

Pay Less or Get More Paper.

That is the proposition that our present sale of wall papers offers. In either case it means a saving that merits your attention. The extent of the saving cannot be realized until you see the high quality of the papers—the most beautiful of this year's production. Though papers have been going fast for the past few weeks the stock was so large and so varied that choosing now is better than from what most stores would consider a complete stock. If you are going to do any papering this fall now is the time to do it and here is the place to buy the paper. You will pay less for what paper you want to get or get more paper for your money.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moulton and children of Fairview live in Canton Sunday afternoon.

The Methodist church was filled to overflowing Sunday evening, and many were unable to gain admission. A large party came up from Beloit to hear Dr. Swickard but failed to get in.

A little daughter of William Ewald was playing on a home made merry go round Saturday and fell off in such a manner as to break her collar bone. The little one was brought to Dr. Rogers who fixed up the fracture.

Miss Lila Rogers, one of the sweetest singers in the state, is having splendid success as a teacher of voice culture. She has about forty pupils in Canton and Inwood, and will prove to be a very successful teacher and her pupils are to be congratulated.

Tom Burke came down Monday from Sioux Falls where he had been for two weeks as a United States juror. "I am glad to get home again," said the genial Thomas, as he stepped off the train at Canton. "I'm going home to lift some corn and look after things on the farm. We helped to regulate a few bad Indians and a few bad white men while on duty."

Tom Burke: I have heard high opinions expressed concerning United States Judge Carland but it has never been my fortune to personally come in contact with him in an official capacity before. I have been a member of the United States jury for two weeks, and can state with pleasure that in all my court experience I have never seen a more dignified, courteous gentleman on the bench. His treatment of lawyers, court officers and jurors is such as to command the respect and admiration of all.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Luers left for Cresco, Iowa, Monday after a very enjoyable visit with Canton friends, although Mrs. Luers was called here by the sickness of her mother, Mrs. Cuppett, who is now almost well again. Mrs. Luers has a host of friends here who, as girls, attended school together and grew to the age where life's journey begins to separate the loving friends of youth. Mr. Luers was formerly one of Canton's prominent merchants, and is now engaged in the drug business at Cresco.

Mrs. C. E. Roberts, San Francisco, Cal.: Would not be without Rocky Mountain Tea in our house. It's a great family remedy. Makes and keeps us well. For sale by I. M. Helmey & Co.

A Remarkable Case.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Gertrude E. Fauser, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by I. M. Helmey & Co.

Young people to the number of about fifty enjoyed themselves at a delightful Halloween party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Oliver. The party was planned by the school children.

It adds spice to dreary life, encourages the human heart, lifts one out of despair, breathes new life and confidence. That's what Rocky Mountain Tea will do. 35 cents. For sale by I. M. Helmey & Co.

Mrs. Bray, sister of Mrs. Cuppett, came down to Canton from Sioux Falls last Saturday, to visit with Mrs. Cuppett and other Canton friends, of whom she has many who are always happy to greet her.

Frank E. Ehrhardt returned last week from his visit with relatives at Elizabeth, Illinois. He will work in George Engle's blacksmith shop during the winter. He is a first class mechanic and blacksmith as well. He reports crop conditions in Illinois as not quite up to the Dakota standard.

Col. Repp's elegant new residence is about ready for a house warming. It is one of the most convenient and pleasantly located homes in the city, and certainly the Colonel and his estimable lady have earned the right to enjoy the best in the land.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammit and family accompanied by Mrs. Scanlon, of Canton, left yesterday morning for Sylvia to take up claims near their son Will Hammit, of Canton. They are good citizens, and we are glad to have them come out this way. Mrs. Wilson Dent enjoyed a visit with them at the Merchants, they being old neighbors of thirty years ago.—Lyman County Argus.

Thomas J. Knowlton was out in the country last week looking over his corn crop. A staging had been erected on which to work and as Mr. Knowlton was looking around to see how the corn was stored he got on the end of the staging where it wasn't braced and he found things were moving toward the ground. He said he didn't care to jump eight feet so he concluded to slide and he slid hurting his hip in the operation. "I ain't so young as I was or I could have jumped and caught the staging a coming," said Mr. Knowlton with a smile as he put the crutches under his arms.

It's like a "dip in the fountain of youth." Touches the cheek so gently that "youth lingers on the face of old age." That's what Rocky Mountain Tea does. 35 cents. For sale by I. M. Helmey & Co.

