The New Comet.

NATIONAL OBSERVATORY, Dec. 26, 1850.

SIR--The planet discovered at Naples by A. de Gasparis, on the night of the 2d ult., was observed here last night by Mr Fergerson. Its apparent place, corrected for refraction, as determined by the mean of seven measurements upon the star (501 Weisse) with the Filar Micrometer of the large equatorial, was as follows:--

Date M. T. Washington.	No. of comparisons.	Planet — ✳ of comparisons.	Planet — △ a	Planet — △ δ	Apparent a	Apparent δ
1850. Dec. 24th—7 h. 56 m. 26.5 sec.	7	Weisse I., 501. + 4 m. 15.89 sec.	— 2 m. 06.46 sec.	1 h. 33 m. 28.29 sec.	+11 a	22 19.45 δ
				1 h. 29 m. 9.52 sec.	+11 a	20 28.11 δ

Adopted mean place, 1850, 0 of Weisse I., 501

This planet also belongs to the family of asteroids. It is the thirteenth of the series, and its appearance is that of a star of the eleventh magnitude.

Respectfully, &c.,

(Signed) M. F. MAURY.

Hon. William A. Graham, Secretary of the Navy.

P. S. -Leverrier has named this planet Egeria.

In relation to the movement in this and the Southern markets, T. J. Stewart's circular, of Tuesday, says:—

"My last report of this market was issued on the evening of the 31st ultimo, for the steamer Africa, of the 1st inst. The sales for the week closing Monday, 6th instant, were 8,000 bales, at an advance of three-quarters of a cent on grades below middling fair, and half a cent on the higher qualities of upland cotton, in which the bulk of the business was done, buyers being tempted by the previous relative cheapness of that growth. On Tuesday morning, 7th inst., the letters per Niagara came to hand, the sales reaching 3,000 bales, and being written uniformly full of confidence for the immediate future, from the fact, that the advances obtained at Liverpool, previous to the departure of the last two steamers, were solely and entirely owing to the prosperous state of the home trade, the light stocks of all descriptions of goods, the changing of looms from the lighter to the heavier description of fabrics, the demand from the continent being better than was anticipated at this late stage of the season, and the certainty now breaking upon manufacturers there, that our prosperous country would be lavish consumers of more of their fabrics than last year—of this latter fact there can be no doubt whatever, although, at certain periods, the import markets may be glutted with specific styles. The causes assigned for these advances being so healthy and durable, holders of our staple asked and obtained still higher prices, as will appear below, and from such sections of the South as time has permitted us to receive advices, the same state of things appears to follow the receipt of the letter mails. From Charleston, S. C., my correspondents write: "Here, all is enthusiasm; we have advanced from 12½ to 12¾ cents for ordinary fair, and to 13¾ for strictly fair; the heaviest buyers being wealthy residents of the interior of the State, who, having witnessed the shortness of the present crop in their own localities, are investing at our current prices, to hold until the wants of spinners abroad require them to send out their own orders, instead of being furnished by marginal shippers from this side, as heretofore." On Wednesday, 8th instant, a very decided speculative feeling was apparent, and the sales reached nearly 4,000 bales at a small improvement, buyers being well supplied by those who had purchased at the period of our depression. On Thursday, 9th, the weather was inclement, which restricted the sales to 2,000 bales, with a tame market. On Friday, 10th, it was perceptible that a check had been given to prices, as the business only reached 1,200 bales, with the turn in favor of the buyer. On Saturday, 11th, the same indisposition to buy freely was apparent, and generally attributed to the absence of the Atlantic's advices, now over due; those, therefore, who wished to realize were compelled to do so on a spiritless market, and consequently to make concessions, which, in the last two days, have amounted to ¼c. on Uplands and Floridas, and ⅛c. on Orleans styles, the sales reaching about 1,500 bales. The market was quiet this morning, the sales reported on 'Change only amounting to 600 bales, at prices again a shade easier, to which my quotations conform. The continued absence of the steamer Atlantic has not been without its effect."

