will be entitled to a pro rata share of the amount of the two mill tax collected during the year 1851.

A few shares of the Pittsburgh Copper Company were sold at Boston, a few days since, at 90 a 92. This stock is very productive to the shareholders, and if its dividends are any fair criterion, it is much undervalued. In 1849 it paid its first dividends of $10 per share, in 1850 $14 per share, and in the present year $10 per share will be divided from the earnings of 1850, making in all $204 000 divided in three years, leaving a surplus to the company, after paying all its indebtedness (exclusive of its real estate, mines, engines, furnaces and improvements of all sorts,) of $57 992 80.

THE OMNIBUS QUESTION.

TO THE PUBLIC.—MR. JAMES T. BERTINE, OF OMnibus notoriety, has recently thought proper to publish an account of what he calls his "whole stage business," in explanation of certain facts set forth in an extract from an affidavit, sworn to by Mr. William W. Tate, and previously published in that paper. The following affidavit, (including the whole of the one above alluded to,) lately sworn to before an Investigating Committee of the Common Council, will serve to show the wide difference between the statements concerning his "stage business," which Mr. Bertine has found it convenient to make at different periods, in the last year's history of that business. They will also enable those who may be disposed to read them, to judge how far Mr. Bertine is entitled to the sympathies of the public, in his daily violations of City ordinances by running stages without licences, and in his constant endeavors to lead up the Mayor's authority, under those ordinances, to public hatred and contempt, the better to enable him to defeat the endeavors of his Honor the Mayor to enforce them. Mr. Bertine, it is said, has accumulated a fortune by means of his "stage business," conducted under the genial influences of official sun-shine; and he now seems to think, as is often the case with the Fortune's favorite,—that he has acquired a right to a continuance of favors; which many think have already been too liberally bestowed on him. At all events, it is a matter of paramount importance, that order should be maintained in the streets of the city; and it is the duty of every good citizen to sustain the city authorities in their efforts to do it. JUSTICE.

