A CARD—TO THE FIRE DEPARTMENT.—HAVING heard it reported that I had withdrawn my name as a candidate for the office of Assistant Engineer, this is to inform my friends, and the Department in general, that such is not the case—that having been tendered the regular nomination at Firemen's Hall, I have accepted it, and do not intend to withdraw. I would also warn the Department against some evil disposed persons, who, to gain their own ends, are endeavoring to injure my character, which they know is far superior to their own, in every respect.

(Signed) HENRY H. HOWARD.

TO THE FIRE DEPARTMENT AND THE PUBLIC.—It is with feelings of deep regret that we are obliged, by the necessity of the case, to appear before you, to correct the views taken by our Chief Engineer in his card to the Fire Department, in relation to the election for an Assistant Engineer. Not approving of either of the candidates nominated at Fireman's Hall, we had no alternative left but to select such a man as was competent and worthy, and nominate him solely on those grounds, as an independent candidate, not having the remotest idea of opposition to the wishes of the Chief Engineer.

It is a matter of surprise, as well as regret, that the Chief Engineer should so far forget his position as to charge any member of the department, and especially one whose character stands so high as Mr. Venn's, of accepting any place by which to oppose him in the discharge of his duties. What could have prompted him to attach to us the name of "clique," we are utterly at a loss to know. The movement was no secret. Notices of the meeting were sent to every officer in the department, twenty-eight of whom attended, representing every district in the city.

Although Mr. Venn's name had been mentioned, he stood no better chance than others who were named—among whom were several of Mr. Carson's warmest friends; one of which would have received the nomination, had he not declined accepting it; wherupon the nomination was unanimously tendered to Mr. Henry B. Venn, who very reluctantly assented to allow the use of his name.

Our only motive in nominating him, was to bring forward a man who is in every way competent to discharge the duties of Assistant Engineer with credit to himself, and to the satisfaction of the Department. The charges of undue influence, false and malicious reports in reference to Mr. Jackson, is wholly untrue, and beneath the notice of honorable men.

CARSON AND ANTI-CARSON.—MR. CARSON IN A published card to the Fire Department, having stated that the election of Mr. Venn to the office of Assistant Engineer would "embarrass him in the discharge of his duties in every possible way." I feel it my duty to state that on the evening of the nomination of Mr. Venn—the enquiry was made of him as to the state of his feelings towards Mr. Carson, and he expressly disclaimed that any ill feeling existed on his part, and that if elected he would not only consider it his duty, but in all cases would support him when right in the discharge of his duties as Chief Engineer.

THE NEW BANK AT EASTON.—THE BOOKS FOR receiving subscriptions to the capital stock of the "Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Easton," will be opened on Monday, the 12th of May instant, at the hotel of David Connor, in the borough of Easton, Northampton county, Pennsylvania, and will be kept open during the five following days if necessary. The capital of the bank is $300,000, with liberty to increase it to $400,000. The shares $50 each, upon which $5 must be paid at the time of subscribing, and $20 more within sixty days thereafter. The residue in such instalments as may be hereafter required by the by-laws. This bank was chartered by the Legislature of Pennsylvania at its recent session, and will be located at one of the most favorable points for business in the State. The borough of Easton is situated in the forks of the Delaware and Lehigh rivers, and with the adjoining towns of South Easton and Phillipsburg, contains over ten thousand inhabitants. The Lehigh Canal and the Morris Canal both terminate at this place, and the Delaware division of the Pennsylvania Canal begins there. Easton is also the terminus of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, which will be completed in a few months—and the Delaware, Lehigh, Schuylkill, and Susquehanna Railroad, upon which the work has already been commenced. The country around Easton is rich and highly cultivated, and abounds with streams affording water power which drives many mills, distilleries, &c. Within a short distance also are the Glendin, Crane, Durham, Clay, Cooper's, and other large iron works. At present the Easton Bank is the only monetary institution in Northampton county, and affords all the banking facilities enjoyed by the people of Lehigh, Carbon, Monroe, and part of Bucks counties in Pennsylvania, and the adjacent parts of New Jersey. The new bank offers great inducements to persons who have money to invest in stocks.
