The German Vocalists—Singular Attempted Suicide—The Turkish Costume—New York Fire Engine, &c.

The members of the German musical associations all left for home in the cars and boat yesterday, many of them perfectly astounded with the lavish hospitality of their countrymen in Baltimore, in contributing to their pleasure and enjoyment. They found them perfectly Americanized in this particular, looking to expense as a secondary consideration.

A singular case of attempted suicide occurred yesterday at Flannigan's ship yard. A man and woman, very genteely dressed, walked down to the end of the wharf; when she picked up a stick to try the depth of the water, and was about walking away, when he took hold of her hand, and they both jumped overboard together. The workmen having observed them, soon succeeded in rescuing them; but no explanation would be given by either of them. The man either was or pretended to be deaf and dumb. They finally moved off, the man starting about an hour before the woman, who remained to dry her clothes.

The first turn-out of the Turkish costume was witnessed last night on Baltimore street, and attracted considerable attention. The woman was finely formed and lady-like, and became it admirably; but the admiration of the spectators suddenly came to a stand as she turned the corner of Holliday street, and entered the third-tier entrance of the Holliday street theatre.

The fire engine of Manhattan Company, No 8, of New York city, which has been for some time in the hands of Mr John Rodgers, of this city, for remodelling, and a thorough repair, has been completed, and will be dispatched forthwith to New York. In her repair, the gallery has been altered in such a manner as to make a much more light and airy appearance. At the corners of the upright for the gallery are carved dolphins, surmounted by globes, on which stand carved eagles—these, with the carvings at the base and top, make a very handsome design. The entire work has been beautifully polished, and the wheels have been made of polished white hickory. It is the intention to have the panels filled with handsome paintings of appropriate designs. The engine will shine with the most beautiful of the New York department.

The Havre de Grace Bank—Case of Ezra Collier, Cashier, Indicted for Embezzlement, &c.

The trial of Ezra Collier, late Cashier of the late Havre de Grace Bank, for embezzlement, &c., of the funds of said bank, came up before court in this place, to-day, at half-past three o'clock, P. M. The accused was indicted last November by presentment of the Grand Jury of Harford county, and the trial was appointed to come off at Bel-Air, the county seat of said county; but was transferred at the request of the prisoner to this county, on the declaration by the prisoner that he did not believe he could obtain a fair and impartial trial in Bel-Air or the county of Harford.

Mr. Richard Grayson for the prosecution, presented, in the opening, a simple statement of the condition of the bank on the first of January 1850, which was as follows:—

MEANS OF THE BANK.

Cash on hand	$10,177 26
Checks, &c., of other banks	2,069 28
Bills discounted	48,884 78
Balances against other banks, &c.	22,367 00
Total means	$83,198 32

LIABILITIES.

Circulation	$28,412 00
Due to depositors	1,223 36
Capital stock	50,000 00
Profits on hand	3,562 96
Total	$83,198 32

Such was the condition of the bank on the 1st of January, 1850. Now, gentlemen, what do we find to be the condition of this bank on the 28th of August, 1850, the day of the explosion? Upon examination:—

RESOURCES.

Cash on hand	$1,121 18
Checks, &c., of other banks	42 34
Notes of the bank	27,676 80
Total	$28,842 32

LIABILITIES.

Capital stock	$50,000 00
Notes in circulation	86,650 00
Total liabilities	136,650 00
Deduct avails on hand	28,842 32
Total	$105,207 68

—which we charge as the amount embezzled by Ezra Collier, the Cashier.

Mr. Albert Constable, for the defence, said he should show from the books that these statements were fictitious; and that the bank was a mere shadow, and all its operations were upon a fictitious basis, the funds being returned to the New York stockholders the same month they were paid in, from the first year of the existence of the bank; and that in fact the funds were in New York all the time, so that there was nothing left for Collier to steal.

The Post Office—Jenny Lind—Crisis in the Stock Market.

