peel—going, like the daughter of some of the Arab tribes, as the loving slave of that man who lays down at the feet of her parents the tallest pile of piastres. "God and Liberty!" Mexico forever, if this be Texan independence. Anything, rather than such scurvy, Praise-God Bare-bones independence as this.

The clamor in Parliament, concerning Oregon, amounts to nothing; but that slave-ship, those negroes, and the $80,000 on board, and the chance of Texas slipping through our fingers to the thimbles of Sir Robert, are tangible matters of alarm. Cabinet Council to-day. Buchanan flourishing a red handkerchief—Cave Johnson a hickory stick—Mr. Walker muttering over something like "cotton"—"free of duty"—"Texas"—"abolish slavery"—"fill the South"—"incendiaries"—"Texas scrip," &c. All signs, omens and infallable prognostics of war, or an extra session, as a safety valve for the national indignation.

Mr. Bagby, who, we believe, continues in town, and not very successful as an advocate of claims against the government, is said to be in raptures at the prospect of an extra session, and the mileage that will accrue to him for another imaginary journey from Alabama to the seat of government, at the rate of $40 per 100 miles. With your permission, we shall undertake at leisure, the dissection of this constitutional Senatorial apology, who has not a hair between him and heaven—not a hope between him and the coals of purgatory—for a man that is scared into annexation by his own argument against it, is beyond redemption.

It appears that the appropriation made annually, at each successive failure for several years, for the payment of the Missouri volunteers in the Florida war, has again failed at its object, in the absence, no doubt, of a specification in the bill of the agency in the premises, to which the Secretary of the Treasury should deliver the funds.

It is rumored that Mr. Buchanan, from an honorary interview on the eve of the Inauguration, with a beautiful young lady of Richmond, is inclining his head with most flattering condescension to the venerable and sagacious Mr Ritchie. Will the Secretary of State prove himself at last a practical advocate of annexation. Nous verons.

Mr. French, the gentlemanly, accomplished, and faithful Clerk of the House, with all his assistants and subordinates, have contributed each a day's pay for the relief of Pittsburgh. The Secretary of the Senate and his force are expected to do the same.

They are refitting the hall of the House and the Senate chamber for the next session. The President's house continues about as decent in its old broken furniture, ragged carpets, and worn-out sofas, and about as inhabitable as an old barn. Mrs. Polk, perhaps, desires to postpone the laying down of the new carpets, and the arranging the new furniture, until the flood of office-seekers shall have retired. She is a prudent housewife, is Mrs. Polk?

The probability is that a special messenger, (Captain Stockton most likely) will be sent to Brazil to conciliate that government and Mr. Wise, by a re-capture of the disputed slave ship, and by sending Mr Wise home in it as supercargo of the negroes and the money. At least, that is what appears to us should be done. HORATIO.

Baltimore.

[Correspondence of the Herald.]

BALTIMORE, April 24, 1845.

Things in Baltimore—Appointments—Curious Exposition—Memorial in Circulation—The Collectorship, &c.

Upon the incoming of Gen. Harrison's administration, I apprised you, before the Baltimore papers, who would receive appointments, who did receive the same, their pedigree, claims, &c.; and I will, with your permission, give you a glance at the state of things in this city since the appointment of Post master, Naval Collector, and others that have been made.