The closing quotations in this market were as annexed:—

MEDICAL.

DR. CONVERS' INVIGORATING CORDIAL—THE ONly remedy for weakness and debility of the organs, and those and disorders of body and mind, caused by improper habits of youth. Young men be cautious where you apply for aid. Avoid quacks, who profess to cure in two or three days, or a week. A few bottles of this cordial will restore you to manly vigor. This is the only medicine on which any reliance can be placed, in cases of self-abuse. For years it has been the anchor of hope to scores of young men. Cordial, $2 a bottle, three bottles for $5—with important advice to the married and single. Forwarded to the country. Dr. C.'s office, 55 Third avenue, N. Y., where he is privately consulted, and the cordial obtained. Letters post-paid. Sold 88 South Third street, 294 and 376 Market street, southwest corner Second and Green, and corner Third and South street, Philadelphia. See N. Y. Police Gazette.

ASTOUNDING DISCOVERY.—THE SUBSCRIBER HAS been afflicted with Stammering for thirty-five years, and has, within these few days, discovered a method by which he has entirely cured himself, and proposes to cure others. No cure, no pay. He has spent a small fortune in trying to get relief, and now binds himself to cure any and all who may apply. The cure can be effected, according to the case, in from one hour to two weeks. Apply to EDWARD SAUER, 316 Eighth street, between 10 and 12 A. M.

$500 REWARD.—JEFFRIES' ANTIDOTE, A SPECIfic Mixture for the cure of private disorders. It makes a speedy cure, without the least restrictions of diet, drink, exposure, or change in application to business. The proprietor challenges a single case which the mixture will not cure, under the forfeiture of five hundred dollars. It is put up in bottles, with full directions, at $1. One bottle lasts a week—many are cured in two days. For sale by C. H. KING, 192 Broadway; 108 Bayard street, New York; W. B. Little, 104 Hanover street, Boston; Wright & Co., New Orleans.

NEW MEDICAL BOOKS.—A COMPLETE PRACTICAL work on the nature and treatment of delicate diseases, and all the kindred affections—illustrated by a great number of beautifully colored plates, as large as life; by Homer Bostwick, M. D., lecturer on surgery and diseases of the above named nature. It is a large quarto—350 pages; second edition; price $10. Extract from the "Boston Medical and Surgical Journal." It may be said, fearlessly, to be equal to Record's or Acton's works on the same family of diseases, and far superior to anything of the kind ever published in this country." Author of "The Family Physician;" price twenty-five cents. Author of a work on "Self-abuse and its deplorable defects, &c., &c.," sixth edition, fourteen plates; price $1. For sale at the publishers', STRINGER & TOWNSEND, 222 Broadway, and by the author, 504 Broadway.

DOCTOR YOURSELF—FOR TWENTY-FIVE CENTS—By means of the Pocket Æsculapius, or Every One His Own Physician. Thirtieth edition, with one hundred engravings, showing Diseases and Malformations in every shape and form, by William Young, M. D., Graduate of the University of Pennsylvania. The various forms of Secret Diseases are faithfully described, and all the receipes given in plain language. The chapter on Self-Abuse is worthy of particular attention, and should be read by every one. Young men, who have been unfortunate in contracting disease previous to placing yourselves under the care of any doctor, no matter what his pretentions may be, get a copy of this truly useful work. Strangers visiting the city, particularly those contemplating marriage, don't think of returning home without a copy of the Pocket Æsculapius. Sea captains and persons going to sea, should possess Dr. Young's Treatise on Marriage, the Pocket Æsculapius, or Every One His Own Physician. Any person sending twenty-five cents enclosed in a letter, will receive one copy of this book by mail; or six copies will be sent for one dollar. Address DR. WM. YOUNG 152 Spruce street, Philadelphia; and for sale by Strin Townsend, 222 Broadway, New York.

