MONEY MARKET.

SATURDAY, April 27—6 P. M.

The stock market exhibits no new feature. Fancy stocks are held in Wall street so largely by the banks, on hypothecation, that they do not press very heavily upon those who have the control of them; but the concentration of these securities, in the hands of the brokers, is going on steadily, and ere long there will be no market for them, in the street or out. This is usually the result of any great rise in stocks possessing no intrinsic value. Those who get them at high prices have to keep them, or force them upon the market at a great sacrifice. Those who come in at low prices, and sell out just before the demand ceases and the market breaks down, reap the harvest; and those who come in just upon the turn, as outsiders usually do, invariably get used up. Quotations for some of the fancies were a little better day. Harlem advanced ¾ per cent; Erie Railroad ½; Farmers' Loan ¼; Morris Canal declined ¼; Pennsylvania 5's ½; Long Island ¼ per cent. The fancies were not very active, and the demand for Government and State securities limited.

The Mercantile Mutual Insurance Company have declared a dividend of twenty-three per cent on the net earned premiums of the past year, payable in script on the second Monday in May. The trustees have resolved to pay interest on the certificates issued in 1848 and 1849, at the rate of six per cent per annum—to redeem the certificates of 1847, principal and interest, on the 10th of June next, and that, after the payment of the issues of script of 1848, '49, and '50, to reserve fifty per cent of the future earnings of the company, until its capital shall amount to one million of dollars.

The receivers of the State Bank at Morris, New Jersey, have given notice to the creditors of said bank, to bring in their claims within six months from the 12th of the present month.

A cotton factory of 10,000 spindles is soon to go into operation at Carrolton, Indiana. The stock of the company, all of which is paid in, is $250,000, which covers the costs of the building and machinery, and leaves a working capital of $30,000 to $40,000.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

AT A REGULAR MEETING OF MOUNT VERNON Chapter, No. 13 O. U. A., on Thursday evening, April 25, it was unanimously

Resolved, That the following committee publish suitable resolutions in regard to the sudden and melancholy death of John L. Guire, one of our most respected and valuable members.

Whereas, by a dispensation of Providence, we are called to mourn the loss of an esteemed friend and brother, Mr. John L. Guire, who was suddenly taken from our midst in the prime of life, and whereas we, in common with his numerous friends, feel a deep regret for the loss of one who was true to us while living, so in death it becomes our duty to sympathize with his bereaved widow and afflicted friends.

Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the bereaved family of the deceased, knowing him to have been possessed of a noble and generous heart, calculated to endear him to all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

Resolved, That we return our thanks to all who sought to render aid to our beloved brother in his hour of need.

Resolved, That we return thanks to Doctor Traphagen and lady; also, to Doctor Goldsmith, for their kind attentions and unceasing endeavors to mitigate the sufferings of our dying brother; and we trust that the gratitude of the undersigned will find a suitable response in the heart of every member of our order. And also,

Resolved, That we view with feelings of unfeigned indignation, the shameful fact, that any one should be found so void of humanity and so wrapped in selfishness, as Doctor Pratt, in refusing to lend his aid in a case of such extreme necessity.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the widow of the deceased, and we pray that the Almighty may, in his infinite mercy, comfort the widow of the deceased in her sad affliction, and teach her to submit with resignation to His holy will.

The members of the O. U. A. are requested to assemble at the Chapter Room, 215 Greenwich street, this day (Sunday) at 11 o'clock, A. M. J. WILCOT, C. W. LEONARD, JARED WILCOX, } Committee.

OUR DESIRE.—A WORD, BY WAY OF EXPLANAtion, to our fellow citizens.—The undersigned Committee hereby bring to public notice, that the approaching term appointed for a mass meeting, concerning the repeal of the Sabbath law, must be indefinitely postponed, for imperious reasons that have unexpectedly presented themselves—the discussion of which would be of no avail here.

