Printing for Removals.—At Callahan's Job Printing office, No. 113 Nassau street, Times Building, you can get every description of superior work, from a card to a book, at the lowest price for cash. Work done promptly and at the time promised. Call and see. Office on the second floor.

2,080 Building Lots and 80 Farms, Worth over $13,000, to be distributed among 600 subscribers on the 20th of April, 1853. Each subscriber, for $15, will receive a warrantee deed for four lots, 25 by 100 feet, or a farm, from two to twenty acres. The village of Rose Vale, where these lots are located, is only a short distance south of the celebrated Lake Ronkonkoma, the beauty and romantic appearance of which are praised by all who visit it. Here may already be seen the best evidence that can be desired that Rose Vale, Lakeland, and Hermanville will shortly become choice places on Long Island; long known as the most healthy part of America. No fever or ague ever prevails. A mild and invigorating climate, and a gentle breeze from the Atlantic is almost constantly wafted over this delightful spot. For a share, apply immediately to CHARLES WOOD, No. 208 Broadway.

Fine Arts.—Daguerreotypes in Oil by Wm. H. BUTLER, No. 251 Broadway, upper corner of Murray street. This new art combines the detail of the daguerreotype with the finish of the finest miniature painting. Daguerreotypes of deceased persons copied to nature. Only one sitting required.

Twenty-five Cent Daguerreotypes.—Carden & Co., 293 Broadway, are making better pictures and more of them than any other establishment in the city. They have this day opened a new and magnificent skylight, in addition to their former one, and can now take 400 daily. Don't mistake the name and number. CARDEN & CO., 293 Broadway.

Two Shilling Daguerreotypes.—For effect it may do very well for the incompetent hucksters in the Bowery and elsewhere to cry out humbug against REES & CO.'S superior pictures, when it is universally known that the five dollar rooms cannot make better pictures than Rees & Co. do daily for 25 cents, at 289 Broadway.

There is no clap-trap about the Hats of KNOX, 128 Fulton street—no superficial show at the expense of solid merit. His spring hats, which are so universally popular, are a cheap, elegant and graceful article, well made, and of excellent materials. One of the prettiest hats that can adorn the human head can be obtained of Knox for the small sum of $4. Who will not wear a splendid Knox hat at that price?

Gentlemen's Hats, Elegant, Fashionable, durable and cheap.—A single view of the hats manufactured by KNOX & JAMES cannot fail to impress you with an entire belief in the opinion that they are destined to excel in their business, for their productions are characterized by taste and elegance in the manufacture, and are made of the finest and best of materials. Patronize them at the "Prescott" hat store, corner of Broadway and Spring street, near Heller's Saloon of Wonders.

Hats Always as they Should be.—To consolidate a reputation among residents, as well as transient visiters, is a motive which has ever governed us in combining a distinctive fashionable style with excellence of materials. WARNOCKS, hatters, 275 Broadway, Irving House.

Spring Races.—In Competition among the hatters for supremacy this season, MEALIO, as usual, leads the van. His spring style of hats is beautiful, exceedingly—the pride of the market. Mealio's establishment is No. 416 Broadway, corner of Canal street.

Gentlemen's Hats, Spring Styles, Children's fancy hats, caps, &c., of the most approved styles, are now ready and for sale by RAFFERTY & LEASK, 57 Chatham street, corner of Chatham and Pearl.

Facts'—High Rents in Broadway beget high prices, whilst moderate prices ensure moderate charges. W. BANTA, 106 Canal street, corner of Wooster, offers a splendid hat for $3. His stock of hats and caps for children is unsurpassed, in felt, straw and fur, for misses, boys and infants; children's straw blonde lace caps, of new and beautiful patterns. Call and inspect.
