Bathing and Long Life.—It has been stated by a celebrated medical man, that three Baths a week are equal to ten years of life, meaning that, taking the average, life would be prolonged to that extent by regular bathing. He, then, would forego the luxury and healthful influence of the warm bath, when it can be obtained, in its highest perfection, and with all the accompaniments which give zest to enjoyment, at RASINKAU'S well known Bathing establishments, at the Irving, the Astor, and the Carlton?

Dr. Kellinger's Magic Fluid not only extracts all manner of pains, heals and strengthens weakness, of every class and character in male or female, but it also cures coughs and colds, of long standing, by an entirely new, agreeable, and bracing method, which is impossible to fail to cure if there is anything left to build on. Dr. K. gives undeniable proof of everything that he pretends to do in the healing art. He dare not insult the good sense of the community by filling the papers with fulsome nonsense of the blatherskite and deceptious city, which can catch none but those, of all others, who should not be caught, viz: the poor, feeble, and unlettered portion, which are, unfortunately, a large portion of the people. This class Dr. K. has endeavored to protect, to a certain extent, by giving them a good article, from 1s. to 8s. each, to $8 a dozen, cash. If those who buy and use it are abused, they can ascertain it at a small price, and they also go with thousands of the first families in the land, among whom we have the pleasure to refer to Hon. M. H. Grinnell and others. From this fact, the faculty generally use it in their practice. This remedy renews the hair, if gone thirty years. Dr. K. will forfeit $1,000 if he does not prove a case renewed where the gentleman was bald from seventeen to forty-five years of age, and hundreds of others. Call and get a circular at 250 Pearl; 464 and 476 Broadway, between Grand and Broome streets. Distributing agents—Toronto, Canada, Thomas J. Fuller; Boston, Messrs. E. Kidder & Co., 100 Court street; Albany, N. Y., A. McClure & Co.; Rochester, Post & Mills; Mobile, Alabama, Coster & Co.; Augusta, Georgia, Hallock, Clark & Co.; New Orleans, J. Wright & Co.; Washington, D. C., C. Stott & Co., and M. Delany; Charleston, S. C., Cowen & Co., Haviland, Harral & Co.; Philadelphia, Rowland & Weldon, 21 North Sixth street, Frederick Helenbold & T. K. Calonder, 83 South Third street. Principal agent in Brooklyn, Mrs. Hays. For further and most astounding particulars, see the weekly papers generally—Dispatch, Times, Courier, Mercury, Atlas, Police Gazette, Spirit of the Times, and New York Picayune. This wonderful remedy can be had of all the stores, and druggists generally.
