Mrs. Jervis' Cold Candy—Time-tested, and recommended by the first men of the country for coughs, colds, hoarseness, sore throat, and other pulmonary complaints. Clay, Taylor, Benton, Van Buren, and other distinguished men have recommended this really good article, sold by Mrs. W. JERVIS, 366 Broadway; Zieber, Third street, below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and druggists generally.

The Black or Brown Imparted to the Hair by Cristadoro's Liquid Hair Dye is nature's own. The honest eye cannot distinguish it from the hue bestowed by the Creator. The operation is over in five minutes. Sold and applied at CRISTADORO'S, No. 6 Astor House; also to be had of the principal druggists in the city.

To Make Whiskers, Mustachios, or Hair grow, reader, just try a two shilling bottle of Jones' Coral Hair Restorative. It dresses the hair delicously, stops its falling, and makes it grow dark and fine; it is so cheap now, too. Depot for JONES' Lily White for ladies, (one shilling a box now,) 4 3 Broadway N. Y.; 179 Fulton street, Brooklyn; and by Zeiber, Philadelphia.

False and Wicked Reports having deterred ladies and others from using the most valuable discovery ever made for curing disease, and giving health and strength, can have their own syrups magnetized without being taken from their sight, and made as miraculously powerful as the Nervous Antidote, for immediate use; but only gum or sugar, that can be dissolved by heat, will retain the fluid fit for transportation; it then gets stronger by time, like the Nervous Antidote. TALBOT WATTS, Magnetic Nervist, 424 Greenwich street.

SAFES.

DEFIANCE SALAMANDER SAFES.—C. J. GAYLER'S patent. ROBERT M. PATRICK, 90 John street, is the sole manufacturer, in the United States, of the above original and only reliable Salamanders, both as regards security against fire and burglars. Every safe sold at this establishment is manufactured under the personal superintendence of Mr. C. J. Gayler, whose experience of twenty-six years as a safe maker, together with the many severe tests which safes of his manufacture have triumphantly withstood, in this and other cities, warrant the subscriber in recommending them as superior to any in use. They are the only safes to which Mr. F. C. Goffin's new patent impenetrable defiance lock is or can be applied. A large number of these locks are already in use by banks, brokers, merchants, jewellers, and others; and from the perfect security which they afford against the efforts of the most skilful burglars, either by gunpowder, false keys, picks, or drills, together with their convenience, simplicity, and durability combined, are rapidly increasing in public estimation, and are confidently offered as equal, if not superior, to any lock in the world. Safes of all sizes, suitable for merchants, bankers, jewellers, record offices, steamboats, &c., fire and thief proof bank vault doors, plate chests for private families, &c., on hand for sale, and made to order, at the depot, 90 John street, corner of gold, by ROBERT M. PATRICK.

BUEHLER'S BALL, AT THE CHINESE ROOMS, 539 Broadway, on Tuesday, January 4th, 1853. Noll's full orchestra, forty-five men, will attend. Tickets, one dollar for a gentleman and two ladies to be had at 22 and 31 North William street, and at the Chinese Rooms on the evening of the ball. N.B.—In consequence of the great number of subscribers to the above ball I am prevented having the supper served at a certain fixed hour, as it was done at my balls last season. For the comfort of the frequenters on this occasion, I thought it to establish a first-rate bill of fare, from which may be selected, during the hours of eleven o'clock in the evening till three o'clock in the morning, anything which will suit their tastes, and I promise the dessert dishes to serve up hot and well prepared. I hope that this new arrangement will meet a general approval among my friends and the public in general. BUEHLER.