The recent abstraction of valuable letters from our post office, in connection with the vox populi, expressed by the daily press, seems to be bringing about a change in the administration of affairs. Rumor states that Postmaster White will leave about the 10th proximo, and the following names are mentioned as prominent candidates for the post:—Robert Morris, the editor of the Inquirer of our city, and C. C. Norvel, brother of the late Senator Norvel, of Michigan, and formerly a leading whig editor of Tennessee. John C. Montgomery, formerly postmaster under Harrison, is also mentioned in connection with the new regime.

The democratic supreme bench ticket, nominated at Harrisburg, yesterday, does not give general satisfaction, and measures are spoken of for the formation of a whig coalition ticket in opposition, which will be voted by the whigs and independent democrats.

The tickets for the concert of Mlle. Jenny Lind, tonight, were bought up on speculation before noon yesterday, and are now being hawked about at from five to ten dollars each. They were sold in parcels of not more than five or ten; but the speculators got them by sending different persons to the places where they were sold. A story is going the rounds that a speculator in New York, who had a large number of tickets on hand from a former concert, and these happening to be the same color as those sold for Wednesday evening, sent them here, and disposed of them at more than the regular price of $3. This accounts for the crowded state of the hall on that evening, which was the subject of great complaint.

This has been a day of much excitement in the stock board, prices of Reading shares jumping up and down, to the infinite delight of those who profited by these sudden movements. The wires also announced a heavy failure among the brokers of Gotham, which has caused great dismay to several of our weak men.

PRESIDENT FILLMORE AND THE COMMON COUNCIL OF BOSTON.—The following is a letter from President Fillmore, declining an invitation to visit Boston:—

WASHINGTON, June 9, 1851.

Hon. President of the Common Council of the City of Boston:

When I had the pleasure of meeting you and your associates of the committee from Boston, in New York, and you did me the honor of inviting me to visit your city, and kindly tendered me on behalf of the Common Council, its hospitalities, I fondly hoped that I should be able during the present month to accept your invitation. But I regret to say that I find it inconsistent with what I deem my public duty to indulge in this gratification; and therefore, while I am profoundly grateful for the distinguished honor implied by the invitation, I feel reluctantly compelled to decline it. My personal acquaintance in your city is but slight; but slight as it has been, it has left many pleasant recollections, and I should have been extremely happy to have renewed and extended it at this time. I have long entertained a high respect for the intelligence and patriotism of the great mass of your citizens; and recent events have not impaired that respect. You have been, and I trust will ever be, a law-loving and a law-abiding people. I know that your devotion to this great principle has had a severe test, in your recent efforts to execute the law for the return of fugitive slaves. Slavery, in any form, is repugnant to your feelings and education, and the fugitive naturally and inevitably excites your deepest sympathies. Nothing but a stern sense of duty, founded upon a rational, solemn conviction that a constitutional and legal obligation must be obeyed, at any and every sacrifice, could have insured the execution of the law in a case like this. But, for myself, I never doubted that the law would ultimately triumph. Good faith is the foundation of all morality, and all social security. The free States had pledged themselves by the constitution to the performance of this duty. The slave States had a right to insist, and did insist, upon its performance. There was, then, no alternative but to break our faith, forfeit our word of honor, and thereby trample the constitution of our country in the dust, and run the hazards of a civil war; or else to admit the obligation like honest, true-hearted men, and do all in our power to comply with it—still hoping and trusting that in due time some mode would be devised, by those who have the constitutional power to abolish slavery, and who are most deeply interested in its final extinction—to get rid of the evil without destroying the fairest fabric of freedom that mortal hands have ever raised, and in its ruins extinguishing the last hope of humanity for self-government. Permit me to say that this government has cost Boston too much to be given up or hazarded for slight or trivial causes. Some of the patriots of the revolution still linger among you—and the monumental pillar of your grateful recollection of the heroes who fell at Bunker Hill, would seem to be a mockery, if their sons could so soon forget that this constitution cost their heart's blood of their sires. That your citizens have acted wisely and patriotically in sustaining the law, I cannot doubt. Their conduct has been governed by the highest sense of moral and political obligation; and for this noble example, I feel constrained, as the Chief Magistrate, whose especial duty it is to see that the laws are faithfully executed, to return the citizens of Boston my warmest acknowledgments—and I should have been most happy to have done this in person, were it consistent with my official engagements to leave this city. With many thanks to you, and through you to the citizens of Boston, for this kind invitation, I have the honor to be, your friend and fellow citizen,

