FINANCE DEPARTMENT, COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, city of New York, July 28, 1853.—Sealed proposals will be received at this department until forty o'clock, P. M., on Tuesday, August 9, 1853, for publishing in a newspaper of good circulation, twice a week for seven weeks, the redemption notice of the sale of April, 1852, of lands, &c., for the non-payment of the taxes of 1849. Also, the redemption notice of the sale of June, 1852, for the non payment of the taxes of the Croton water rents of the year commencing May 1, 1850, and ending April 30, 1851. Also, the redemption notice of the sale of June, 1852, for the non payment of the taxes of the year 1850. The notices to be inserted in the body of the paper, and not in a supplement; and the publishers to furnish 1,000 copies of the redemption notice of each sale, in pamphlet form, to be folded, stitched and delivered to this department. The notices to be published twice a week in twelve daily papers, published in the city of New York, for seven weeks, stating where the detailed notices are published and can be procured, and to furnish affidavits of all such publications. The proposals will state the price per line of the advertisements first above referred to, each line embracing in a table the name of the street, side of street, between what streets or avenues, description of property, to whom taxed, ward, ward number, farm number, street number, tax of what year, amount sold for, term of years sold for, when sold, and when to be redeemed. Each proposition to be enclosed, sealed and directed, "Proposals for publishing redemption notices of sales of lands for the non-payment of taxes and Croton water rents," and these proposals thus sealed, are to be enclosed in a second envelope, sealed and directed to "A. C. Flagg, Comptroller, city of New York." Each person can put a private seal on his proposition—which may embrace proposals for all of the notices, or for either of them—to secure himself that no seals are broken until the public opening. The Comptroller reserves the privilege of determining as to the circulation of the paper, and the ability of the publisher to do the work in a prompt and proper manner.

A. C. FLAGG, Comptroller.
