CITY TRADE REPORT.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 5—6 P. M.

ASHES.—No new feature can be noticed in the market for this article, which continued quite heavy, with sales of 100 bbls. pots and pearls at $5 62½ per 100 lbs.

BREADSTUFFS.—Flour, &c.—The market for State and Western, since our last, has been without special change, but, if anything, it favored the purchaser, particularly for the low and medium qualities, which were more freely offered at quoted rates. The demand for city use was fair, and chiefly for the better descriptions of State and Western, for which holders have obtained full prices. Ohio flour was a shade lower, and in moderate request, as well for the eastern as for the local trade. The operations comprised 5,000 barrels at $4 31 a $4 50 for No. 2 superfine, with common to good State and ordinary Ohio at $4 75 a $4 81½; Indiana and Michigan at $4 81 a $5, pure Genesee at $5 a $5 06¼, fancy Ohio and Genesee at $5 25 a $5 50, and extra Ohio and Genesee at $5 62½ a $6 62½. Canadian was in better demand for the provinces, and we heard of a sale of 500 bbls. at $4 81¼, in bond. We noticed more inquiry for Southern flour, at steady prices. The local trade were buying more freely, and there was something done in the better kinds for export. The transactions since our last amounted to 3,100 bbls., including mixed to straight Alexandria, Baltimore, Georgetown, and Richmond country, at $5 a $5 12½, and fancy do. at $5 25 a $5 62½. Rye flour was rather more plenty, but being in active request, prices were well supported. Sales amounting to 150 barrels were made at $3 87 a $4. Corn meal was firm, and saleable at $3 06 for Jersey, afloat; $3 12 for do. delivered, and $3 25 for Brandywine, cash. Since our last there has been but little movement in wheat, the high pretensions of holders and the unwillingness of buyers to meet their views being against operations. A sale of Genesee was reported for milling, on terms not made public, but understood to be at lower rates. A firm feeling prevailed in the market for Oats, which were in limited supply, and in request, with sales of canal and Canadian at 50 a 51c.; river at 49 a 50c., and New Jersey at 47 a 49c. We noticed a quiet market for Rye, with light receipts and a moderate demand at 80c. per bushel. Barley was more inquired for, but the small stock in the hands of dealers checked the business doing. Small lots of fair North river were taken at $1 01. The range was about $1 a $1 12. Corn remained as noticed in our last, the small arrivals restricting the sales, while holders were firm. The market had an improving tendency. A lot of 3,000 bushels new yellow Southern brought 67c., closing at 68c as the asking price.

COTTON.—The sales making in the absence of the letter mail are very small, and at a decline of ⅛c. from the rates obtained on Saturday last. The transactions during the last two days amounted to only 700 bales.

PROVISIONS.—Pork—The market for old mess was a shade better, with a fair demand for the city trade, and sales of 350 barrels at $12 12 a $12 25, and prime at $9 12 a $9 18. The latter has not varied. New was more active, and holders were generally very firm. Small lots of Ohio, amounting to probably 150 barrels, were disposed of at $13 25 for mess. Dutchess county new mess was selling slowly at $14, and clear do. at $15. There was no change in sour, and the market for it was less active. There was a fair inquiry for new beef, and the market was something firmer for extra Chicago mess, with sales of 180 barrels at $5 a $6 for prime, and $8 50 a $10 50 for mess. Beef hams sold to some extent at $15 per barrel of 220 lbs. Prime mess beef was inactive, and quoted nominal at $15 a $16. No alteration has taken place in dressed hogs since our last. The demand was chiefly from the retail trade, at 6¾c a 6¾c. The stock of old lard being quite limited, and the demand active, prices were very firm, with, if anything, an upward tendency. Some 150 barrels brought 8¼c. a 8⅜c. Holders of strictly prime new Ohio were asking 8⅜c. a 8⅝c., while buyers offered 8¼c. a 8⅜. There was no change of interest in the market for butter, but there was less doing. Cheese moved to a moderate extent at 6c. a 7c. for fair to prime dairies.

"WHERE IS STERLING?"—IN REPLY TO THIS INterrogatory in yesterday's Herald, evidently propounded by some individual who has not kept pace with the "spirit" of the age, it is only necessary to say that Shed, Stering, the identical "Shed" of the old Franklin—he himself, individually, and "nobody else"—is now the stirrer-up of good things at the world renowned Astor, where, in connection with his host of friends, daily procures a fine dish over his deliciously-prepared beverage, the only, the happy witticisms, for which he stands pre-eminent—A very Napoleon—"himself alone."

DESTRUCTION AND SAFETY.—
Everything verminous
Reaches life's terminus,
When once it imbibes Lyon's death dealing doses.
Bench and bedbug keel over,
Like shot duck, or plover,
When his powder once touches their mouths and their noses.
His pills, mice and rats will
Slay quicker than cats will;
Yet strange—is it not?—human folk, large and small,
May eat pills and powders, nor suffer at all.
Depot for Lyon's Magnetic Powder and Pills, 420 Broadway.