They have been received with great grumbling among the "true grit,"—the "working democracy" of Baltimore. Indeed, I might with perfect truth say, beyond the intimate and benefitted friends of the newly appointed Postmaster, there is not one real democrat who rejoices in his successful application for the office. How then did he obtain it? The uninitiated in this city make this inquiry, and appear to be astonished that an individual who, but a few years since, was a bitter opponent of the democracy—who was deputied to make a speech for a banner committee of whigs in Philadelphia, and who was in the very foremost rank of opposition. These things puzzle the plain, unsophisticated citizens of both parties. Let me lift the veil a little in this letter, and the good citizens of Baltimore, among them, a large number of your readers, may look to the Herald for that information which they cannot get at home. You will probably recollect that certain benigeent members of Congress, Clingman and Yancy, last winter repaired to Baltimore to break the laws, legal, moral and divine, and that a gentleman in Baltimore, was the friend, (as it is termed in the parlance of the duellist) of one of the parties, and you well know how that duel ended—the want of powder, &c. Well that "friend" was the present Post master, and the "principal" in return for his services on this occasion, not only obtained an immense number of letters from Southern members of Congress, recommending the present incumbent of the Post Office for a foreign appointment, but also came on from Washington to make a speech at a dinner gotten up on the 22d of February to puff him into office. Well, these letters were sent to the President, who turned a deaf ear to any thing like a foreign mission, but rather commited himself in an unguarded moment, in favor of the applicant for the Post Office at Baltimore. The "real grit" of the democracy hearing this, used every exertion to have some one who had not once opposed the party, placed in the office, and the claims of several staunch and true democrats were earnestly urged, and the prospects for the present incumbent then looked gloomy indeed; but he was too cunning for them all. He had heard of the old bargain and corruption between Clay and Adams, and he thought it a good game to try (as says rumor, and in this case she is generally believed) and quick a bargain was consummated by one of the applicants yielding his claims, and the sequel shows him now to be second in office to the Postmaster himself.—Yes, and he has been rewarded with having two offices united into one, making the handsome salary of about $2,500 a year. The democracy were very angry at first at the appointment of the principal, and have since become perfectly "savage" about the appointment of the subordinate. They cry out "Clay and Adams over again"—"corruption"—and they are hunting up the clique who have helped these things, and depend upon it, you'll hear thunder before long. A memorial is now in circulation among the true party men, and has obtained an exceedingly large number of names of persons who do not want office. It will be sent to the President, and I hope it may open his eyes, not only on this subject, but others which it mentions. I will send you a copy, and, as I know it will be followed up by other towns, cities and States, I desire the Herald to lay it before its numerous readers.

The Collector of this port is being looked upon as not the "clear thing," and as being under the influence of a clique. I'll let you know the ropes; I'll give the truth, and, "nothing extenuate or aught set down in malice." I know them all—their movements, &c., and the people shall see behind the curtain. So look out. BLUE JACKET.

Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, April 25, 1845.

There is very little news stirring to-day. The Court of Quarter Sessions have had before them all day the motions for new trials in the cases of John Daley and Henry Haughey, Irishmen, and John Paul, an American, convicted of murder in the second degree, for being engaged in the Kensington riots, in May last. They all belong to one side of the question, and of course were convicted, some in the absence of all adequate testimony, and are in prison, while all on the other side were acquitted, or pardoned after conviction. The argument for new trials was conducted by Wm. A. Stokes, Henry M. Phillips, and David Paul Brown, Esqs., for the defendants.

The rumor to-day is, that Hendricks B. Wright, of Luzerne, is the Collector. He has been in town for the last four or five days, and it is said he is waiting for his commission as collector of the port with confidence. His services as presiding officer of the Baltimore Convention are said to be the grounds upon which his appointment is supported. Col. Thomas B. Florence is again named as the Naval Officer, Benj. H. Brewster, Esq., as United States District Attorney, and Dr. Geo. F. Lehman, as Superintendent of the United States Mint.

The committee on relief to the sufferers by the Pittsburg fire are quietly, but effectually pursuing their labors at the hall of independence. Sub committees are noiseless in their work, but they have collected a large amount, and the same has been transmitted to the proper quarter.—Depend upon it, Philadelphia will do the handsome thing by their brethren of Pittsburg.

The equestrian troup of Gen. Welsh closes on Saturday night, but the General keeps the house open with a dramatic corps. It commences on Monday evening, when Connor appears in the drama of "La Tour de Nesle."

At the Walnut "Fashion" continues as attractive as ever, and perhaps the desire to witness the play has been increased by the strictures which have been made upon it.

Anderson, the inimitable, as he has been called, commences an engagement at the Arch on Monday evening. This artist is highly popular in Philadelphia, and playgoers are delighted that he will again come among us.

The Fakir of Ava is an attraction at the Masonic Hall. His skill is as well as those of his rival at the Assembly buildings, are well attended.

But a limited amount of business was done at the stock board to day, and prices were generally firm, showing that the war fever is over, and that no apprehensions are entertained on that score. State 6's advanced ¼; Girard ⅛; Wilmington R. R. shares declined ¼.

