FIRE.—Yesterday afternoon a small stable, at the foot of Harrison street, owned by Charles H. Bass, was consumed by fire, together with its contents. Loss, about $200. It was evidently the work of an incendiary.

MARRIAGE IN HIGH LIFE AT SARATOGA SPRINGS.—St. Peter's church presented a magnificent appearance this morning, to witness the marriage ceremony of Mansfield T. Walworth and Miss Ellen Hardin. The bride is a beautiful and accomplished lady and was the daughter of the brave and gallant Col. Hardin, who fell in Mexico. The fashion and beauty of Saratoga was present to witness the impressive scene. A grand party is given this evening, at the house of Chancellor Walworth, in honor of the event.—Saratoga Republican, 29th ult.

Kelsie's Garden, Staten Island, quarter of a mile from the Stapleton Landing.—This gentleman is not only remarkable for making ingenuer of a superior quality, for public sale, or private use, but the excellent dinners uniformly served up, for his patrons and the public at his establishment, should be generally known, to be justly appreciated; and more particularly on account of his moderate charges and admirable attention. No lady or gentleman, going to Staten Island, can spend a day half so happily as at our friend KELSIE'S, whom we have long and favorably known. Call and see him once, and you will be irresistibly induced to repeat your visit.

Copy the address.

Cristadoro's Hair Preservative and Beautifier is rapidly superseding everything put forth in this market in the shape of Hair Tonics, Invigorators, Fluids, Tricotherons and all the rest of them put together. And why? Simply because its intrinsic properties are such that a few applications of it will not only stop the hair from coming out, but actually will force it to grow anew. Only give it a trial, and be convinced of the fact. Manufactured and sold at CRISTADORO'S, No. 6 Astor House.

Even the keen eye of woman cannot detect that hair or whiskers colored by Cristadoro's famous Liquid Hair Dye, have received an artificial tint. It softens and beautifies the hair as well as renders it of a rich nut brown or a superb black. Applied and sold by CRISTADORO, No. 6 Astor House. Private rooms for applying the Dye.

MONEY MARKET.

SATURDAY, July 31—6 P. M.

Quotations for stocks to-day were well sustained. There was an active demand for most of the railroad stocks, and transactions were large in Erie and Reading, at an advance. Erie Railroad went up ¼ per cent; Reading Railroad, 1¼; Florence and Keyport, ¼; Harlem ¼. All others closed at prices current yesterday. At the second board Nicaragua advanced ¼ per cent; Stonington, ¾; Hudson River Railroad, ¼; Montgomery Mining declined ¼ per cent.

The receipts at the office of the Assistant Treasurer of this port to-day amounted to $160,711 28. Payments, $15,317 52. Balance, $4,388 877 46.

The shipments of specie from this port, for the week ending July 31, inclusive, are as annexed:—

SHIPMENTS OF SPECIE FROM THE PORT OF NEW YORK.
