A BEAUTIFUL COUNTRY RESIDENCE FOR SALE—twelve miles from the City Hall; the homestead, barns, stables, sheds and ice-house; an excellent garden, and one and a half acres of land (or more if desired); the residence of Peter Valentine, Esq., at Fordham; within five minutes walk of the Harlem Railroad depot. The buildings are surrounded by a large number of the best bearing fruit trees, consisting of cherry, apple, plumb and apricot, of the growth of from ten to twenty-five years. The buildings are convenient and in good order; and no re- sidence in Westchester county is more healthy, better shad- ed by trees and shrubbery, or supplied with water. Seventy- five per cent of the purchase money may remain on mort- gage for five years. Apply to John B. Haskin, No. 25 Chambers street, or of the subscriber, at the office opposite the Fordham depot, from 9 o'clock A. M. to 6 P. M.
JOHN BUSSING.

A VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE—IN WESTCHESTER county, State of New York, in the town of Ne[illegible]stle, thirty six miles from New York, three miles east of the flourishing village of Sing Sing, in which are five churches, three boarding schools, with the Hudson River Railroad passing through, on which thirteen trains pass each way daily; three miles west of the Harlem railroad, and two miles south of the Croton dam, the property being well known as the Secor Farm. The above farm is under a high state of cultivation, in one of the healthiest locations in the country, and possesses peculiar advantages, having a na- tural mill site on it, a granite quarry from which a large quantity of stone was taken for the Croton dam, a number of fine springs, is well watered, well fenced with stone walls, has two dwelling houses, four barns, and plenty of out buildings in good order, together with an abundance of fruit trees of all kinds. The farm contains two hundred and twenty acres, sixty acres of meadow land from which there is one hundred tons of hay of the best quality taken yearly, eighty-five acres of slough land and seventy five acres of wood land, of a young and thrifty growth. The said farm will be sold cheap, all together, or in lots to suit purchasers. Possession given immediately or at the pleasure of the pur- chaser. Title indisputable, it having been in the present owner's hands for the last fifty years. The cause for selling is that the present owner has arrived at an age that incapa- citates him from superintending it. Five thousand dollars can remain on bond and mortgage at five per cent, if desira- ble. For further particulars inquire on the premises, of NOAH SECOR, or at Secor & Washburn's lumber yard, Sing Sing depot of Hudson River Railroad.

BAKERY FOR SALE.—THE OLD ESTABLISHED store and bakery corner of Cedar and Temple streets, with an unexpired lease of the premises for eight years. For further information inquire at the store, between 11 and 1 o'clock.

EXCELLENT FARM AND WATER POWER FOR SALE cheap, or to exchange for good city property.—One of the best farms in the State of New York, beautifully si- ted in the town of Leyden, Lewis county, on Sugar river, thirty four miles from Utica, twenty six from Rome; rail- road from Utica to Clayton runs through it; depot and wa- tering station is to be built; hence, soon, part can be sold in village lots. Railroad from Rome to Ogdensburg passes within five rods of it; station from the Black river canal is within a mile and a quarter. The land, 220 acres, is of a rich deep soil, impregnated with lime. There is a fine lime- stone or marble quarry on the premises; five good mill privi- leges, each with water enough to carry a flour mill or four runs of stones; and also, some 3,000 sugar trees. The build- ings consist of two houses, two barns, milk and cheese house, and all the usual out buildings of a first class farm. Water of the best quality is brought by aqueduct into each house and barn; fences, and everything on and about the premises in good condition. The farm will support fifty cows and the requisite team for the farm work. Terms lib- eral: half of the purchase money can remain on bond and mortgage, or good city property would be taken in exchange for salt. For further particulars inquire of DEXTER A. HAWKINS, 27 Nassau street, N. Y.