MRS. CARROLL'S MEDICATED VAPOUR BATHS,
325 Broadway.
MANY persons have heard of the efficacy of Mrs. Carroll's Vapour Baths as a remedy for and as a preventive of colds, influenzas, rheumatisms, &c. &c. Although the benefits in such cases cannot be overrated, it should not be forgotten that as a luxury the Vapour Bath is universally preferred to every other mode of bathing. Many are deterred from trying it from the erroneous idea of its being a formidable operation attended with inconvenience in the administering—No bath can be more simple, safe and pleasant than the Vapour Bath as given at Carroll's establishment. Some, contrary to the principles of physiology and common sense imagine that there is danger of taking cold after a bath; the circulation by the effect of the bath is rendered more active and the skin is better enabled to resist the influence of the atmosphere—hence the idea of catching cold after a bath, is absurd. Open from six in the morning till 9 at night. Portable Baths sent to any part of the city.
Sulphur Baths require one hour's notice.

MEDICAL AND SURGICAL OFFICE.
DOCTOR JOHNSON, 17 Dunne street, so well known to the victims of Syphilitic disease, as the most successful practitioner that New York can boast of, in the treatment of his destructive and almost unmanageable malady, is still to be found at his old Office. Dr. Johnson can satisfy any one that he is legally qualified to practise Physic and Surgery—that he possesses a knowledge of general disease superior to three-fourths of your general "Physicians"—and that his skill in the free use of the proper means, has cured every variety of Venereal Disease and Stricture of the Urethra, in pre-eminent. My patients are not only from every part of the United States, but they come from the West Indies and Canada. I cure, on an average, 600 patients a year. I discountenance quackery in any form, and, therefore, take this method of informing strangers, and persons in the country where they can find a physician skilled in the treatment of their disease. Every case I undertake I cure, or make no charge. No matter how long you may have Gleet, Stricture, Ulcers upon the body, or in the throat, or nose, pains in the head and bones of the legs, I will and can cure you, if your case is curable. Constitutional Weakness, sometimes called Seminal Weakness, brought on by a secret habit indulged in by young men, I have paid much attention to the treatment of this malady. Many an unfortunate victim of this unmanly vice has experienced my salutary treatment. Dyspepsia, weakness of the limbs and small of the back, confusion of intellect, forgetfulness, palpitation of the heart, aversion to society, are only symptoms of this complaint. If my directions are followed, I guarantee a cure. Post paid letters, with statement of case, containing $3 for advice, attended to. Observe, Office 17 Dunne street, one door from Chatham street mh15 1m*m

$500 REWARD.—GROSS SEMINAL MIXTURE—For the cure of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture and analagous complaints of the organ of generation.
Of all remedies yet discovered for the above complaints, this is the most certain.
It makes a speedy and permanent cure, without the least restriction to diet, drink, exposure, or change in application to business.
We give no long quackish recommendations to deceive the public. If the medicine does not speak for itself, no one shall speak for it. Our object is to notify where it can be had, and the proprietor challenges a single case of recent Gonorrhœa to be brought in which the Mixture will not effect a rapid cure under a forfeiture of $500.
This is a disease that unfortunately pervades all ranks of society—high, low, rich and poor, matrimonial and single. They are here presented with a remedy by which they can cure themselves without the least exposure, in the shortest time possible.
Further, the disease cannot be contracted if a dose of the Mixture is taken at night on going to bed when exposed.
It is put up in bottles with full directions accompanying it, at $1 a bottle. One bottle lasts a week, which generally cures—many are cured in two days.
For sale only at Wm. H. Milnor's, 192 Broadway, corner of John st, opposite Franklin House. New York; Mr Barry's, corner of Market and Seventh streets, Philadelphia; and at M Smith's, 138 Washington street, Boston; 24 Canal street, New Orleans, and 95 Main street, Cincinnati. al 1m*rc

DR EVANS
IMPORTANT MEDICAL NOTICE.
DOCTOR EVANS, No. 12 Peck slip, near Water street, New York, has been more than forty years in the successful practice of physic and surgery, particularly in curing (perfectly) those desperate cases of every variety of secret disease, of obstinate ulcers, cancers in the throat, strictures, &c., caused by mal-practice. It is of the greatest importance for the unfortunate to choose an experienced physician. Dr. E. is the oldest and most experienced in this city; his practice great, his success astonishing, even after they have been expelled from the Hospitals as incurable. His offices are well arranged for privacy. Call at 12 Peck slip, and be convinced. His charges are most reasonable and all cases are guaranteed.

