Eighty Coops of Fancy Fowls.—Have you seen the splendid show of Shanghai and other fancy fowls at Exhibition, and to be sold at auction this day, at 11 o'clock? A. H. NICOLAY & CO., at their salesroom, 169 Broadway.

Spring Furniture Sales.—A. H. Nicolay respectfully remind their friends and the public that they are now ready to undertake and give their personal attention to sales of household furniture, at the residences of families or at their spacious salesroom, No. 169 Broadway. We shall continue to be prompt, energetic, and fair in our charges, devoting our best energies to the interest of friends entrusting their business to us. A. H. NICOLAY. EDWARD SINTZENICH, Late chief salesman of H. H. Leeds & Co.

A Card.—Spring Clothing.—Now ready, an extensive assortment of entirely new and well-made clothing adapted to the season, cut and trimmed in the best style, and will be sold at the lowest possible prices. N.B.—All articles guaranteed to be exactly as represented. EDWARD T. HACKETT, Clothing Emporium, 106 Fulton street.

Mourning Millinery and Mantillas.—BARTHOLOMEW & WEED will open, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 20th, 21st and 22d, their spring styles of Paris mourning millinery and mantillas, comprising the most beautiful designs ever exhibited, together with the best assortment of spring and summer goods ever offered to the public. Peter Roberts & Co., 375 Broadway, have just received an extensive assortment of black Guipure and white Maltese laces. The Spring stock of hosiery has just been received.

To Clothing Manufacturers.—Having received the patent for my clothing cutting machines, and being desirous of showing their value as labor savers, and testing practically the amount of work which can be done with them, I am willing to put up and work, at my own expense, for a month, one for any house employing not less than twelve, or two cutters if not less than twenty-four, and remove them at any time should they not be approved of, free of all expense to the house making the trial. The work done with them is far superior to any done with shears, and with less than half the number of hands. They are so simple in their construction and operation that any one, with a reasonable share of common sense, can work them to advantage. The machine, and specimens of the work, can be seen, and all questions answered, by JOHN HARRADAY, 682 Broadway.

Straw Goods.—We have now in Store and are constantly finishing one of the largest stocks of men's, boy's, and children's straw hats, and ladies' and misses bonnets ever offered in this city, comprising every variety and price. We beg also to state that every article offered is really our own manufacture, enabling us to name low prices and giving facilities for the constant issue of new styles. The hatters in the city and country would find it to their advantage to call. Bonnets sold only by the case. A. LELAND & CO., 171 Pearl street.

Window Shades, &c.—The Largest, Best and cheapest stock of window shades, lace and muslin curtains, cornices, &c., is at the principal manufacturers' depot, No. 239½ Broadway, and No. 54 Reade street. If you want to buy the best articles at the lowest price, go there. KELTY & FERGUSON.

Sewing Machines.—Who invented the combination of the needle and shuttle to make the interlocked stitch? We say Walter Hunt, of New York. He is applying for a patent for it, and the Commissioner of Patents will soon decide upon his claims. To the original Morey & Johnson's patent, which we own, there is not and never has been any objection. We only have a right to sell these admirable machines. We have sued Messrs. Grover, Baker & Co. for infringing this patent. I. M. SINGER & CO., 323 Broadway.

$20,300 Lost—Public Indignation vs. Printed, stiff, cramped copy books. You that have been boys and girls know the fine effects. I honestly tell you Mr. BRISTOW, 293 Broadway, is the best writing teacher. He insures you a free and beautiful hand. Call and try him, as I have done.—W. S. Engs.

Cristadoro's Hair Dye.—No Coronet is so glorious as a magnificent head of hair, and of this ornament color is the first essential. If, therefore, nature has reddened or saddened your cranium, or time or sickness whitened it, hide the defect with a brilliant black or brown, imparted by the excelsior dye. No 6 Astor House.
