IMPORTANT—THE MERCANTILE MUTUAL LOAN and Accumulating Fund Association will hold a meeting on Saturday, 14th inst., at 7½ P. M., in the Lecture Room, Clinton Hall, corner Nassau and Beekman streets. The objects of the association will be entered into and explained at the meeting. The public generally are requested to attend. WM. O. GREENE, Secy, 16 Wall street.

MANY OF THE BEST CITIZENS OF THE CITY have enrolled themselves the members of the Knickerbocker Building Association, which, in a few weeks, has sold almost the whole number of its shares. So successful has been this Association, that several shares were redeemed at a premium of four hundred dollars at the last meeting. The few remaining shares unsold will, probably, all be taken on or before the next public meeting, which will be held on Monday evening, February 16, at 7½ o'clock, at Odd Fellow's Assembly Rooms, corner of Twenty fifth street and Sixth avenue. We respectfully invite both ladies and gentlemen to attend. The practical operation and perfect safety of the system will be fully explained.

WILLOUGHBY R. BEEBE, President.
JAMES H. DELL, VanCORT, V. Pres.
E. T. MARTIN, Secretary. Office, 108 South avenue.

ONLY SIXTY-ONE SHARES REMAINING.—THE books of subscription to the second Manhattan Building Association will positively close after the next meeting. The entrance fee is but four dollars, and, as there are only sixty-one shares unsubscribed for, there is no question but that the association will be filled up at that time. All who join now will share in the large profits already realized, and is advisable for those deciding to become members to do so at once. The monthly meeting will be held at the Mercer House, corner of Mercer and Broome streets, on Monday evening, at half-past 7 o'clock. Persons for the first time can come to the office, as all who wish to avoid the trouble and confusion at the meeting, will find it more convenient to call in the forenoon. Only a few days longer, and it will be useless to apply. Shares payable by prompt payments. J. N. GRAHAM, President.
J. W. WESTON, Secretary, office 15 Spruce street.
The Secretary's office will be open on Saturday, from 9 o'clock A. M. to 9 o'clock P. M., for the convenience of the members.

BUILDING ASSOCIATIONS' FIRE INSURANCE COMpany—Capital, $50,000, divided into 10,000 shares, of $50 each, 20 per cent cash paid up, 70 per cent in notes to remain in the hands of the company.
