MILLINERY AND DRY GOODS.

THE LAST WEEK—179 GREENWICH STREET, BEtween Dey and Fulton streets—Great bargains in dry goods, selling off to leave the city.—LINDLEY & CARTISS having made arrangements to vacate their store, by the 25th of this month, (Feb.,) are now offering, for cash, their entire stock of well selected dry goods, at greatly reduced prices, and many articles less than cost, which will be done to effect an immediate sale, and dispose of their stock to close the business. Having but one week now to sell off in, great bargains will be offered to those who may favor us with a call.

CANTON CRAPE SHAWLS.—JAMES BECK & CO. have just received a splendid assortment of plain and embroidered Canton crape Shawls, to which the attention of Southern, Western, and city merchants is respectfully invited, 251 and 253 Broadway.

WET GOODS FROM ON BOARD THE PACKET SHIP Zurich—3,000 doz French linen cambric handkerchiefs, price 1s. 10d., and 2c the French chambray aprons, price—wet, 16 pence; worth dry 2s 6d; Turkey red prints, plain and printed, price 15 and 18 pence, worth just double, dry, and several other style of goods, all of which are good, and damaged but little by water only, and are well worth buying—being sold at great bargains. Of dry goods we have a splendid assortment, and the recent arrivals have brought to us many new styles, especially in silks and other dress goods. Household goods and domestics being a branch of our trade, to which we direct particular attention, we can always abundantly supplied, and guarantee to sell on better terms than any similar establishment in the United States. The name of our institution is the Bowery Savings Store, 126 Bowery.

A MAGNIFICENT SHIRT.—WE ARE GREAT ADMIRers of a fine shirt, and consider ourselves as pioneers in having it covered where such can be found. Mrs. Sanford, No. 5 Chatham street, is a perfect adept in the art; and being conscious of this, we feel confident we can pronounce her judgment, whether in the style for embroidering, or the selection of materials, to be of the very best. As Mrs. S. is about to open a sample store, and leave for a time for the World's Fair, we feel it our duty to advise the readers to give her a call, and judge of the productions of our fair mechanics.
