Theatrical and Musical.

BOWERY THEATRE.—The proprietor of this famous establishment presents a programme of very attractive features for this evening. The first in order is the beautiful play of "Ingomar," which is put upon the stage in an admirable manner. The great feature of the evening is the new pantomime, which for splendor as to scenery, dresses, and decorations has seldom been witnessed. The manager has been at considerable expense in the getting up of this piece, in order that it should be worthy of the liberal patronage he has always received. We are informed that the great changing of the "Charter Oak" to the "Yacht America" is worth the entire price of admission.

BROADWAY THEATRE.—The performances of this evening are for the benefit of the Young Men's Hebrew Benevolent Society; and if we may judge from former benefits, the house will surely be crammed in every department. The programme of the evening is very attractive. The first piece will be the beautiful play of the "Lady of Lyons," which embraces nearly all the leading artists of this establishment. In the cast Messrs. Brooke, Fenno, Davidge, Mad. Ponisi, and Mrs. Vernon will appear. The entertainments will conclude with the excellent comedy of "All that Glitters is not Gold."

NIBLO'S GARDEN.—The Ravels, as usual, announce for this evening an excellent bill of entertainment. The first feature in the programme will be a grand divertisement, in which the charming dancers, Mlle. Bertin and the Misses Franck, with M. Blondin, and others, in the principal characters. The amusements will close with the pantomime of the "Four Lovers," and the comic pantomime of "Robert Macaire." From the attractive features of the above excellent selection there can be little doubt but that the house will be crowded in every department.

BURTON'S THEATRE.—This snug and comfortable theatre presents, this evening, a bill of great attraction, consisting of three fine pieces, all of which embrace several of the leading and very talented artists. The first of these pieces is the comedy of "Weak Points," with a fine cast. The next will be the excellent comedietta of "Delicate Ground," which has been witnessed with the utmost pleasure; and the touching feature will be the beautiful drama of "Clari, or Home, Sweet Home." No doubt a full house will be the result of this amusement.

NATIONAL THEATRE.—Mr. J. R. Scott, so long and favorably known to the frequenters of this theatre, will appear this evening as "Maurice, the Woodcutter." The next feature will be the amusing drama of "Blanche, the Outcast," in which Mr. Blanchard appears in the leading character, in which he will display the wonderful sagacity of his dog. The new pantomime of "The Modern Maiden" will conclude the entertainments of the evening.

BROUGHAM'S LYCEUM.—The amusements announced for this evening are suited to the holidays; they are light and entertaining. The commencing piece is one called "The Christmas Carol," in which Messrs. Chippendale, Brougham, and Mrs Maeder will appear in the leading characters. The next feature will be the wonderful performances of the Gypsey King, or great Necromancer, who will display his wonderful powers in the magic art. The whole will conclude with the farce of "Turn Out."

ASTOR PLACE OPERA HOUSE.—To-morrow evening Professor Anderson, the Great Wizard of the North, commences a series of his amusing entertainments, which will last during the holidays.

BARNUM'S MUSEUM.—The entertainments for this afternoon and evening are of a highly attractive character, and must ensure a very large attendance. In the afternoon will be given singing, ventriloquism by Valentine Vox, and the comedietta of "Naval Engagements." In the evening, the fine comedy entitled "Major Jones' Courtship" and the new pantomime styled the "Palace of Peacocks."

BOWERY AMPHITHEATRE.—Sands and Company have provided another excellent equestrian entertainment for this evening. We understand that they are making great preparations for Christmas day, on which occasion there will be three performances—morning, afternoon and evening. This will be a fine opportunity for the little folks.

CHRISTY'S MINSTRELS.—This highly popular and inimitable band of negro performers announce an unusually attractive programme for this evening, embracing many new features. Their hall is always crowded, and their performances received with the utmost enthusiasm.

FELLOWS' MINSTRELS continue to elicit the approbation of very large audiences. They give a good programme this evening, consisting of excellent melodies, instrumental performances, and exquisite dancing.

THE PANORAMA OF THE WORLD'S FAIR will be exhibited every evening at Stoppani Hall. Every one should see it.

STUYVESANT INSTITUTE.—An alchymestic performance this evening.

CITY TRADE REPORT.

MONDAY, Dec. 22—6 P. M.

