25 Cent Daguerreotypes.—Rees & Co., 363 Broadway, (formerly 204,) do the most extensive picture business of any establishment in America. Six hundred are taken daily by their new process and machinery, and are pronounced by all superior to the majority of high priced pictures.

Rees & Co., 289 Broadway, continue the 25 cents daguerreotype operations, at the original depot, taking pictures of the people by Holmes' patent double cameras, two at a time, and sixty an hour, in a style of position not surpassed by any rivalry in America.

Anson's Daguerreotypes, Large Size, for fifty cents, colored, and in a case, and twice the size that is taken elsewhere, for fifty cents, and equal in size and quality to those that cost $2 at other places. ANSON, 349 Broadway, opposite Metropolitan Hotel.

New Song—"I Love the Heights of Brooklyn"—dedicated to the ladies, by Wm Mitchison, pronounced by musical critics as possessing a sweet flowing melody, well arranged for the pianoforte. Sold by T. S. CLARK, 205 Broadway, and all the music sellers in Brooklyn. Price 38 cents.

Great Bargains in Ready Made Clothing, slightly soiled, from the late fire in Broadway.—Fine black French coats, cost $16, for $8; black and figured cassimere pants, cost $7, for $2 50; vests, cost $6, for $2. GEORGE LEVIE, corner of Nassau and Beekman streets.

Green's Celebrated Furnishing Store.—Attention is invited to the superior articles in the gentlemen's furnishing department of GREEN'S shirt establishment, No. 1 Astor house. The stock includes every variety of under shirts, drawers, De Joinville's, ties, cravats, dressing robes, gloves, half hose, shirt studs, mounted and otherwise, handkerchiefs, suspenders, cotton umbrellas, dressing cases, &c, imported for the summer trade, and the assortment unequalled.

Corded Byron Collars—A Superior Article, now ready; also good shirts of all sizes; kid gloves, fine cravats, handkerchiefs, undershirts, drawers, &c, &c, wholesale or retail.
IRA PEREGO & SON, 61 Nassau street.

Fall Importation received per Steamer Alps—200 pieces splendid English medallion, velvet, tapestry and ingrain carpets at reduced prices. To avoid exorbitant prices on Broadway, examine the largest and cheapest assortment in this city.
HIRAM ANDERSON, No. 99 Bowery.

Sewing Machines.—The Only Excuse for buying inferior sewing machines, viz.—that Singer's Machines, known to be the best, were liable to suit for infringement—is now removed; and as all other sewing machines infringe upon the patents belonging to us, our machines are the only ones that can be used, without making the owners liable to action for damages. All infringers will be rigorously prosecuted.
I. M. SINGER & CO., 323 Broadway.

Defiance Salamander Safes.—Robert M. PATRICK is the sole manufacturer in the United States of the above celebrated safes, and F. C. Goffin's impenetrable defiance locks and cross-bars. Depot 192 Pearl street one door below Maiden lane; manufactory 60, 62, 64 and 66 Carmon street.

Fountain's India Store.—This Establishment is the oldest in this city, and is very well supplied with some of the richest importations of the most approved ancient goods, as well as thousands of the most desirable articles in use at the present date. All (genteel) persons are welcome to call and examine the entire variety without money.

Sunday Notice.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that MR. GOSLING, who has recently removed his celebrated restaurant from No. 17 Nassau street, to 306 Broadway, between Duane and Pearl streets, keeps open on Sundays from seven A. M. till nine P. M., for breakfast, dinner, and supper. The best of viands, prepared by skilful cooks, and served up by polite and attentive waiters, will form, as usual, the characteristics of this establishment.

Lager Bier.—G. Kiesele respectfully reminds his friends and customers that he keeps constantly on hand, made at his brewery on Staten Island, a superior quality of lager bier, in bottles and casks. Orders left at his saloon, No. 50 Cortlandt street, corner of Greenwich street.

Batchelor's Hair Dye is still the Leading article, by all acknowledged to be the best dye extant for perfectly coloring the hair the moment it is applied. Tens of thousands in all parts of the world proclaim it the only reliable dye known. Sold at BATCHELOR'S, No. 233 Broadway.