MILLARD FILLMORE.

CITY TRADE REPORT.

FRIDAY, June 13—6 P. M.

ASHES continued in active demand, and with a firm market. There were sales of 200 bbls. pearls at $5 50; and pots at $5.

BEESWAX.—Some 2,200 lbs. American yellow have been disposed of at 25¾ a 26c., cash.

BREADSTUFFS.—We noticed more activity in the flour market, but without improvement in rates, which, owing to the large quantity arriving, favored purchasers. The operations in domestic reached 7,500 bbls. superfine No. 2 at $3 50 a $3 62½; old State from store at $3 75 a $3 81¼; mixed to favorite Western, with ordinary to straight fresh ground State, at $3 87 a $4; round hoop Ohio at $4 a $4 18¾; pure Genesee and fancy Ohio at $4 31 a $4 50; fancy Genesee and extra Ohio at $4 50 a $5 and extra Genesee at $5 a $6. Canadian ruled heavy and quiet at $4 06 a $4 12½. Southern was in moderate request at the decline, with sales of 850 bbls. mixed to straight at $4 31 a $4 50; and fancy at $4 87 a $5 37½. Rye flour was inactive. 150 barrels fine realized $3 37½. Meal retailed at $2 81 for State; $3 for Jersey; $3 12 a $3 18¾ for Brandywine. Wheat varied but little. 2,500 bushels Canadian were sold at 94 a 95c., in bond. Rye was held at 75c. without a buyer. Barley continued nominal at 80 a 85c. Oats were unsettled. Corn was in good supply and less firm. Some 42,000 bushels were disposed of, including white Southern, at 66c.; round yellow Northern at 59c.; and low to high mixed Western at 55 a 56c., the former rate for lots in store.

BRICKS have an advancing tendency. North river hard commanded $5 50 a $5 75, cash, per thousand.

COAL has been very quiet, and we know of no important sales.

COFFEE has been buoyant to-day, but holders remained firm. A parcel of 80 bags Java brought 11¾c.; 20 Laguayra, 9½c.; and 200 do. St. Domingo, 8c.

COTTON.—The market had less firmness to-day, and the sales, which were about 1,000 bales, were at prices about ⅛c lower than yesterday, on all except strictly fair styles, which, however, could not be sold as readily as before.

FIRE CRACKERS.—During the week, some 2,500 boxes Canton (40 packs.) have been sold at $1 75, allowing the usual credit.

FISH.—All descriptions were less abundant and without animation. From second hands 400 quintals cod were taken at $3 37½; and 200 bbls. No. 1 mackerel, at $9 87½.

FREIGHTS.—Most of the vessels on for Liverpool were full, as far as grain was concerned. Cotton was nominal at 5-32d., and grain 4½d a 5d. Some British vessels were about being taken up for corn at 4½d. Flour was engaged at 1s. 3d. To London, 1,000 bbls. naval stores were taken at 2s. per 250 lbs., and 2,000 bbls. flour at 2s. There was rather more offering for California, and clippers were getting 50 a 60c. per foot measurement. To Havre, cotton was ⅝c.

FRUIT.—We have only to report sales of 500 boxes bunch raisins, at $2 25 a $2 30; and 20 casks currants at 7½c., 4 and 6 months.

