NATIONAL COURSE.—YESTERDAY, IN COMPANY with many others, we visited the new National Course, found the premises well nigh completed, and everything in fine order. Blonde, Reube, Sam Letcher, Madonna Gerrit Davis and Henry arrived from Baltimore yesterday, in fine order, looking well, and eager for the great contest to come off over the National the 20th inst. Highlander, Little Arthur, Compromise, and Yorkist will be here to-day, and will be followed by Red Eye, Wild Irishman, Ellen Bateman, Little Flea, Die Clapperton, One Eyed Joe, Maid of Orleans, and a long string of good ones during the week. We are assured by the gentlemanly proprietor that nothing will be wanting to render this a first class place of amusement; and if the best horses in the United States will ensure good racing we are sure to have it on the National Course, at the opening meeting. We noticed among the gentlemen visiting the course yesterday Messrs. Arnold Harris and R. Ten Broeck, of New Orleans, and Dr. Drake, of Kentucky. Immense crowds visit the track daily—everybody delighted with the prospects of good sport. "Nuff ced."