Hill's Celoritic or Improved Instantaneous Hair Dye, imparts a natural jet black and beautiful brown, leaving the hair soft and glossy. Applied or for sale at 44 Nassau, adjoining Liberty street, and at drug and fancy stores generally.

Molanvia Cream.—This superb compound for strengthening and beautifying the hair, prepared only and sold by W. A. BATCHELOR, at his celebrated hair dye and wig factory, 233 Broadway. Batchelor's hair dye sold and applied. Nine rooms.

A Pure and Transparent Skin, such as is produced by a free use of Gouraud's medicated soap, is the most lovely thing in nature. The surprising manner in which this soap purifies the skin from tan, pimples, freckles, sallowness, sunburn, redness, roughness, ringworm, and the like disfigurements, excites the most boundless admiration. Gouraud's poudre subtile uproots hair from any part of the body. Liquid rouge, and lily white hair dye and restorative, at the old depot, 67 Walker street, first store from Broadway.

Cristadoro's Hair Dye.—This Matchless Preparation is now universally acknowledged to be the most reliable dye in use. It never fails in its coloring process, imparting meanwhile nourishment and elasticity to the hair. Sold and applied at CRISTADORO'S, No 6 Astor House.

Pimples, Tan and Freckles can be entirely removed from the skin by using Vondersmith's ex ract of roses and elder flowers. Ladies, this is the only article that will positively remove pimples and freckles. We could refer to more than two hundred ladies in this city who had them entirely removed by using extract of roses and elder flowers. Remember this article can only be purchased at the Bowery drug store, No. 158, above Broome street; corner of Grand and Mulberry streets, and Mrs. Hayes, 175 Fulton street, Brooklyn.

The Balm of Thousand Flowers is the best article known for beautifying the complexion, eradicating all tans, pimples and freckles from the face. Fetridge & Co., Boston; C. H. Ring, 192 Broadway, and Coddington, 715 Broadway; Mrs. Hayes, 175 Fulton street, Brooklyn.

So Pay, if Dr. Tobias' Venetian Liniment does not immediately cure cholera, dysentery, colic and spasms, it need when first taken. Thousands have certified to its wonderful curative properties. It is warranted perfectly harmless to take internally. Sold by the druggists throughout the United States. Depot, No. 60 Cortlandt street; price 25 and 50 cents.

A Word to the Million.
Why complain of needless pain
From bedbugs, nightly prowlers,
When Lyon's dust, you well know must
Destroy the hungry spoilers.
Be sure the flask for which you ask
Is Lyon's, with the name on;
The wrappers bear four medals rare,
Be only sure lay claim on.
Depot for LYON'S Magnetic Powder and Pills, for the destruction of insects and vermin, 424 Broadway, and 88 Dock street, Philadelphia.

Aspinwall's Tonic Mixture.—To Mechanics and workingmen, so often prostrated by fever and ague at the busiest season, a specific like this is invaluable. References as to the certainty of its effects are offered to all who desire them. Generally one dose checks the chills and from one to two bottles effect a cure. Prepared from the original receipt, by THOMAS & MAXWELL (successors to J. S. Aspinwall), 86 William street.

Asthma Cured by Inhalation.—Dr. Curtis, Dear sir—I have used one package of your Hygeana, and can now safely say I am cured of the asthma, a disease of six years standing. The Hygeana needs no puffing—a single trial of it is sufficient to prove its vast superiority over all other medicines for the cure of all diseases of the lungs or throat. Yours truly,
JAS. F. KEESBURY, Postmaster.
Duncannon Pa., June 2, 1854.
Sold by Reed & Pain, 140 Chambers street; C. H. Ring, corner of John street and Broadway; P. B. Knapp, 356 Hudson street and 472 Eighth avenue; C. H. Phillips, corner of Wooster and Houston streets; Mrs. Hayes, 175 Fulton street, Brooklyn, and Russell & Schott, 130 Market street, Philadelphia. Price $3 a package, or four packages for $10; sent free by express.

