Otto Holter, son of O. H. Holter, returned from the recreation last week where he had been visiting his brother-in-law, Lauritz Olson, near Earling. He went out with a drove of cattle belonging to his father, which will be pastured on the Olson ranch. Mr. Holter met our old friend S. Halvardsgaard, who owns two stores on White river, one at Cavite, and another down the river near Dog Ear Creek. Our old friend who came within a few notes of being county treasurer of Lincoln once, is prospering, and his friends are glad of it. He owns over 100 head of horses and his wealth keeps growing. He sent the LEADER three big silver dollars by Mr. Holter to let us know he was on earth. Thanks brother.

—Delicious ice cream soda at Noid's.
—Tosini has the finest candies, nuts, fruits.
Mrs. Zwang and daughter Mildred, are at the Rudolph.
Miss Ruth Hokenstad and sister and a little brother were in town Monday.
D. L. Herman and wife of Rapid City, are in Canton visiting relatives.
Miss Beatrice Carter of Sioux Falls is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seely.
O. H. Hustel has made numerous repairs on his East Fifth street livery property.
Mrs. Rugg of Cedar Falls, Iowa, arrived Wednesday to visit her brother, L. L. Redfield and family.
Mrs. Sheldon of White Lake, S. D., arrived Monday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Redfield.
Services at the Baptist church next Sunday at the usual hours. Preaching in the afternoon at the Jones school house.
Charlie and Ab. Wells were in town Friday. They report small grain very fine and corn coming along in good shape.
Walter Wilkinson returned to Mitchell last Saturday, feeling that the people of Lincoln county fully realize the advantage of having the capital at Mitchell.

Walt Corson: Canton has almost grown out of my early day recollection. Everything seems new—only a few of the old landmarks are left, but the old timers are still on earth and seem to be happy and prosperous.

Capt. Berg has received the official report of the inspecting officer as given the War Department. Out of twelve companies inspected, Co. "E." stands at the head of the list, and a record any company could be proud of.

At the Presbyterian Church next Sabbath. Morning service 11 A. M. Text: Proverbs 24: 30, 31, Theme, "The Neglected Garden." Evening 8 P. M. Text: Luke 22: 45—"He found them sleeping for sorrow." Theme, "Sorrow in a Garden." Sabbath School at 12 M.

—If you want the most delicious ice cream soda go to Noid's drug store.

Mrs. Frank Beck and Mrs. Ell Bohren returned last week from their visit to Shannon, Illinois, and now Mr. Beck smiles more serenely as he drives to town, and we guess Ell feels just as good. Man is a poor miserable mortal when the head of the house is absent.

E. S. Beck came down from his Dayton farm last Saturday to shake hands with the boys and admire the handsome ladies. E. S. says it's a joy and a delight to live on a farm and hear the birds sing in the morning and be far away from the crowded marts of commerce.

Mrs. P. J. Lukken and little daughter Alma, left for Madison, Wisconsin, last Saturday for a visit at the old home. When it came to parting with Papa at the train, little Alma began to realize she was going away from home, and the sweet childish eyes began to well up. Mrs. Lukken will be absent several weeks, but Peter stood the parting bravely.

Dr. C. L. Loffler and wife and two lady friends came down from Sioux Falls Tuesday and dashed past the LEADER office in their auto like winged gods of victory. The Doctor came down to see his ball pounders wipe the earth with Canton's aggregation. The Doctor returned home a very sad youth. The ball game resulted in a score of 31 to 0 in favor of Canton. The Doctor took his medicine with a wry face.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Puckett left for Ann Arbor, Michigan, last Saturday on a pleasure trip. Mr. Puckett is a graduate of the Ann Arbor College and went down to meet with the Alumni and enjoy a reunion with his old classmates. From Ann Arbor Mr. and Mrs. Puckett went to New York and will visit the chief points of interest around the great city. It is a delightful midsummer trip.

