A Truism.—If the Cabinet at Washington instead of announcing that Mr. Redfield was appointed collector of the port of New York, had announced that he was after KNOX only would be allowed to make hats for the public, their decision would have been received with much more favor by our citizens. Every New Yorker knows that Knox, of No. 128 Fulton street, makes the best, neatest and most fashionable hats in the country. We recommend the subject to the attention of the members of the Cabinet.

Secure a Hat before your Money is gone of RAFFERTY & LEASK, who continue to sell the best quality of hat for $3 and $4, while a greater price is asked at the other hat establishments; a daguerreotype likeness of each customer neatly inserted in the hat, without extra charge. GROVER, BAKER & CO., 94 Chambers street.

Sewing Machines of a New Invention, original and peculiar construction, and perfect in their action and results, are now ready for exhibition and sale. These new machines are entirely different from every other, and for sewing fine linen and other light goods are incomparably superior to any heretofore in use. Some of the advantages are these:—1st. They sew with a single thread and have no shuttle; 2d. They are much more easily operated than any other; 3d. They make a stronger and more elastic seam; 4th. The work is more regular and beautiful, being perfectly finished on both sides; 5th. The stitches are not obliterated by being washed, but retain their beauty under all circumstances. Call and examine the machines and their work at the office, 323 Broadway.

Defiance Safes Once More!—Gayler's Salamander again Triumphant!—The following is the latest certificate in favor of the fireproof qualities of these often-tried and never-failing safes:—

NEW YORK, Oct 31, 1853.

MR. ROBERT M. PATRICK, 192 Pearl street, N. Y.—Dear Sir:—The Defiance safe I purchased of you, that was in the extensive conflagration of the Union Hall Clothing Warehouse, (Fowler's Building,) corner of Fulton and Nassau streets, has just been recovered from the ruins, having been exposed to the intense heat for thirty-four hours. Upon opening the safe, the contents, consisting of about one thousand dollars in bank bills, also valuable papers to the amount of thirty thousand dollars and upwards, and an extensive set of books, were in perfect order. It is with pleasure I add my testimony to the merits of the safes of your manufacture, and to the defiance they bid to the fiery element. The safe can be seen at present at my new place of business, No. 138 Fulton street, one door above the Sun Building. Respectfully, yours, P. L. ROGERS & Co.

Safes of all sizes, suitable for merchants, banks, jewellers, record offices, steamboats, &c.; fire and thief-proof bank vault doors, plate chests for private families, &c., on hand, for sale, and made to order, at the depot 192 Pearl street, one door below Maiden lane, New York.
ROBERT M. PATRICK.

The Great Fire in Fulton street. In the confusion and loss of life attendant upon a large fire we seldom pause to reflect that, when we find unburnt dead bodies lying beside salamander safes that have fallen with them, out of the burning ruins into the coal cellars, that the heat has not been so very great as represented, yet the safes are carried away to the factories to be opened, while the Phœnix safe of Holmes & Butler is the only one opened on the spot, and there remains a visible witness of its indestructible prowess. This safe stood twenty four hours exposed to the flames, surrounded by boxwood cuts, until the solid brass name plates were melted off, although not a paper within was injured by fire, as Messrs. Bunnell & Price, in whose bookstore it stood, have stated in their letter. This safe, as well as the Phœnix at the great Pearl Street House fire, was exposed until the buildings were entirely consumed.
HOLMES & BUTLER, 122 Water street.

Why Don't You Try Spaulding's Premium Rosemary? The best article in the world for adorning and restoring your hair. Sold by Rushton, Clark & Co., Astor and Irving House drug stores; Ring, 192 Broadway; and J. R. Spaulding, manufacturer and proprietor, 23 Tremont row, Boston.

The Autumn Leaves are Falling.—The Foliage of the human head may be restored, even in the winter of life, by the use of Barker's chevaux-antonique. Price 25 cents. Sold everywhere. Principal depot, BARKER'S ladies' hair-dressing establishment, 439 Broadway.

The Period of Colds.—There was never a season when colds, coughs and sore throats were more prevailing than this. Those who are so afflicted, whether old or young, need not be sick long. Two or three doses of Brandreth's pills will cure; no method is so sure as that which purifies the blood. Every day people come in and say, "I tried cough drops and cold candy; I tried sweats and hot baths; but I still grew worse; the pain in my chest and my cough became more severe. At last I sent for a box of pills. I have taken two doses and now look at me! I am well and look well. Two days with Brandreth's pills did more than two weeks with other remedies." This is the constant report, and the cry is "A box of Brandreth's pills." They are sold at 25 cents per box, with directions, at 68 Liepenard street, 274 Bowery, and 241 Hudson street. Dr. BRANDRETH'S office is 68 and 68 Liepenard street, until the 1st of May, when it will be removed to 417 Broadway, corner of Canal street.

