French Boots, Shoes, and Gaiters received monthly by EUGENE FERRIS, No. 62 Nassau street, third store above Maiden lane, where boots and shoes are made on scientific principles. Farr's Paris boots constantly on hand.

Arts and Artisans.—The World may, ere long, if industrial exhibitions continue, learn to pay that respect to mechanical skill and ingenuity to which it is properly entitled. But to such men as E. G. BROOKS, whose customers bestow, both by words and acts, that meed of praise which not only gratifies the mind but replenishes the pocket, it can make, so far as their pecuniary interest is concerned, but very little difference. Mr. B.'s new store, at 376 Broadway, and his old one at 150 Fulton street, are some deemed the places to obtain neat and artistic shoes, whether for ladies or gentlemen's wear. He should be distinctly remembered.

To Capitalists.—Fifty Acres of Land, Adjoining Upper Morrisania, 3 250 feet front on Harlem railroad, will be sold on liberal terms. Apply to W. C. WETMORE, 61 Wall street, and CHAS. W. SANDFORD, Esq., N. Y Tryon row.

To Parties about Building, who want Plans, &c.—Terms, $15 for a complete set of plans, and specifications for a building estimated to cost $5,000; $35 for a set of ditto, for a building estimated to cost $10,000. Refers to the Building Committee of the New York Deaf and Dumb Institution. WM. BALDWIN STEWART, Architect, &c., 110 Broadway, corner of Pine street.

Carpetings, Oilcloths, &c., &c.—It is highly important to country merchants and families visiting New York, this and the ensuing month, to know that at the popular establishment of the subscribers, these unique goods, in all their varied excellence, originality in style, color and pattern can be procured at prices infinitely less than can be purchased at any other house in the trade. All goods sold by them will be found, on the most rigid examination, identically as represented.
WM. McGRORTY, GEO. H. TILBY, } 142 Broadway.

Caution—Sewing Machines.—The most reliable source of information as to my claims to the sewing machine, may be found in the able opinion lately given by Judge Sprague, of Boston, in a suit against the Singer machine, (so called,) printed copies of which may be had at my office, or by mail, by forwarding a postage stamp. The following is a list of licencees under my patent of 1846, viz.:—Wheeler, Wilson & Co., Grover, Baker & Co., A. Barthoff, A. B. Howe, American Magnetic Sewing Machine Company, Doress Sewing Machine Company, New York; J. B. Nichols, J. W. Bean, N. Hunt, Boston Mass.; Hood, Battell & Co., Worcester, Mass; Messrs. Wooldredge, Keene and Moore, Lynn, Mass. Charles A. Durgin has no longer a license to make, use, or sell sewing machines under my patent. It has been revoked and surrendered. ELIAS HOWE, Jun'r, Patentee of the original sewing machine, No. 55 Hanover street, Boston, and 305 Broadway, New York.

Sewing Machines.—All persons wishing to secure Singer's celebrated shuttle sewing machines must apply soon, as the rapidly increasing popularity and superior working qualities of our new single threaded sewing machines will speedily supercede the shuttle machines altogether. The public at our office can compare the various kinds of machines, and make up their own judgment as to which is best. I. M. SINGER & CO., 323 Broadway.

Sold wholesale and retail, and applied at 6 Astor house. Cristadoro's.

To Dye Without Pain is a Consideration through life. Hundreds dread dying, for so many quack nostrums have, like mushrooms, sprung up of late and ruined many a noble head of hair by destroying their fibres and natural nourishment. Demonet & Meyers' infallible liquid hair dye is warranted not to injure the hair or skin, but gives the hair a beautiful black or brown. Sold wholesale and retail, and applied privately, at 13 Cortlandt street. To be had also of the following drug stores:—No. 77 East Broadway, 809 Broadway, 306 Grand street, and No. 6 Bowery.

The Greatest Discovery of the Age.—Dr. To-BIAS' Venetian Liniment, for the cure of dysentery, croup, cholera, colic, rheumatism, &c. No one should be without this valuable remedy. Every bottle is warranted. Sold by all the druggists throughout the United States. Depot 60 Cortlandt street.

Hill's Improved Instantaneous Hair Dye.— Specimens can be seen, exhibiting its superiority over all others for its permanency, softness, brilliancy, and accurate imitation of natural jet black or brown, at 45 Nassau street, adjoining Liberty street. For sale or applied.

Gourand's Hair Dye is the Best in Use and no mistake.—Gourand's medicated soap cures freckles, tan, pimples, eruptions and all skin deformities; poudre subtile uproots hair from any part of the body; liquid rouge, lily white, for flushed and perspiring skins; hair restorative and various addenda to the toilet, at the old depot, 67 Walker street, near Broadway.