Business was greatly retarded to-day by the severity of the weather, and the absence of the Europa's letters.

ASHES seemed quiet, 60 bbls, only having been sold, at $4 87½ for pots, and $5 62½ for pearls, per 100 lbs.

BREADSTUFFS.—Flour moved to the extent of 4,800 bbls.—Canadian, in bond, at $4 25 a $4 31½; Southern, ordinary, at $4 37½ a $4 50; State, common to choice, at $4 43¾ a $4 56¼; and Western, mixed to fancy, at $4 43¾ a $4 62½ per barrel—the previous prices. Nothing was done in rye flour or corn meal. Wheat varied little, though 2,000 bushels Genesee white were taken at $1 08, and 4,000 Southern do, at $1 06. Rye, Barley and Oats were inanimate, yet unaltered. Corn ruled firm, the business reaching 5,000 bushels mixed Western, at 66c.

COTTON.—The market has not opened since the arrival of the advices per Europa. A few sales, amounting to 400 bales, were effected, at fully one half cent decline on the rates of last week. The general feeling is to abstain from sales or purchases at present.

CANDLES.—About 250 boxes sperm changed hands, today, at 42c. a 50c., per lb.

COFFEE.—Beyond the disposal of 80 bags Java at 11c., there was little done. Imported this day—27 bags.

FRUIT.—There were 800 boxes Malaga raisins purchased, at $1 65 a $1 75; 500 halves at 92½c. a 99c.; and 400 quarters at 53c. a 54c.

FREIGHTS.—Shippers were waiting for letters by the Europa, before operating to any material extent. About 7,000 bushels wheat were engaged at 4½d., bagged by vessel, and about 1,000 a 1,100 bales cotton, compressed, at 3-16d. Cheese was at 20s. There was no change to London nor to Havre. To California rates were at 45 a 50c., except for clippers nearly ready to sail, which demanded 60 a 65c.

HAY continued very scarce, and was held at 75c. a 80c per 100 lbs.

HOPS commanded, in retail quantities, 30 a 33c. per lb., for new.

IRON.—A sale of 50 tons Scotch pig was effected at $29 75, six months. Imported this day, 4,320 bars.

LATHS appeared to be in very brisk request at $2 per thousand, cash, for eastern.

MOLASSES varied no further, though but 50 bbls. Louisiana found buyers at 28½c., cash.

OILS.—Sales were made of 3,000 gallons linseed, at 63 a 64c., in casks, and 65 a 66c., in bbls.; showing a reduction.

PROVISIONS.—Pork brought $13 50 a $14, and $15 a $15 25 for about 150 bbls prime and mess, respectively—the former value; while of lard, there were 100 bbls bought at 8¾c., and 150 kegs at 9½c a 9¾c; and of beef, 200 bbls, prime and mess, at Saturday's rates, indicating a steady market. Ohio and State butter was selling to a fair extent, at 12c a 19c., and good to choice cheese at 6¾c. a 7½c. per pound.

REAL ESTATE.—Sales by auction—Three lots on Monroe street, near Clinton street, each 23x99, $2,633 each, $7,890; pew in Grace church, $75; one share Brooklyn and Gowanus Toll Bridge stock, $20.

SOAP.—There have been 100 boxes Castile sold at 9½c., short credit.

SPIRITS.—The transactions were confined to 150 bbls. prison whiskey, at 22c.; and 20 hhds. drudge, in lots, at 21½c., time. &c.—the former rates.

SUGARS seemed inactive, 50 hhds. Muscovado, only, being taken at 4½ a 4¾c., and 100 boxes brown Havana at 4¾ a 5½c.

WINES.—159½ casks Port realized 97½c. a $1 25, and 20 do. sweet Malaga 37 a 38c per gallon.

IMPORTATIONS THIS DAY.

BLEACHING POWDERS.—45 kegs bleaching powders.

COAL.—5 lighters of coal.

DRUGS.—8 bbls. arrowroot, 100 casks, 500 kegs bicarbonate soda, 365 casks soda ash, 3 kegs magnesia.

LIME JUICE.—37 puncheons lime juice.

LEAD.—2,000 pigs lead.

PAINT.—200 bbls. Venitian red.

SPIRITS.—36 puncheons rum.

SPICES.—1,426 bags pimento.

SHELL.—500 lbs. turtle shell.
