TO PROPRIETORS OF HOTELS AND STEAMBOATS.—Bulkley's Electro Magnetic Enunciator, a substitute for Bells and all other Bell Telegraphs, can now be seen at Norton's Telegraphic Rooms, 577 Broadway, N. Y.—In calling the attention of the proprietors of hotels throughout the country to Bulkley's Electro Magnetic Enunciator, the subscriber would respectfully state that he has arranged with the patentee for the agency for the United States, and would be most happy to receive orders from those who desire a perfect article, and one that is immensely superior to any enunciator or bell telegraph ever before invented. All strain upon the wires, batteries, springs, are, in this, dispensed with, thus rendering it almost impossible that it should get out of order. Any person desirous of obtaining an article of this kind, is solicited to call before purchasing elsewhere.
J. W. SORTON, Sole Agent, 177 Broadway, N. Y.

POLITICAL.

AN ELECTION IN THE TOWN OF NEWTOWN, L. I. Queens county, was held at the house of Andrew Hunter, in the village of Astoria, on the first day of April last, for the purpose of electing town officers for the ensuing year. The election was strongly contested by the inhabitants of the village of Newtown against the village of Astoria, for the reason that the town meeting was removed from the village of Newtown to the village of Astoria, which is supposed to be the cause of much dissatisfaction on the part of Newtown. The ticket selected as their candidates for office, Peter Luyster, for Supervisor; Roe H. Smith, for Collector; John L. Boyd, for Justice. Newtown selected William H. Furman, for Supervisor; Paul Rooney, for Collector, and Arthur Donally, for Justice, which Newtown denominated as their Irish ticket, in order to delude that class of individuals living in the village of Astoria; but the village of Astoria met her opponents manfully, and triumphantly defeated them. The following is the result of the election:—Peter Luyster, for Supervisor, by a majority of twelve; Roe H. Smith, for Collector, majority one hundred and fifty-two; John L. Boyd, for Justice, a majority of four hundred and thirty-six. Number of votes polled, was six hundred and seventy-two. The result of this election, it is hoped, will be a salutary lesson to those individuals who have endeavored to put in office persons to defeat instead of enforcing the laws.

MATRIMONIAL.

MATRIMONY MADE EASY, OR HOW TO WIN A lover.—Professor Lawton, of London, having arrived in Boston, will send to any address, on receipt of one dollar, post-paid, plain directions to enable ladies or gentlemen to win the devoted affections of the opposite sex.
