Paris Mantilla Emporium, No. 361 Broadway New York.—The proprietor of this establishment, satisfied himself exclusively to the importation of Paris Mantillas, embracing every new design that Parisian ingenuity and skill can invent, and from his long experience and practical knowledge of his business, he feels justified in asserting that there is a unique taste and a piquancy so strikingly manifest in the Mantillas, as to place them beyond the reach of competition. The great patronage which he has hitherto received, and his inability, in many instances, to meet the requirements of his numerous customers, render it indispensable that an enlargement of his store should be effected, with as little delay as possible. He has accordingly made arrangements to have it enlarged at least 120 feet in length more. He is now preparing to take his departure for Europe in order to make ample preparations for the fall trade. He will therefore dispose of his present varied and splendid stock of Mantillas, Crape and other shawls, at such moderate prices as must inevitably meet the approbation of the ladies of this great metropolis. GEO. BULPIN, 361 Broadway.

A new Era in the Millinery Trade.—Ladies anxious to avoid the extravagant charges of private milliners, should patronize the Ladies' Parisian Hat Depot, 361 Broadway, they will there find a beautiful selection of Paris Hats, elegantly trimmed, at one half the price charged by private milliners. N. B.—Styles and elegance of taste unsurpassed in the city of New York. WM. AITKINS, The Ladies Parisian Hat Depot, 361 Broadway.

Extra Fine Danstable and Single Straw Hats, of the very finest texture Mr. YOUNG 97 Bowery, has just received the handsomest assortment of the above named hats that has been offered this season. They are as fine as any that are usually exhibited in the fair of the American institute, and about the same that he has got so many encomiums for. He is also selling his Lace Hats at reduced rates. Ladies, call and see for yourselves.

Beware of Arsenic.—The poisonous mine-ral preparations for the destruction of insects don't destroy the bedbugs and roaches, and are perilous to human life. Per contra—Lyon's Magnetic Powder which is entirely vegetable, and certified on the wrapper by Professors Reid and Chilton, to be entirely harmless, does destroy the insects and won't hurt a baby, or even a kitten. The price has been reduced to 25 cents the canister retail, with a corresponding reduction according to the quantity taken. The Magnetic Pills are equally certain for exterminating rats. Call on LYON 424 Broadway.