State of New York,
City and County of New York, ss }
Wm. W. Tate being duly sworn and asked—
Question—What is your name, residence, and occupation? Answers and says—
My name is William W. Tate; I reside at 58 Whitehall street in the City of New York, and I am a Porter House Keeper.
Question—Have you obtained a Permit or License to run Omnibus Stages in the City of New York, and if so, when?
Answer—I shall have to tell it in my own way. I am acquainted with Mr. Bertine; he came to me and asked me if he could make me his friend; I told him he could. (I mean the stage proprietor, I do not know his first name;) I told him I had a little money, and that I did not wish to do anything which might injure me. He said, "Walter, do you think I would do anything to injure you?" and I said to him "I do not think you would." He then said, "I want to get a license to run a line of stages on the 1st avenue, and that the Mayor had told him that he could not grant that license or permit to him, because he had granted him one already, to run on the 5th avenue, and he thought it would look like partiality to grant him another line. He then said that the Mayor had told him if he had a friend that he could get to take out the license, he, the Mayor, would give it to his friend. I then asked Mr. Bertine whether I should go up to the Mayor's office, and apply for it, and he said no. It rested thus for a long while; I did not hear anything more about it for some time; then it get noised around that I had a permit for 10 or 20 stages (I don't remember which) to run on Madison, and I heard it was to run through to Pearl or Beaver sts. also; up to this time I had seen no permit; this, I think, was in August or September; I know it was warm weather, although I cannot recollect the exact time. Afterward Mr. Bertine presented me a paper which he said was an Omnibus Permit, and wanted me to assign it, I believe, to Messrs. Hatfield and Bertine; that was my impression; I did not read the permit; I signed my name to what I believed to be a prepared assignment of this permit; it was witnessed by Patrick Smith, and I relied on what Mr. Bertine said about it; Mr. Bertine then took the permit and I have seen nothing of it since; I understood that the permit was taken out in my name.
Question—Did you receive any compensation or consideration for your trouble or agency or the use of your name in this transaction.
Answer—He told me—you can treat the boys—(meaning some about there) some drivers and persons about there; said we had better have some champagne on this occasion, and I got some, and the drivers and beaumen about the porter house, and Mr. Bertine drank with them. I paid for the champaigne. The next morning, or the morning after, Daniel Thatcher, Mr. Bertine's brother-in-law, gave me $25. I understood this was given me to pay for the liquor, and the expense I had been at in this Omnibus transaction. I got the reputation of being a stage proprietor, and I had to treat on that account. On Wednesday last I received the following note. (Copy.)
MAYOR'S OFFICE, Dec. 10th, 1850.
WM. W. TATE:—Sir—The Mayor desires you to call at this Office, at your earliest convenience. Yours.
[Signed] WM. FAIRMAN, Mayor's Clerk.
I called at the Mayor's Office in answer to the note, and I found Mr. Bertine there, and he man Mr. Bertine said to me the Mayor's clerk. I did not know him, but I should know him if I saw him again. He presented me a paper to sign—I told him I would not sign any paper. This paper was read to me, and it was an affidavit that an omnibus permit for a line of stages to be run on the 1st avenue had been granted to me in March, which I refused to swear to. No one ever paid me any money on this account, except the $25 for drinks—I expected to be paid something more. It was understood that the transactions in obtaining this permit were to be kept a secret. I don't know the Mayor.
[Signed] W. W. TATE.
Sworn to before me this 13th day of December, 1850.
GEO. H. FRANKLIN, Alderman Seventeenth ward.
John S. Merriam, resides in 28th st., is a stage proprietor. I get possession of the line of omnibusses that runs through 1st av., Houston st. and the Bowery, &c., on the 20th day of July last. Mr. Garrison and myself purchased this line from Mr. James T. Bertine, for which we agreed to give $42 000. We supposed that the licenses had been paid to the Clerk of the Common Council; but we found that they had not been; but Mr. Bertine afterwards paid for them. We estimated all the property that we obtained, without the permit, to be worth only about $25 000. I understood that the line belonged to Hatfield & Bertine. JOHN S. MERRIAM.
Sworn to before me this 26th December, 1850.
GEO. H. FRANKLIN, Alderman 17th Ward.
Meeting of the Special Committee on Omnibus permits, &c. Tuesday Evening, Dec. 17th, 1850.
Present, Aldermen Franklin, Wood and Kelly.
Wm. H. Wilkins being duly sworn, says he resides at 68 East Twenty-eighth st., in this city, and is a stage proprietor. Engaged in the business, and is one of the proprietors of the Broadway and 4th av. line.
Question—Do you know any thing about the mode or means by which the permit, or licenses for the Broadway, Fifth av. and Fulton line of Omnibusses was obtained, and if so what?
Answer—About the last of October, or 1st Nov. 1849, I called at Hatfield & Bertine's office, corner Tenth street and avenue C, and there saw Messrs. Bertine and Hatfield; they stated to me they were about getting this line of stages; I told Mr Bertine I did not think he could get it; he then stated to me what he had proposed to the Mayor, C. S. Woodhull; he said he had asked the Mayor for a permit, and the Mayor at first refused him; he said he then told the Mayor that he would give $2,000 for election purposes if he would give him the permit; the Mayor then stated to him that he, the Mayor, had a man who would negotiate with him on that subject, and that the Mayor sent him, Bertine, to John S. Giles for the business, and that he, Bertine, then went to Mr. Giles, and named the route he wanted a permit for, and on his first interview Mr. Giles, asked him $5,000 for the permit that he promised to procure for him from the Mayor; this, he said, occurred at his first interview with Mr. Giles; Mr. Bertine had previously proposed to me to go in partnership with him in this line; Mr. Bertine then asked me to accompany him at Francis's House, a few days after, to converse with him, and he was on that day to see the Mayor and Mr. Giles; I did not meet him, Bertine, as agreed to, at said hotel; Mr. Bertine then said to me that he had seen Giles and the Mayor, and that Giles would not take less than $3,000 for the permit; he then asked me what he had better do, as Giles was then in the Hall of Records; I told Bertine he had better give the $3,000 for it; he then left me to see Giles, as he said, and went over to the Hall of Records, and came back in a few minutes and told me that Giles had refused to let him have the permit, as he, Giles, wanted it for his son; the next time I saw Bertine, which was a day or two afterwards, he said he had seen Giles, and Giles told him he would expose the whole matter if he did not give him, Bertine, the permit, in the place of Giles' son; I next saw Mr. Bertine in Fulton street, which, I think, was about the 20th Nov. 1849; he then said that if I wanted to go in with them, to have my thousand dollars ready the next day, for he was to get the permit; it was understood before this, that I was to have one third of the line; I then told him that I had gone in with Mr. Amos P. Hatfield, into the Broadway and Fourth avenue line, and therefore did not wish to go in this line.
W. H. WILKINS.
Sworn before me, this 17th day of Dec., 1850.
GEO. H. FRANKLIN, Alderman Seventeenth ward.
William A. Turnure, being sworn, says that he resides in Broadway, between Forty-ninth and Fiftieth streets, in this city, and is one of the proprietors of the Broadway and Forty-second street line of stages. Question—Do you know anything of the mode by which the Broadway and Fifth avenue line of omnibus stages was licensed? Answer—What I know is this:—in the month of December or January, 1849 or 1850, wishing to buy into the omnibus business, and hearing that the Bowery and Grand street line, of which Hatfield & Bertine were proprietors, was for sale, I called on them (H. & B.), in company with William F. Turnure, my father, and saw, on the corner of Avenue C and Tenth street, Abraham Hatfield, partner of Mr. Bertine, and got from him the terms of sale of the Bowery and Grand street line—and in the conversation with him he said he would not leave this line, but Mr. Bertine had a permit for the Fifth avenue line which had cost him $4,000 to obtain. He then said that Mr. Bertine could not have obtained this permit, if John S. Giles had not applied for the same route; and Mr. Bertine had learnt of some arrangement existing between said Giles and the Mayor, in relation to this route, and Mr. Bertine had went to the Mayor's house, and threatened to expose the whole matter if he did not give him the permit for the line, and he stated that the Mayor then gave him the permit, and he paid $3,000 for it. About two months after this, I bought a part of the Broadway and Forty-second street line. Abraham Hatfield had a drove of horses, and he came to our stable to sell some, and he then said to me that if we wanted anything from the Mayor's office, we had better call upon them, Hatfield & Bertine, and they could get it for us, for we have got him in a "tight place"—he is not an honest man, and can be bought. WM. A. TURNURE.
Sworn to, before me, this 17th day of December, 1850.
GEO. H. FRANKLIN, Alderman Seventeenth ward.
George C. Mumford, being duly sworn, says that he resides 143 Wooster street, and is one of the proprietors of the Courtlandt street line of Omnibuses. Since the 1st November last, I wished to change our route, so that we could run through Fourth street to the Second avenue, and thence up. I asked Mr. John Griffith to apply to the Mayor; he afterwards told me that he had seen the Mayor's Clerk, William Fairman, and he asked what we would give, and Mr. Griffith told Mr. Fairman that we would give $500. Mr. Fairman, said, that is not a circumstance. I afterwards met Mr. John H. Ryerson in the Park, when he asked me, how do you get along in getting permission to change your route? I told him not very well. He, Ryerson, asked me what we would give. I told him I thought $500. He then said he had great influence with the Mayor, for he was under many obligations to him, but would not undertake it for anything like that sum. I told him to see what he could it for, and we parted. I was in the habit of meeting him daily by appointment, and on one occasion I asked him how he got along. He said the Mayor told him he had better attend to his own routes, meaning the two that had just been granted to him, to run from the Hudson River Railroad Depot. Afterwards I saw Mr. Ryerson, when it had got rumored about that he (Ryerson) had got his permits for the two lines; the Mayor told him, (Ryerson) that there was so much excitement about stages, he had better wait for the change on Second avenue, until it had somewhat subsided. Afterwards Mr. Ryerson told me that the Mayor had informed him that there had been permits granted to run a new line on Second avenue, and the Mayor desired me to buy this new line off, and Ryerson said that he could buy it for $2,000, and if he bought it for that, he should claim $500 for his trouble. We did not buy it. GEO C. MUMFORD.