Dr. Kellinger can be Seen to-day and to-morrow, at 31 Crosby street, at 11 o'clock, A. M., and in Wall street at half past one o'clock, P. M., with a part of his fine stock of carriage and saddle horses—all kind, young and sound, without blemish. If not sold within a few days for cash they will be exchanged for paintings The ball must and shall be kept rolling.

Rheumatism.—When we see or hear of any one who is afflicted with this disease, we think how easily they might be cured by using this invaluable sure remedy, Mortimore's rheumatic compound, sold by W. V. ALEXANDER & Co., No. 1 Barclay street.

Hohensack's Worm Syrup and Liver Pills have never been known to fail in any case, and none need suffer who will use these remedies. Read the following, from the editor of the N. C. Whig:—

EDENTON, Feb. 24, 1853.

Dr. J. N. Hohensack—I take this opportunity to inform you that I have recently tried your worm syrup, and find it to be what it is represented. My little son, about three years of age, having previously exhibited symptoms of worms, I purchased a bottle and gave him three doses, following the directions, which produced, on the third day, thirty odd worms. I consider it an invaluable medicine, and would not be without it for five times the cost of a bottle.

Very respectfully, MOSES W. WEBB, Editor, &c.

J. N. Hohensack, proprietor, C. V. CLICKENER & CO., No. 81 Barclay street, New York, General Agent for the Eastern States.

UNION COURSE, L. I.—TROTTING AND PACING. On Friday, Nov. 11, at half-past two o'clock, P. M, a match for $6,000.—Play or pay.—Ten miles out, to harness.—H. Woodruff names s. g. Prince, (trotter); Geo. Spicer names g. g. Hero, (pacer). In the previous contest between these celebrated horses, Prince showed tremendous speed and bottom, and in the hands of Hiram will prove himself a match for any trotter in the world; Hero having passed into the hands of Mr. Spicer only two days previous to the race, was out of work, and in no condition to go such a race, and with a few days training, quite a different result might be looked for; and, his owner still having great confidence in his speed and endurance, has resolved to try him once more. As this may be the last time the public will have a chance of seeing a race of this kind, they should not miss the opportunity. Stages leave the Williamsburg ferries for the Course every half hour during the day.
JOHN I. SNEDIKER, Proprietor.

THE MILITARY.

A REGULAR MEETING OF THE VETERAN CORPS of the War of 1812 will be held this evening, Nov. 4, at the Star Hotel, 64 Liepenard street, at half-past 8 o'clock, on business of importance, with cockade on hat. By order.
H. RAYMOND, Lieut. Colonel.
A. DALLEY, Jr., Adjutant.

AT A SPECIAL MEETING OF THE JOHN WALKER Guard, held on Tuesday evening, the 2d inst., the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, That the thanks of this company be and is hereby tendered to the members of the Warren Light Guard, for their kindness towards us by granting the use of their ensign and axes for our first parade on the 1st inst., and also to the Close Light Guard, for the use of their guide colors, and assure them that this mark of friendship shall for ever be remembered by us.

Resolved, That the thanks of this company be tendered to Mrs. McCoy for presenting us with a beautiful set of guide colors, and assure her that we shall always keep this act of generosity foremost in our recollections.

Resolved, That we return our sincere thanks to our invited guests and judges for honoring us with their presence, and for the fair and impartial manner in which they awarded the prizes.

Resolved, Though last not least, we return our heartfelt thanks to David Pollock, Esq., of Hoboken, for the sumptuous dinner furnished us, and only regret that our appetites would not allow us to partake of the luxuries we left behind us. FREDERICK ANSPAKE, Chairman.
J. BURGAMAN, Secretary.

DUFFY GUARDS—ATTENTION, ATTENTION.—THE members of the above company are requested to attend a meeting to be held at the Battery House, No. 11 State street, on Saturday evening, October 5, to make preparations for their third annual parade, on Thursday, Nov. 17. Those who wish to turn out will be punctual in attendance. By order of WILLIAM WILSON, Captain.
THOMAS CRUDE, Secretary.