Since the commencement of the agitation, there has been so great an outcry raised against this so called root-taking infidelity, such petty means have been zealously resorted to, such as the pulpit, a tampering with the women, to operate on their husbands through their families, &c., for the purpose of setting forth the leaders and partakers of it, in the eyes of their fellow citizens, as infidels, heretics, and anti-Christs, that the undersigned Committee feel it a sacred duty to give them, in a few words, a full explanation of the aim of their struggle. The Committee consider this most easily done by declaring in the face of the world, and in plain and concise words, what the Sabbath law is:—

In the first place, the Sabbath law is unjust and contrary to the spirit of the Constitution of the United States. The latter guarantees, to all citizens, freedom of religion, it matters not whether they be Jews, Christians or Mahomedans, and leaves it to every one's own choice how to obtain salvation; but the former constrains all non-Christians to keep holy one day—to cease their occupations on that day—which, according to their religion and sacred faith, is no Sabbath; thereby exercising an unjust constraint upon conscience.

The Sabbath Law is immoral and noxious. For, as it thus violates the freedom of religion and conscience—laying both in fetters—so does it destroy, in the major part of the people, the necessary assurance of the needfulness and utility of the laws for the welfare and prosperity of the State. Hundreds, nay, thousands, perceive no reflection in this law, but, on the contrary, an annihilation, in a measure, of those sacred rights warranted by the Constitution—and as soon as all regard for the laws are wanting, the public weal is in the greatest danger. The law is therefore noxious. But it is immoral too; for instead of informing and ennobling the people, it produces in them hypocrisy and dissimulation, by closing the stores from without, and selling more liquor in secret than on any other day.

This Sabbath law being thus unjust and unwarrantable, it is obviously an un-Christian one. Justice is a fundamental principle of Christianity. Christ did not love Christians only, He loved all mankind alike; and in your burthening upon us a law, which, contrary to this grand and noble principle, wounds all those who do not go with you to one and the same house of worship, you offend the sublime Author of the Christian Religion—you are no Christians.

These, fellow citizens, are the reasons which constrain us, as men, to raise our voice against this Sabbath law. It remains now with you, sovereign people of New York, to declare whether your laws shall be constructed on principles of justice and your constitutional rights. Be present, all you men of New York, to whom truth and justice are sacred, at the meeting, on the day hereafter to be appointed—support us in the struggle against absurdity and hypocrisy, and should we succeed in removing this foundation stone of the rotten fabric of monarchical institutions, then will our city, with justice, be able to say to the sons of the Empire State, that regards genius and reason. But you who, like wolves in sheep's clothing, stalk about in the dark, decrying us as heretics, because we venture to discover your nonsense, we ask you before all the world, who are the Christians? Are we Christians who are struggling to effectuate the principles of charity, toleration, truth and justice, or you, who, instead of cultivating that divine spark, reason—which exists in every man's breast—tread underfoot the sublimest and most beautiful tenets of Christianity—who are ever ready to sacrifice the welfare of mankind to the tyranny of a sect—who, instead of sowing works of charity, make Pharisees of the people? Answer us, but answer us with your reason, for once only, to seek a subterfuge through your petty secret means, and come forth with us into broad daylight—combat with us, not in the dark, but on the foundation of reason—before the forum of public opinion, and we will confidently await the decision of the people. THE COMMITTEE.

THE PERSON WHO TOOK THE PAIR OF GOLD Spectacles, left on the seat at Niblo's Theatre, on the night of Friday, the 26th of April, will oblige the owner by leaving them at the Box Office, where, if they wish, they can receive a reward for their trouble; by doing which they may probably avoid unpleasant consequences.

SHERIFF CARNLEY.—QUITE AN EXCITEMENT PREvailed in the region of the Sheriff's office, and all along the Fourth avenue, on Friday night. As usual, on the sailing of the steamers for California, quite a number of suspected persons had booked themselves as sailed. The ship, yesterday, against whom orders of arrest had been issued. Our excellent Sheriff, Carnley, is wide awake in catching rogues, and such gentry will soon find out that this is an unfortunate port for them to attempt to sail from. Carnley was personally on the alert all Friday night, with his efficient deputies, Chase and Terry, after a well known individual, who they were determined should not escape this day, yesterday, about 4 o'clock, yesterday, they succeeded in nabbing him, amongst some boxes, in the neighborhood of Hammersley street, and in making him disgorge, in a cellar, some hundred dollars of hard gold from his belt, which was paid over to some hard working mechanics, whose sinews he had employed, for months, in his wicked purpose of profiting by it in the haven of San Francisco. Honest Tom Carnley, and his excellent posse, deserve much credit for such vigilance.