GEO H. FRANKLIN, Alderman Seventeenth ward.
Abram Brown, being duly sworn, says he resides on the corner of Twenty-sixth street and Ninth avenue, and is one of the proprietors of the Chelsea line of stages. Question—Have you had any conversation with James T. Bertine about the obtaining of permits to run omnibuses? Answer—I have; in the month of September or October last, I met Mr. James T. Bertine in Smith's Hotel, in Nassau street, when he told me that he, Bertine, could get us a permit for the Fifth avenue in the Mayor's office, at the same time slapping his pocket; and he said you do not know how to manage affairs.
ABRAHAM BROWN.

DECEMBER 21, 1850.
Meeting of the Special Committee. Present—Aldermen Franklin, Wood, and Kelly.
Thomas McLelland being duly sworn, doth depose and say, that he resides at 187 Twenty-second street, and, in the year 1849, was one of the proprietors of the Fulton Ferry Line of Omnibus Stages; that on Wednesday or Thursday, the 18th or 19th day of December, 1850, he called at the office of John Newhouse, in Broadway, and, in a conversation with said Newhouse, he admitted to this deponent that he, Newhouse, had paid to Wm. Fairman, the Mayor's Clerk, the sum of one hundred dollars, to use his influence in preventing the running of a line of stages on the Fifth avenue. This deponent further says, that a permit was granted for a line of omnibusses to run on said Fifth avenue, which this deponent and Curtis and Pulling paid, and became responsible to pay the sum of $12,000 to Messrs. Hatfield and Bertine for said permit.
