DOMESTIC MARKETS.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—The market continues very dull, and cotton, if anything is weaker than before the receipt of the last advices from abroad; sales to-day do not reach 150 bales, at about former rates. Flour is also languid, and held at $5 25, with a few small sales at this price, and good and extra brands at $5 37½ a $5 50. Rye flour and corn meal exhibit no change; small sales of the latter are making at $2 81¾ per bbl. Wheat is rather firmer, the last sales of which were at 119 a 119½c., and red at 113 a 113½c. Corn is in demand and wanted, at 60c. for good yellow, and 57c. for white. Oats are worth 38 a 38c. for Pennsylvania, and rather scarce. Bark—Quercitron is held at $40 per ton. Rice—A better demand, and 200 bbls. can be sold at 3¼c. Whale oil is dearer, and now held at 50c. for crude. Linseed oil is unsettled and dull, at 80 a 82c. for English and American. No change in groceries, and 100 hhds. Porto Rico sugar sold at 5¾c. on time. Provisions remain unchanged, and pork and bacon are in steady demand, at former prices. A sale of lard was made at 6¾c. for bbls. and kegs, the latter for old Western. Feathers—Good Western plenty and dull, at 32c. Seeds are without movement. Whiskey—No change; bbls. are quoted at 23½ a 24c., with small sales at the latter price. Freights are very dull, and rates unchanged.

Telegraphic Reports.

ALBANY, May 10—6 P.M.

Receipts since yesterday:—Flour, 17,000 bbls.; wheat 2,000 bushels; corn, 2,000 do.; barley, none. The demand for flour was good, though scarcely so active as yesterday. Sales 2,000 bbls., including straight, at $5 50, and pure Genesee at $5 56. The high pretensions of holders still limit the transactions in wheat, which are but 2,000 bushels Genesee, at $1 33. For corn the demand is good, at advanced rates; about 18,000 bushels changed hands, at 61c. for round yellow, and 59c. for mixed Western. Barley is 75¾c. for prime two-rowed; and 2,000 bushels sold. The sales of oats are 2,50 bushels, at 45¾c. Prison whiskey is quoted at 23½c.

BALTIMORE, May 10—6 P.M.

Miscellaneous.

☞ We are under obligations to the Norfolk Beacon, Herald, and Charleston Courier, for slips.

SHIP CHAMPLAIN—The wrecking schooner Courier arrived here on Monday last, with a cargo consistitg of dry goods, &c, saved in a damaged state from the ship Champlain, foundered near the Inases. We are informed that she is sunk in seven fathoms water, and that in consequence of her extremely hazardous position it is exceedingly dangerous to the divers, having in order to accomplish effectually their design of saving the cargo, found it necessary to rip up a small portion of the decks, and which we apprehend could only be effected with extreme difficulty. We also are informed that there are several vessels from Harbour Island, and others surrounding this wreck, the crews of which are exercising their wonted dexterity in order to save as much of the cargo as may be practicable.—Nassau, N P, Gazette, 17th ult.

BARK A R TAFT—As soon as information of her perilous position was known, several smacks, and a pilot boat went out to her assistance, but the seas was so rough that they found it impossible to approach near enough to rescue the crew. Capt R. D. Lamson, Mason, of Wilmington, NC, got his boat under way about 5 PM; and went to her aid, and having a metallic boat on board launched her, and by his great exertions took off the captain and the crew, and brought them to the city between 8 and 9 o'clock last evening. Great credit is due to Captain Mage for his exertions. He proceeded, of his own accord, to the assistance of the distressed mariners, and had it not been for his promptitude, and the fact of his having attached to his steamer the life boats mentioned, there is great doubt whether the crew of the A. R. Taft could have been saved from a watery grave.—Charleston Courier, May 6.

The A R Taft has become a total loss, the water flowing completely over her at high tide. Several pilot boats and smacks have arrived from the wreck, with considerable quantities of damaged goods. If the weather is moderate, they will continue to take out such portions of the cargo from day to day as they can get at.—Courier of 7th.

BR BARK INVINCIBLE ASHORE—The bark reported ashore yesterday, turns out to be the Br bark Invincible, Captain Davis, from Newport, Wales, with railroad iron bound to Baltimore. Up to 3 o'clock, P M, yesterday, the time our informant left, the hull had sustained but little damage. The wrecking schr Pactolus, Captain Baker, will go down to her assistance.—Norfolk Beacon, 8th PM.

BR BARK ELIZABETH, of Newburyport, from Boston, at St Jago on the 20th ult, was leaky, and had had her deck load washed off.

SCHR VICTORY, Allen, hence for Salem, off Cornfield Point, got foul of a smack on Tuesday night, broke her mainbowsprit, chainplates and chains to the dead eyes. She put into New London, 8th, for repairs.

SCHR EMMA PACKER, of Fairhaven, Conn, was sold at San Francisco, soon after her arrival, for $10,000.

ELY WEST, April 30—The brig Emeline Manwaring, from New York for Apalachicola, arrived on the 23d, with the forevard carried away. A new one was procured, and she sailed 16th, for Apalachicola. She sustained no other damage on her passage.

There is but one vessel in port, the Isabella Reid, refitting. She will be ready for sea in 10 or 12 days.

BARK THOS C Mather, before reported ashore on Southampton, L I, beach, was passed on Tuesday afternoon. She had nothing standing but her lower masts; starboard waist was stved in, appeared to have settled considerably in the sand. She remained perfectly upright. There were no persons at work upon her.