HAY.—Some 530 bales river changed hands since our last, at 50 a 55c., cash. The demand was moderate.

HEMP.—No transactions of any consequence have been reported within the past two days. Prices are firm, but the market is inactive.

HIDES have receded to 80c for common, at which 1,800 bbls. were taken since our previous report.

MOLASSES remained as noticed previously, with sales of 200 hhds. clayed Cuba, at 21 a 21½c.; and 50 do. Muscovado, at 24c.

NAVAL STORES were less buoyant, but firm; 500 bbls. North county common rosin sold at $1 30; 450 do. crude turpentine, at $3; and 200 do spirits, at 34 a 35c., cash.

OILS.—There was nothing new to hinted. From store, 9,000 gallons were purchased at 73c., cash. Whale was quiet, at 32c. a 42c. Olive moved to the extent of 300 baskets, quarts, at $2 62, and 120 (2 dozen pints,) at $3 87.

PROVISIONS.—Pork was steady at the advance, but the demand was light. Sales of 400 barrels new mess, at $14 37 a $14 44; old, at $14 25; new prime, at $13, and old at $12. Beef was moderately active at previous figures. The sales were 250 bbls. mess, at $8 62 a $11, and prime at $5 a $6. Beef hams and cut meats were neglected. There was more done in lard, without alteration in rates. 1,000 barrels and tierces changed hands within the last two days, at 8½c. a 9c. Butter was more plenty and inactive, at 5c. a 14c. for Ohio; 10c. a 14c. for Western dairies; and 14c. a 18c. for Orange county. Cheese has not varied.

RICE exhibited no new feature of interest. The week's sales reached about 400 tierces, (including 75 to-day,) at $3 06 a $3 56.

SUGARS were quiet but steady; 15,000 German realized $11, 6 months.

SOAP.—A small business was done in Castile, at 9½c. a 9¾c., usual terms.

SPICES.—With the exception of 800 lbs. No. 1 nutmegs, which brought 98c. cash, we heard of nothing doing.

SPIRITS.—Ten puncheons St. Croix rum were taken at 86c. a 90c., and 5 half pipes Cognac brandy at $2. In whiskey there was more firmness apparent, with a limited stock, and sales of 150 bbls. Prison were made at 22½c. a 22¾c.; and 50 hhds. Drudge at 21½c., time, &c.

SUGARS were held firmly, but there was little done; 100 hhds. Muscovado fetched 5¼c. a 5½c., and 300 boxes brown Havana 5¾c a 6½c.

TALLOW.—There was less offering, and the market was better; 4,500 lbs. strictly prime brought 7¾c cash.

TEA.—Bancs was more inquired after, and quite clearer. Considerable lots were taken at 20c., usual credit.

TOBACCO has been in pretty good request this week, without creating any particular change in rates. The operations consist of 420 hhds. Kentucky (part of which was shipped for Europe from first hands), at 6c. a 13c.; 15 do. Maryland at 6c. a 6½c.; 192 bales Havana, part at 30c. a 62½c.; 22 cases Florida at 12½c. a 17c.; 4 do. Pennsylvania at 18c.; and 132 bales Baracoa at private contract.

WINES.—We have to note a sale of 50 quarter casks Burgundy, at 47½c. a 50c.; and 20 do. sweet Malaga at 37½c.

WOOL.—The sales we have to report show a still further reduction of prices of American qualities; and in foreign there is nothing to report in the way of sales. It is the well grounded opinion of traders that prices will recede considerably below their present standard. Sales have been made of 15,000 lbs. low grade fleece at 20c. a 38c., 10,000 lbs. middling at 40c. a 42c.; 5,000 lbs. extra pulled at 38c. a 40c., 10,000 lbs. superior at 36c. a 37c., 10,000 lbs. No. 1 at 35c. a 34c., and 5,000 lbs. lambs' at 34c. a 35c., cash.