Medical Advice.
DOCTOR LAMERT is still confidentially consulted, at his old office, 53 Gold street, between Fulton and Beekman, on all diseases of a delicate nature; his treatment being mild and judicious, requires neither secrecy, restraint in diet, or hindrance from business pursuits. Recent cases cured in 3 or 4 days.
DEBILITY, NERVOUS OR CONSTITUTIONAL, arising from a too frequent indulgence of the passions of indiscreet youth, and thereby causing nightly emissions, and eventually confirmed impotency, engage the Dr.'s strictest attention, his object being to restore the system, mentally and bodily, to that state of vigor nature originally designed.
STRICTURES, a disease frequently existing without the patient being the least aware, sometimes caused by mal-treatment of uninitiated medical pretenders, and sometimes by the neglect of the parties themselves, are, by the Dr. effectually cured, without pain or inconvenience.
The Doctor being one of the few qualified advertising Surgeons in the city, guarantees a perfect cure, or no charge made. Letters, post-paid, enclosing a fee, immediately attended to, and medicine, with advice, sent to any part of the United States.
Office, 53 Gold street. Open from 8 A.M. to 9 P.M.

MEDICAL NOTICE
STRANGERS AND CITIZENS afflicted with any form or variety of Syphilitic, Mercurial, or other disease, or who have been only half cured by quacks, had better carefully peruse the following letter:—
Dr. Cooper—Sir:—Last July I contracted a certain private disease, and immediately applied to a doctor, who promised to cure me in a week. I continued with him two months, but was gradually getting worse; I tried one after another, all the advertising doctors, and each one promised positively to cure me. I at length discovered the object of these men was money, and that they were not doctors. I concluded to go into the hospital, where the doctors kept me under a course of mercury for eight weeks; my throat and nose were ulcerated, pains in all my joints, and my body covered with ulcers. I was a complete skeleton; the doctors considered it dangerous to give me any more medicine, and advised a southern climate. I left the hospital, and by advice of friends, placed myself under your care on the first of January last. I am now well and restored to perfect health. I wish this published.
THOMAS GREEN,
Carpenter and Joiner, Harlem, N.Y.
Dr. Cooper warrants to cure every case, no matter how long standing, of Gleet, Stricture and Seminal Weakness, and mild cases of private complaints cured in 48 hours without interfering with the patient's habits. Dr. Cooper's Office, 14 Dunne street, two doors from Chatham st. No cure no pay. mh15 1m*m

Medical Card.
DOCTOR MORRISON,
NORTH RIVER DISPENSARY, 204½ Fulton street.—Doctor Morrison continues to be consulted confidentially on all private diseases, which he cures without mercury, or restraint in diet or pursuit. Recent cases, particularly "Gonorrhœa," he cures in 3 to 6 days.
STRICTURES OF THE URETHRA are cured by Dr M. on improved principles, without pain or inconvenience to the patient. As the symptoms of Stricture are analogous with those of other affections of the urinary apparatus, none but experienced Surgeons should be allowed to make the necessary examination, as those affected with enlarged prostate glands, may suffer much injury from awkward practitioners.
Nervous and Constitutional Debility.—This affection, and the train of evils resulting from a secret, destructive habit in youth, inducing nocturnal emissions and ultimate impotency are radically cured by Dr. M., on pathological principles, by restoring the system to a healthy tone and reinstating its original vigor. A perfect cure guaranteed, or no charge.
N.B.—Dr. M. holds no communion with medical pretenders who claim to be surgeons, as he is, perhaps, the only qualified advertising Surgeon in the city. See his diplomas in his office 204½ Fulton street. Letters post-paid and containing a fee will insure medicine and advice to any part of the Union.
Office, 204½ Fulton, near Greenwich New York. Open from 7 A. M. to 10 P. M. daily. al 1m*rc