Jim Monkhous of Pierre, an early pioneer in Yankton and one of the veteran firemen of the state, came down with the Pierre boomers, wearing a smile like a new married man and a leather badge like a four times winner cowboy. Jim is one of the whitest youths in the state and a stand-patter always. He brought a smile into this office that would have made Gene Cutting envious. Jim's all right and the Pierre firemen are stayers in fun frolic or a foot race.

The great Lutheran conference held at Albert Lea, concluded its labors last week, and the Canton delegates and laymen got home on Friday. John J. Chraft and John Isakson were the delegates to the conference, while other prominent local Lutherans were there to help in the work needed for the Canton district. Gudmund Skarvted, Prof. Tuve, Rev. Tellie, Prof. Nordgaard, Th. Gunderson and Prof. Quale were among the active workers in the conference. Delegates Isakson and Chraft were assigned important committee work, and Mr. Skarvted was appointed as a trustee of St. Olaf College at Northfield and a member of the board of trustees of the United Church. This body authorized a loan of $7,000 to Augustana and provided $600 a year for incidental expenses. Messrs. Chraft and Isakson and the other gentlemen returned home proud of the work accomplished and they are confident that the next grand annual convention of the United Church will be held in Canton, and it would have no so declared at Albert Lea if the convention could have voted upon the proposition then. The committee in charge of selecting the next convention city are friends of Canton.

Rural school commencement
Thursday evening, June 23. Magnificent Program.

—All kinds of base ball goods at Noid's.
A fireman out for fun with a megaphone can almost crack an ear drum.

The Watertown firemen won second money in two events Wednesday, and they didn't expect anything.

Miss Lajla Skarvted arrived home from Minneapolis Tuesday evening, for a rest from her musical studies.

W. E. Cloud received a letter Wednesday from Mrs. Cloud who is at St. Louis. She reports everything grandly magnificent, and the various exhibits just completed. The great fair is now at its best.

Dr. Holmgren returned from St. Paul Wednesday, where he met several of the distinguished European editors from the world's fair. He entertained them at the lakes. A Stockholm editor was in the party.

The second District Sunday School convention was held in the brick church last Sunday, and the program as published last week carried out. The discussions were of special interest because of the able manner in which they were presented.

A number of the Lesterville fire boys made the LEADER a visit. This is the last company organized and they are all good boys, and they won a prize. They report our old friend Louis Mitchell running a hotel at Lesterville and dispensing justice like a Grecian law giver.

Uncle Sam is getting mad. He feels outraged and insulted and is going to stop fooling with the Moorish bandit kidnapper Raisuli. The following bulletin was read in the republican National Convention Wednesday afternoon and produced tremendous applause: Secretary Hay has wired Consul Montgomerie at Tangiers: "We want Perdicaris alive or Raisuli dead."

Robert Hannah brought a couple of fine Irish potatoes to this office Thursday morning. "I planted the seed April 24, and here is the product June 23. Nothing so good in the county and nothing better for 60 days." Roger Donahue was present and gave his unqualified approval of Mr. Hannah's claim, and Roger remarked: "I am something of a potato connoisseur myself, and love the Irishman's fruit better than a peach."

The Mitchell firemen are a handsome lot of boys, with splendid uniforms, and they made many a fair heart thrill as they marched in the parade Wednesday forenoon. They are first class Mitchell boomers too. They gave away hundreds of Mitchell buttons, and had over five hundred elegant silk badges printed at this office, so great was the demand among the firemen for Mitchell souvenirs. It was the opinion of many that they had the handsomest uniforms in the parade. They got the prize for the best appearance.

This office enjoyed a brief visit Wednesday from Miss Alice Cary Wilson of Des Moines, the lady who has charge of the primary work, music and drawing in the institute. She has recently returned from the Black Hills where she had charge of similar work. She speaks enthusiastically of the Black Hills county and of its grand and beautiful scenery. She said the teachers of Lincoln county a high compliment for their energy, industry and intelligence and determination to excel in their work. Miss Wilson is a lady who has given years of study to her chosen profession and stands very high in educational work in Iowa. She has a charming presence and is brilliant in conversation.

