The Gossamer Hat.—The remarkable delicacy and still more remarkable durability of the hats manufactured by Messrs. KNOX & JAMES, must commend them to the patronage of all who possess sufficient appreciation to judge of the merits of the article presented for their approval by the various manufacturers throughout the city. In fact, they combine lightness, elegance of appearance, delicacy, and attractiveness of outline and economy of price, the average being fixed at $4. Citizens and strangers should visit the salesroom, on the corner of Broadway and Spring street, in the new hotel of Captain Degroot.

Then You'll Believe It.—Wear one of the elegant moleskins hats sold by the "People's Hatters," the practical mechanics, and you will be convinced that they are the cheapest and best sold in the city. The most elegant drab beaver hat ever offered to the public can now be seen at their salesroom No 11 Park row, opposite the Astor House. Prices $4 and $3.

Are You in Haste to Leave Town?—Do you want as handsome a set of shirts as can be made on the instant? If so, call on GREEN, No. 1 Astor House; you will be measured with mathematical precision in five minutes, and you will have the articles in time, and equal to your expectations in style and workmanship.

The Tailleur, George P. Fox, 333 Broadway, second floor, is a general favorite in every cloth importing house. He invariably pays cash for his goods, never buying on time or credit. FOX pays his coat, vest, and pantaloons hands every Friday. Plenty of work and prompt payment causes him to be surrounded by the best mechanics and the finest produced goods of all nations.

Rich Embroidered Mantillas, of the newest and most elaborate designs, have just been opened by MOLYNEUX BELL, of the New York Mantilla and Cloak Emporium, 58 Canal street.

Mantillas.—Fresh Importation of Mantillas.— FRANK BENNETT & CO., 351 Broadway, have just received the most complete and elegant assortment of fashionable ladies' Paris mantillas ever offered in this market. Ladies are most respectfully invited to call early, that they may not lose the advantage of selecting while the most elegant garments are on hand.

To Ladies' Cloak and Mantilla Manufacturers.—The distinguishing feature of the next season's trade will the perfection (unapproached hitherto) of the stitching on cloaks and mantillas. The Parisian manufacture will be coarse and rude compared with the American cloaks and mantillas made by SINGER'S sewing machines. These machines are at all times exhibited freely, and for sale at the office, 323 Broadway.

New Paper Hangings.—Thomas Faye & Co., 436 Pearl street, near Madison, have just received the new spring patterns of every known style in the trade. The public are invited to examine before purchasing. Artistic workmen attend to the retail department. THOS. FAYE & CO., 436 Pearl street.

Straw Bonnets.—Straw Bonnets at Frank Bennett & Co.'s, 351 Broadway. Frank Bennet & Co. have the pleasure of announcing to the ladies of New York, that they are now fully prepared to meet the demand for their straw goods, which has, for the last month, been so exceedingly pressing—in consequence of the reception of an extensive supply from London and Paris. From their present immense and varied assortment, no lady will fail to suit herself as to kind, quality, and price. Our shapes for this season, we might add, are exceedingly becoming, and our prices much reduced.

Something Good out of Broadway.—Persons wishing a first class daguerreotype, at a reasonable price, can always depend on a very fine picture, by visiting BOGARDUS' Daguerreotype establishment, 229 Greenwich street, southeast corner of Barclay.

Strangers should not Leave the City Without procuring a porous glass filter. It purifies water from animalculæ, vegetable matter, &c., living or decayed, readily and effectually. It is extensively used in this city, and is highly recommended. Sold at 316 Broadway, for $1 50.

David Rait, Importer of Diamonds, offers for sale diamends in packages, as imported, or in lots therefrom to suit purchasers. Rich diamond crosses, clusters, stars, rings, half hoops, hoops, single stone, &c., &c., at the lowest trade prices for cash or approved paper. Watches of every description and at prices to suit all. Richelieu gold pens sold only by J. Y. SAVAGE, 92 Fulton street.

$13,000 worth of Farms and Building Lots, to be distributed among 600 subscribers, on the 31st of May. Each subscriber, for only $15, will receive a warranty deed for four building lots, 25 by 100 feet, in the beautiful and healthy village of Rose Vale, or a farm of from two to twenty acres. Subscribers are taking up the shares fast, and the number will soon be obtained. Now is the time to secure a country residence near the city, where hundreds of citizens are locating, and great improvements have been and are now being made. Many of the lots near these have been sold for from 200 to 500 per cent advance over the price for which these lots are now sold, showing that the purchase will be a good investment. Apply to CHARLES WOOD, 208 Broadway, corner of Fulton street, New York, who will receive remittances and forward receipts therefor by return of mail. He will also gratuitously furnish maps and pamphlets of the property, and cheerfully give such other information as may be desired.

Horace Waters, 333 Broadway, most cordially invites the attention of clergymen and others visiting New York, to the celebrated molian pianofortes of T. Gilbert & Co., which are peculiarly adapted to the voice and the more beautiful element—sacred music. Also, Smith's superior melodeons, for parlors and churches, which for evenness of temperament and correct intonation, are acknowledged superior to any now manufactured. A very liberal discount made to the clergy. Music, and sacred music books of all descriptions.

Awnings! Awnings!!—C. McDougall & BROTHER, No. 474 Hudson street, manufacturers of plain and fancy awnings, also the Venetian ventilating window awnings for the windows and doors of dwellings, offices, &c. N. B.—Made to order, and forwarded to any part of the United States. C. McDOUGALL, P. D. McDOUGALL.

Law—April Term, Superior Court.—The case respecting the superiority of the New York clothing manufacturers, has been decided by a general verdict in favor of H. L. FOSTER, clothier, 27 Cortlandt street, New York, whose suits or single garments are decidedly the best in the city. Call and see his new spring styles.

Second Sight.—The marvellous powers possessed by HELLER, the Necromancer, have attracted much attention lately. A few evenings since, at one of his exhibitions, a gentlemen produced a card from his pocket, and, concealing it in his hand, asked what it was. Heller replied, "A printed card." The gentleman then asked what was printed upon the card, when the Necromancer instantly answered, "T. SMITH, Jr., Clothing Establishment, No. 102 Fulton street, New York," which was correct.

Alden's Concentrated Milk.—This is the Best preparation ever discovered for the use of travellers at sea or on shore. It is warranted to be perfectly pure, to keep in all climates, and during the longest voyages, requiring only to be dissolved in water, hot or cold, to be made ready for use. For sale by the principal grocers and dealers in ship-stores throughout the city. JAMES HERON, general agent, 52 Front street, up stairs.