Scrofula, Rheumatism, &c.—Hyatt's Life Balsam is the most certain remedy for these terrible diseases. You who are suffering the most torturing pains, remember that a few doses of this powerful, yet pleasant compound, will afford certain relief. Thousands of cases have been cured and published to the Sun, Herald, and other papers. These certificates are from well known citizens, who can be seen and consulted at any hour. Circulars containing these certificates can be had at the principal depot, 246 Grand street. Seventy-five cents per bottle. Agent for Brooklyn, Mrs. HAYES, 175 Fulton street.

For sore nipples: Richardson's nip oil, 50c. For worms: Keyser's vermifuge, 25c. At GLION'S, 127 Bowery.

For Protection against Mosquitoes and Insects—Haskins' newly invented canopy and net, combining beauty, cheapness and entire security against insects without obstructing the circulation of air. It is constructed so that it will not sag, bed-tead, and the net is so arranged that it will contract and expand by means of a rubber braid, so that it will fit securely at all times and on all bedsteads, thereby affording entire protection against insects. It is portable and can be packed in a very small place, and carried in a trunk, carpet bag or valise, and is far superior to all others for travelling purposes. It can be attached to the bedstead in a very few minutes and taken down in an equally short space of time, and so simple in construction that a child can use it. Yet, while it affords the protection sought, it is a beautiful and chaste ornament to the bed. By means of cords and tassels the net can be raised and fastened at pleasure, and never return to be in the way, or a source of any trouble while making up the bed. G. A. HASKINS & CO., inventors and manufacturers, Pine-hill Depot, 49 Canal street, New York. Particular attention paid to orders.

THE MILITARY.

ARMORY INDEPENDENCE GUARD.—AT A MEETING of the Independence Guard, held on Friday evening, Aug 11, the following resolutions were unanimously carried and ordered to be published:—

Whereas Almighty God has in His divine judgment removed suddenly from our midst Adjutant James S. McCabe, our comrade and associate for the last fifteen years,

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to the will of an All wise Providence, we most deeply deplore the loss of a comrade who has so justly won the praise and approbation of his fellow soldiers and citizens generally for his upright and honorable course through private life, and for his brave and gallant services to his country while serving as an officer of the "First Regiment New York Volunteers," in the late war with Mexico.

Resolved, That we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, and that a committee of five be and is hereby appointed to confer with the First Regiment New York Volunteers, to make all suitable arrangements for the funeral solemnities.

The following gentlemen were appointed a committee to make all necessary arrangements:—Lieut. Watts, Lieut. Jarcines, C. Carnes, John Reeves, L. F. Harrison.
JAMES A. BOYLE, Lieut. Commanding.
D. S. MULFORD, Sec.

ARMORY INDEPENDENCE GUARD, BROADWAY House.—The officers and members of the Independence Guard are directed to appear at the armory in full uniform, with the usual badge of mourning, on Sunday, the 13th inst., at 12 noon, for the purpose of paying the last sad tribute of respect to our late comrade, Adjutant James S. McCabe.
JAMES A. BOYLE, Lieut. Commanding.
FREDERICK T. LOCKE, 1st Sergt.

HEAD QUARTERS, FIRST NEW YORK VOLUNTEERS —Mercer House, August 11, 1854.—It is my sad duty to announce to the regiment the sudden death of Brevet Captain and Adjutant James S McCabe. He had been for more than twenty years connected with the military of the State of New York, and when called to serve his country in a foreign clime, we all know that he was ever among the most reliable in the performance of all his duties, as he was ever among the foremost and bravest on the field of battle. The members of this corps will assemble at the Mercer House, at 8 o'clock, on Saturday evening, the 12th instant, to make necessary arrangements for the funeral obsequies, which will take place from No. 198 Hudson street, at 2 o'clock, on Sunday next. All the members of the corps who have the uniform, will appear in full dress. The military of New York are respectfully invited to unite with the regiment at the Mercer House, in uniform with side arms. By order of
W. RD B. BURNETT,
Bt. Brig. General and Col. Commanding.
J. MILLER, Acting Adjutant.

