OBITUARY.

AT A MEETING OF THE BAR OF THE CITY OF New York, held in the United States Court Room, to express their sense of the loss which the profession has sustained in the death of Francis Griffin, on motion of Mr. J. P. Hall, the chair was taken by his Honor Judge Roosevelt, and Mr. D. D. Sillman was appointed Secretary. A committee, consisting of Mr. J. P. Hall, Mr. Wm. Kent, Mr. F. B. Cutting, Mr. J. W. Gerard, and Mr. J. Van Buren, appointed to prepare resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting, submitted the following, which were unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, That we have received, with deep regret, intelligence at once unexpected and afflictive, of the death of Francis Griffin, Esq., a member of our profession, of honorable standing, unsullied integrity, and distinguished attainments. Endeared to us by his manly deportment, his generous nature, and kindly sympathies, we deplore his loss, and feel that a void has been created in our ranks which time cannot fill.

Resolved, That while we partake of the sorrow which fills the heart of his venerable, learned, and distinguished father, we extend to his family, in all its branches, the sympathy of our own affliction in their bereavement and irreparable loss.

Resolved, That, as a mark of respect to the memory of our deceased brother, the Bar will attend his funeral to-morrow, and will wear crape on the left arm for thirty days.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published, and that the officers of the meeting furnish a copy to the father, and to the family of the deceased.
JAMES J. ROOSEVELT, Chairman.
BENJ. D. SILLIMAN, Secretary.

ANOTHER MIRACULOUS CURE—AN ARM SAVED from amputation. A most desperate case of disease of the arm, of 7½ years' standing, which had baffled all the skill of the surgical doctors, and yielded only to the medicines made use of by Dr. G. W. ROBACK, No. 5 White street. "I has been afflicted so long that I had verily given up in despair. My arm got entirely stiff, and I was not able to hold a pen in my hand, having had four pieces of bone to come from my arm. Such was my condition on the 24 of April last, when I was persuaded by an old lady to call on you, who had suffered to sights a person in her neighborhood, who had been afflicted for five years. Through her advice I called on you, and I can say that four months has made a sound cure of me, and I am as well now as ever I was in my life, and am now able to use my arm in any direction, and can use a pen to write with nearly as well as ever I did in my life. I enjoy good health at this time, and have every reason to thank you for your services, and I shall recommend others who are afflicted to go to you. For more information call on me at my residence, No. 80 Swanson st., below Almond and Front, Southwark. "Signed, JOSEPH SAYMORE."
All letters to C. W. ROBACK, No. 5 White st., will be religiously attended to, if prepaid. For more particulars call and get an Astrological Almanac, gratis, where certificates can be seen.

MUSICAL.

SIGNORA ELIZA VALENTINI, PROFESSOR IN singing, informs the musical ladies that she applications must be made by letter at Hotel Feloria, 97 Whitehall street, which she will promptly attend to. The are of singing, like the art of painting, is an imitative art. She having been seven years prima donna in Italy, and having yet all her vocal powers, is one of the very few professionals in this country who can teach by examples and by imitation. She plays the piano and accompaniment masterly. She speaks perfectly and teaches in four languages—Italian, French, English and Spanish.

LEOPOLD MEYER, TEACHER OF THE VIOLIN.—Hours of instruction from 9 o'clock A. M. until 2 o'clock P. M. Residence, 37 Howard street.

THOROUGH BASS TAUGHT IN CLASSES, IN THREE months, for twenty dollars. Herr Charles Weis, Pianist and Professor of Music, begs to inform the musical public of New York, that he is going to open Ladies' and Gentlemen's Classes in Thorough Bass, from the 15th January, 1852. A thorough study under the direction of the celebrated theoretician Tomaschek, in Prague, as well as many years practice in Composition, and the study of the great European Composers, enable him to give the best instruction in the above branch. The taste for music in this city, rapidly improving, makes such an institution desirable, and the subscriber flatters himself to be able to awake some slumbering talent or genius for music and composition.—Regulations—1. Four pupils will form a class; 2. Two hours will be devoted to each lesson; 3. The whole science will be taught in twenty-four lessons. Terms, twenty dollars cash, payable in advance. Applications to be made at 546 Houston street, near Broadway, every day from 4 to 6 o'clock, P. M., until the 15th of January. CHARLES WEIS,
546 Houston street.