Rev. N. A. Swickard, D. D., preached his first sermon in the M. E. church last Sunday, and had a splendid congregation in the morning and in the evening. All were anxious to hear the new pastor and all were delighted with him. He has a fine clear pleasant voice, and in the pulpit is graceful and effective. His manner is modest, but in his occasional flights of eloquence one could see the power behind, a power that was not called for in his opening sermon among comparative strangers. Dr. Swickard won the hearts of all in the beginning of his pastorate which gives him a great power for good. He is President of the State Epworth League, and by the influence of his position he can arouse a growing interest in the Epworth Assembly of which Canton is so proud. The people of Aberdeen loved him and the people of Canton will love him just as devotedly as did those christian people up in the north part of the state. Mrs. Swickard is a charming lady and has a lovely family of three daughters and one son. The LEADER in behalf of the people of Canton extends to Dr. Swickard and family a hearty welcome and we feel assured he will find his sojourn in this city one of the pleasantest pastorates of his ministry.

A Pleasant Halloween Party.

Those who have superstitious inclinations were strengthened in their belief last Saturday night. It's quite natural that they should be after being reminded that it was bad luck to pass under a broom stick and was required to whistle before allowed to pass over stairs. Then there was more bad luck in store for those who didn't come down stairs backward and jump over another broom in order to gain admittance to the room. These are a few of the vague ideas that were in force at the Halloween party given at the home of Mr. Whitmore. The guests upon entering the house were met by two bewitching ladies who in deaf and dumb language directed them to the stairway and after passing through the first broom ordeal another equally attractive witch was found at the head of the stairway to direct you further.

After passing through a number of such amusing incidents all found themselves enjoying the evening's entertainment as planned by Misses Laura Whitmore, Lucretia Rudolph, Alice Conklin and Ethel Bennett. The fortune teller's booth was visited by all and those who were not fully satisfied with their destiny as first given made a second visit. Another amusing incident was fishing blindfolded in a large pan of water with a spoon for shells containing the picture of your future "half," and hunting hidden articles to determine your future occupation. The entertainment was followed by refreshments. Each party was directed to find his or her place at the table, which was indicated by a card containing the name. The fine supper prepared for the occasion was highly enjoyed by the guests. The young ladies were assisted in this by Mrs. O. A. Rudolph, Mrs. M. Bennett and Mrs. J. V. Conklin. The young ladies certainly entertained their guests in a very novel manner from beginning to end and all thoroughly enjoyed the evening.

The guests numbered nearly thirty and so well were they entertained that it seemed no time before the clock indicated that the morning of All Saints' Day had arrived, when all departed thanking the young ladies for such an enjoyable evening. The Misses Whitmore, Conklin, Rudolph and Bennett are charming entertainers.

DANDRUFF WON'T WASH OUT.

The Germ that Causes It Has to Be Destroyed by Cure Dandruff.

Many a woman spends an hour twice a week scouring her scalp, thinking scrubbing off the scurf will cure the dandruff. Two hours a week, at the age of 40 years she has spent 360 days of twelve hours each, or two-thirds of a year of her life, in that vain hope: vain because you can't cure dandruff without killing the dandruff germ, and the only hair preparation on earth that will do that is "Noid's Dandruff Cure"—also a delightful hair dressing, and thoroughly antiseptic against all contagion from use of other's hair brushes. Call at Dr. Noid's drug store Canton, and procure a bottle at once, or order by mail.

Dr. H. S. Fish, Eye Specialist

Of Sioux Falls will visit Canton each month during the 4th week. Office at Harlan Hotel, staying one day only. His next visit will be

MONDAY NOVEMBER 23.

Watch the dates. If you have headaches, dizziness or painful vision consult him.

Farmer's Institutes.

The institute season is now at hand. Every arrangement should be made by those having the matter in charge to make them as interesting and instructive as possible. Holding an institute involves a good deal of work for which the men in charge never get paid except possibly in the way of criticism and complaint. Nevertheless, if they have the good of agriculture at heart, they will go on and trust to the future for recognition. The farmers of the entire community have a duty to discharge in this matter—a duty first to themselves; second, to the neighborhood; third, to the cause of agriculture. The farmer's institute is in one sense the farmer's university. It is their school in which they can compare experiences with their neighbors, catch on to all the new ideas, and keep themselves thoroughly awake. No matter how much they may study during the year, or how much they may read, or what the source of their information, they need to rub up against their fellow farmers who are engaged in like work and like study, and compare ideas and experiences.

We hope every farmer who reads this paper, no matter in what state he may live, will make it a point to attend his county institute this year, and do his best to make it a greater success than it has ever been before. We particularly wish that he arrange for his boys to go even if he has to stay at home and attend to the stock. We have had a large experience in attending institutes in half a dozen different states, and it has always been a source of regret to us that so few young men and boys are found in attendance at these institutes. In many sections they are made up simply of retired farmers who have practically abandoned the business and who find the institute a very convenient place to spend some of the time that is hanging heavy on their hands. We would no more exclude those people than we would exclude the fast ripening saints who hold down the pews in the churches, but we often feel that while the efforts of the speakers are not thrown away they lose much of the proper result by not having more boys and girls among the audience.

