HOTELS.

CHAMPLIN HOUSE, ISLIP, L. I., IS NOW OPEN FOR the reception of transients or permanent boarders. Communication by Long Island railroad, via stage at Suffolk station. AMOS R. SELLENWERF.

KEYPORT, N. J.—MANSION HOUSE.—EDMOND DEGROOT, late of the Prescott House, New York, would respectfully inform his friends and the public that he has leased the above house for a term of years, and will be ready for the reception of transient and permanent boarders on the 10th of June. The hotel has been newly painted and furnished throughout, and is complete in all its appointments. Attached to the hotel are large and convenient stables, sheds, &c., for the accommodation of horses on livery. Keyport being celebrated for its fine views, aquatic amusements, sailing, bathing, fishing, &c., renders it a place of favorite and fashionable resort for those who consult economy, convenience and the comforts of home. N. B.—The popular steamboat John Hart leaves pier foot of Murray street every afternoon at 3 O'clock, (Sundays excepted.) On the 15th of June the favorite new steamer Keyport will be added to the line, making two trips a day each way.

OCEANIC HOUSE, CONEY ISLAND.—THE SUBscribers take pleasure in informing their friends and the public that this new and commodious hotel, situated seven and a half miles from Fulton ferry, Brooklyn, is now open for the reception of permanent and transient boarders and visitors. The beauty of its location, (commanding a fine view of Staten Island, the bay, the Highlands of Nevesink, the ocean and surrounding country,) the advantages of sea bathing on the finest beach in the world, the delightful and romantic drives in its vicinity, and its easy access to the cities of New York and Brooklyn, render this one of the most healthy and delightful watering places. The accommodations of the hotel are unsurpassed, the rooms being large, well furnished and ventilated, and of sufficient capacity to accommodate over three hundred persons. Attached to the hotel are large and convenient sheds and stables, where horses can be kept on livery. The proprietors pledge themselves that every effort will be made to render this a hotel of the first class, and every attention will be paid to the comfort of those who may favor them with their patronage. ALBERT ROGERS & CO.

PIERREPONT HOUSE, BROOKLYN HEIGHTS, WILL be opened for the accommodation of guests, on Thursday, the first day of June. Situated on the heights, makes it as cool and retired as the most favored summer resorts, and commanding one of the finest views of New York, its harbor, and the surrounding country, it has been erected and furnished in the most modern style, with a view to the especial accommodation of families visiting the metropolis; it contains two hundred rooms including seventy-five parlors with bedrooms attached, having gas and water introduced into each; also, baths and closets in each story. The dining hall, offices, ladies' and gentlemens' parlors being on the first story. Located within a few steps of the Wall street ferry, makes it convenient for gentlemen doing business in New York, as well as those visiting it for pleasure, having the advantage of being quiet at night, free from dust, and enjoying a delightful sea breeze. RUSSELL, CHASE & CO.

SALES AT AUCTION.

ALBERT H. NICOLAY, AUCTIONEER—EXECUTOR'S sale of fine old oil paintings, of high class.—A. H. Nicolay & Co. will sell at auction on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 8 and 9, at 7½ o'clock each evening, at their picture gallery at the Stuyvesant Institute, Broadway, near Bleecker street, by order of the executors of T. A. Cummings, Esq., deceased, the whole of the collection of pictures purchased and procured by Mr. Cummings at a great cost, and extending over a period of thirty-five years. This collection comprises some 250 paintings of very high class, and we venture to assert that a greater number of fine, genuine old paintings have seldom or never been offered at auction in the United States. Amongst the examples is a picture pronounced by competent judges to be a fine specimen of "The Virgin and Child," by Raphael. The whole collection comprises some three hundred paintings, and includes, besides the Holy Family, by Raphael, before mentioned, a Holy Family by Lucca Van Leyden, a very wonderful specimen and in splendid condition; a Magdalene, by Correggio; a fine historical and scriptural picture, by Van Dyke, Spagnoletti, Tintoretti, Poussin, Lucca, Giordano, Domenichino, Jordiens, Guercino, Caracci, Georgione, Pietro de Cortona, Carlo Maratti, and others. The numerous cabinet paintings and interiors include many exquisite gems, one particularly fine by Gerhard Dow, Teniers, Wouvinx, Van Ous, Alexander, Maes, De Heem, Nicholas, Lancret, Bamberg, Jan Steen, Holmeim, Metzer, Van Goens, Polemberger, Brower, Paul Brill, Breughel, Zucarelli, Sir Peter Lely, Panini, &c. The collection is one that warrants our appeal to our friends residing at a distance; and we feel confident in stating that some of the paintings in this collection are destined to high rank among the most distinguished and recherche collections. The paintings are now on view, admission free, at our galleries as above, from 9 o'clock A. M. to 9 P. M., and will so remain to the days of sale.