—Into each life some ruins must fall. Wise people don't sit down and bawl! Only fools suicide or take to flight. Smart people take Rocky Mountain Tea at night. I. M. Helmsy & Co.

Dr. Mease of Beresford and Mr. Kingsbury of Parker ran a foot race on the fair ground Wednesday evening 150 yards for $100. Kingsbury won in 15 seconds. Kingsbury is a flyer.

Joe Clopper, the genial and gentlemanly manager of the South Dakota Grain Company business at Canton, has it in for the hobos. He opened up a car the other day at the elevator which he was going to load and he uncovered a couple of lazy, dirty devils who would almost starve rather than work. Joe bounced them from the car in a hurry and they lay around all the forenoon watching Joe do business and he was rushing things. Joe left his gold watch in his vest in the elevator lock when he began rushing things, but the moseley hobos had no chance to look in there until the car was loaded and Joe had to go away for a few minutes. When he returned the hobos were gone and so was his watch. Joe is mad yet. How he would like to catch the fellow with his watch.

Democratic County Convention.
The democratic county convention was held at Lennox Tuesday. G. A. Craig of Fairview was chairman, and C. C. Kuper of Lennox secretary. The state convention will be held at Aberdeen, July 10, and the following delegates were elected: J. A. Warner, A. J. Waterbury, Dr. A. H. Rogers, Ben Averill, Jerry Reamer, L. S. Tyler, G. A. Craig, John Miner, F. C. Kuper, J. V. Conklin, Thomas Burke, W. H. Wumpkes, J. A. Miller, C. C. Kuper, Mike Crowley, Lodi Waldo, Frank Clark, A. A. Freeseum, Volin Serbert, Will Volkin and O. M. Iverson. Tom Burke, the Stephen A. Douglas of Lincoln county democracy, stated that he and the entire delegation favored the nomination of Ex-Governor Lee for the democratic standard bearer and hopes to secure his nomination.

The Advent Camp Meeting.
The annual camp meeting of the Seventh Day Adventists closed last Sunday evening, after the most successful convention ever held in the state. The weather throughout was perfect, and camping out was a delight. One hundred and sixteen tents was the total of the camp. Everything was arranged for comfort, and the big Assembly dining hall afforded every convenience in that line. Our Adventist friends proved their abiding faith in the doctrine they teach, by an earnest and sincere devotion to the work on hand. Many able preachers were present and the sermons preached were of a character that stamp the speakers as men of intellectual power. It was the unanimous opinion and freely expressed that Dobson Park and its charming surroundings was by far the best place they had ever held a meeting. Most of the campers left for their homes Monday.

Beloit.

June 15 1904.
Col. Nighbert disappointed the young people of his neighborhood by not giving a blow-out in his new barn, but John Webb has promised to give a blow-out in his new barn, and when John says he will do a thing the young folks know he will not disappoint them, and Col. Nighbert isn't so very old.

Jean Renner spent last week with Lucy Poole.
Frank McQuiston attended the picnic at Doon last Friday and reports a pleasant time.

Nellie Hall tried a new fad in cultivating corn on side hills with the cultivator up side down but she says she prefers to walk next time she goes down hill.
Tillie Bauman, Reta and Mabel Darrow visited with Annie Renner last week.

Dan Sullivan and wife were at Beloit Friday evening fishing and as their horse got loose and went home, they had the pleasure of walking home and carrying their fish. Dan says he will leave the fish in the river next time he has to walk home.

A couple of young men thought they saw an automobile coming down the road the other day and went to see if it was President Roosevelt or George Henderson, but found that it was only Mrs. Renner in her new carriage out for a spin to exercise her driving horse.
A merry crowd went to the river a fishing last Saturday evening and caught so many they couldn't carry 'em.

—Dr. Noid has just secured a large consignment of Avenarius Carbolinum, a preparation that will preserve wood in the ground for many years.