The lovers of the turf have an opportunity to witness the best race meeting ever run in America. More than forty of the most celebrated horses in the world are now in training on the course, and will run during the meeting—not less than thirteen that have already ran three and four miles, including Lexington, Red Eye, Highlander, One-eyed Joe, Fanny Fern, Arrow, Blonde, Little Flea, Berry, Rube, Garret Davis and Die Clapperton. This is the largest number of horses ever in training on a race course, and all good ones. The public may rely on two good races every day. Nothing will be left undone by the proprietors to make everybody delighted who visit the National Course during the fall meeting.
S. J. CARTER & CO.

GREAT NATIONAL HORSE FAIR.—NATIONAL Course, near the city of New York.—To be held under the auspices of the "National Jockey Club," will open on Wednesday, September 27, 1854, and continue three days.

Twenty-five hundred and ninety-five dollars in premiums will be awarded. Owners and breeders of horses from all parts of the world are invited to attend and bring their horses. The Committee of Arrangements have provided ample accommodations for all horses that may be brought for exhibition.

This Fair offers greater inducements to owners and breeders of horses, who are desirous to sell, than any heretofore held, New York being the best horse mart in the world; and a larger amount in premiums than ever before offered in this country.

The attention of farmers and stock breeders is respectfully requested to the following liberal premium list:—

RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE ENTRANCE OF ANIMALS THAT ARE INTENDED FOR COMPETITION.

1st. All entries must be made in writing, and sent to RICHARD B. CHEATHAM, 83 Prince street, New York, secretary of the "National Jockey Club." If not sent before Sunday, the 15th September, they may be delivered to the Clerk of the "Committee of Arrangements," at the National Course, on Monday and Tuesday, 18th and 19th September.

2d. The entries for Class A must be accompanied by a well authenticated pedigree, showing the purity of the blood, both on the side of the sire and dam, by whom and where raised, with the age, color, and marks of the animal, and the name and residence of the owner. No entry will be allowed a premium unless this regulation is complied with. The entries for the other Classes must specify the pedigree as far as known, the age, color, and marks of the animal, the class it is entered to compete in, and the name and residence of the owner.

3d. The horses must be on the ground by 11 o'clock on the day of exhibition, attended by their owners or keepers. As soon as each horse is located, a label will be furnished, stating the Class the horse may be entered, the number of its entry, and the owner's name and residence. The label must be appended to the animal, and seen during the hours of exhibition.

4th. Horses which are not on the ground by 11 o'clock on the day of exhibition, or are removed during the hours of exhibition, except by permission of the Chairman of Committee of Arrangements, will not be entitled to any premiums.

Persons visiting the National Fair will witness the finest display of thoroughbred stock ever collected in the United States:—Lexington, Highlander, Red Eye, Monarch, Fashion, Blonde; also, a large number of fine brood mares and colts, and about forty other race horses, now in training at the National Course. A fine opportunity for the improvement of the above named are for sale on liberal terms.

Distinguished citizens from all parts of the Union have been invited to attend; many have already signified their intention to be present and co-operate in this great enterprise, to advance and improve the breed of that noblest of all animals—the horse.

The week preceding the Fair, small bills will be issued, giving a complete programme of each day's exhibition, and everything pertaining thereto.

Gentlemen of the first respectability will act on the various committees, and the public may rest assured that entire satisfaction will be given to all who may attend this Fair.

☞ A sale of thorough breeds will take place on every day of the fair, commencing at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Particulars on the days of sale.

MISCELLANEOUS

$100,000 REWARD IS NOW OFFERED TO any person who can surpass Madame Clifton in the art of astrology. She is the only lady in this or any other city who can give correct statements on all things. She also cures all diseases in their worst stages—particularly the worst forms of rheumatism. N. B.—Madame C is no humbug, nor does she wish to impose on the public. Call and satisfy yourselves. Residence 65 Thompson street, between Broome and Spring, brick house, stone stoop.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.—WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, having used Hunt's Restorative Cordial for several years, deem it due to the cause of humanity to publicly express our confidence in this medicine, as an important remedy for bowel complaints, which may lead to cholera, for which it is generally used, and has obtained a high reputation in our part of the city. In addition to the above we know it to be a good relieving and strengthening cordial for partial illness, general debility, &c, and therefore confidently recommend it as a valuable family medicine. Mr. Hunt's depot is at 532 Hudson street, near our old establishment.