PARIS AND LONDON TREATMENT OF PRIVATE diseases in a few hours, by a vegetable application, without pain. In debility brought on by improper habits and constitutional affections, I combine medicines with the local remedy, and can show any one there are thousands who cannot be cured without it, as I have cases daily, of years' standing, from the other physicians. In all, I guarantee a permanent cure. I have no strictures daily, I cure without caustic, which others use, caused by their not expelling the disease soon enough. My diploma, with there, and the hundreds of certificates, show that none can equal it. You cured me in one day, D. M. Corbyn. You expelled my complaint in a few hours, C. Deroud. I was under the other physicians over a year, without benefit; my body was covered, you cured me in a short time. John Rollison, Jr. I paid over $300 in five years, to be rid of debility, from self abuse, without benefit; you cured me, by local and general treatment, in a short time, Jas. Salisbury. Treatment by letter. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 2 P. M., and 7 to 9 P. M. DR. LAKMONT, 42 Reade street, two doors from Broadway.

DR. RALPH'S PRACTICAL PRIVATE TREATISE ON certain diseases, in which the best and most convenient means of cure are stated in the plainest possible manner. It also contains the information of many years' experience, both in hospital and private practice, and is made especially valuable to those who have fallen into improper hands. None but those who have had peculiar opportunities of judging, can possibly imagine the numerous and varied sources of deception which exist on the subject, nor the sufferings, both in mind and body, they entail upon society. It is a fact, for instance, that in this city, thousands are going on from month to month, uncured of those complaints, and many of whom indeed, have passed into those stages which no medicine in the world, alone can ever cure. Now, in this work, the causes of all these sufferings and delays will be seen immediately, and not only this, but the most rational and certain means of cure are also faithfully and clearly pointed out, with recipes for the remedies, &c., &c., 9th Ed., 342 pp., with illustrative plates. Price $1. May be had of the author, No. 88 Greenwich street, or by post, mailed free. Also of most booksellers, and of the publisher, No. 43 Ann street.

DR. RALPH, AUTHOR OF THE "PRACTICAL PRIvate Treatise," &c.—Office hours, 9 to 12 A. M.; 5 to 9 P. M., (Sunday excepted)—No. 88 Greenwich street. From the uncommon medical advantages the author has enjoyed in this speciality, he has ample reason for stating that, in any stage of certain diseases, or their consequences, as well as the deplorable effects resulting from early improper habits, he can insure such certain, safe and radical cures, as can be obtained from no other source of America. Those who apply in the earlier stages, will be surprised at the ease and rapidity of the cure.

DR. COOPER, 14 DUANE STREET, HAS, FOR THE last fourteen years, confined his practice to the treatment of mercurial and other diseases. He can cure the most aggravated cases of this disease, and mild cases removed two to five days. A perfect cure or no charge.

DR. JOHNSON, NO. 16 DUANE STREET, SO WELL known in the treatment of delicate diseases. The Doctor's reputation for skill in those half-cured cases, that have existed for years, is pre-eminent. Constitutional weakness brought on by a secret habit, effectually cured. Recent cases cured in four days.

ON NERVOUS DEBILITY.—THE VICTIMS OF EARLY indiscretions will find in Dr. De Laney's "Private Medical Formulary," their cases faithfully and candidly treated of, together with the exposure of quackery. Sold at the bookstore 412 Broadway. Price only 12½ cents. Mailed by the author, 51 Lispenard street, to any part of the Union.

DR. DE LANEY, AUTHOR OF THE PRIVATE MEDIcal Guide, &c., continues to be consulted, as usual, in those difficult cases of a certain nature, that have baffled the skill of physicians less experienced in this branch of practice. His mild and judicious treatment, requiring no mercury, or other dangerous medicine, he knows (from the half-cured cases of other practitioners he is daily called upon to treat) to be far superior to any other in America. Those who have been misled by mock certificates or bugbear advertisements, can have the Doctor's opinion and advice gratis. Office 51 Lispenard street, near Broadway.