We pity the preacher who is obliged to pound away fifty Sabbaths in a year on a lot of old saints whose characters are formed and who at the best cannot be changed very much, while their sons and daughters are staying at home or perhaps off on a lark, doing things not at all appropriate for the Sabbath day, and we feel much in the same way when we attend an institute made up of old farmers. We are glad to see them, but we would be better pleased if they had stayed at home, if necessary, and let the boys and girls come and let us have a chance at material which is yet plastic and susceptible of being influenced in the right direction. By all means get the boys out.

Do not neglect, we beg of you, to have ladies on the program: young girls as well as wide awake elderly women. By all means get the girls out, for if the girls come the boys will come, and then there will be a chance to do some good during the coming year. Land worth from $50 to $100 per acre must have better farming. The work will be done by young men. Get them out to the institutes, that they may be started on the right track and be filled with enthusiasm for their life profession—enthusiasm that will convert drudgery into a pleasure, which will enable them to magnify their office, as Paul says, make them thinkers, planners, and develop in them the power of the initiative. Only in this way will the agriculture of the next twenty years be what it must be if it is to be influential, honorable and profitable.—Wallace's Farmer.

A child of Mrs. Geo. T. Benson, when getting his usual Saturday night bath, stepped back against a hot stove which burned him severely. The child was in great agony and his mother could do nothing to pacify him. Remembering that she had a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, she thought she would try it. In less than a half an hour after applying it the child was quiet and asleep, and in less than two weeks was well. Mrs. Benson is a well known resident of Keller, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment and especially valuable for burns, cuts, bruises and sprains. For sale by I. M. Helmey & Co.

A few more maps of Lincoln county left. When this supply is gone, it will be a long time before you can buy a good wall map of your county for $1.00, with the name of every land owner marked in plain letters.

DR. NOID'S DANDRUFF CURE

This Famous Anti Septic Dandruff Cure Wins Approval From All.

The Court Passes Judgment. Those who know Judge Jones of the Second Judicial Circuit know that no man appreciates a good thing better than he does. Here is what he has to say of Dr. Noid's Dandruff Cure: "I cheerfully recommend Dr. Noid's Dandruff Cure. A very few applications I found sufficient to cure a troublesome case of dandruff."

J. W. JONES.

A Minister Bears Testimony.

Rev. M. A. Martin, Rector of the Episcopal church of this city, writes Dr. Noid under date of Jan. 14, 1908: "I purchased one bottle of your Dandruff Cure and hair tonic eight weeks ago and use it continually. It is the very best hair tonic on the market."

A Leading Barber Endorses It.

T. K. Sjarring, proprietor of the Cataract barber shop, Sioux Falls, a famous tonorial resort, writes Dr. Noid under date of Jan. 12, 1908: "I would like to have you send me at once one dozen bottles of your Hair Tonic, as I am nearly out. A Scientific Discovery.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or over-loaded. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, red blood. Sold by I. M. Helmey & Co.

A Weak Stomach

Indigestion is often caused by over-eating. An eminent authority says the harm done thus exceeds that from the excessive use of alcohol. Eat all the good food you want but don't over-load the stomach. A weak stomach may refuse to digest what you eat. Then you need a good digestant like Kodol, which digests your food without the stomach's aid. This rest and the wholesome tonics Kodol contain soon restore health. Dieting unnecessary. Kodol quickly relieves the feeling of fullness and bloating from which some people suffer after meals. Absolutely cures indigestion.

THE FORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT FOR CONSTIPATION

Constipation is nothing more than a clogging of the bowels and nothing less than vital stagnation or death if not relieved. If every constipated sufferer could realize that he is allowing poisonous filth to remain in his system, he would soon get relief. Constipation invites all kind of contagion. Headaches, biliousness, colds and many other ailments disappear when constipated bowels are relieved. The Ford's Black-Draught thoroughly cleans out the bowels in an easy and natural manner without the purging of calomel or other violent cathartics.

Be sure that you get the original The Ford's Black-Draught, made by The Chattanooga Medicine Co. Sold by all druggists in 25 cent and $1.00 packages.

Morgan, Ark., May 25, 1901. I cannot recommend The Ford's Black-Draught too highly. I keep it in my house all the time and have used it for the last ten years. I never saw any other medicine any other laxative. I think I could never be able to work without it on account of being troubled with constipation. Your medicine is all that keeps me well.
