house for that night, but will be released, on condition that he dresses himself better for the future. Money and clothing have been often offered him by charitable persons, but he always refused the gifts with scorn.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

NEW YORK, August 20, 1854.

In this morning's issue of the HERALD I find my name mentioned under the head of "Police Intelligence," stating that myself and another man had been arrested for horse-stealing, and taken before Justice Clarke, who had dismissed the complaint against the other man, and that I had been held to answer the charge of grand larceny instead of being held to bail. I was honorably discharged by Justice Clarke after a full investigation of the case against the parties who made the complaint I shall commence criminal proceedings immediately. Respectfully, JAS. ELDRIDGE.

Brooklyn City News.

PREACHING AND TEMPERANCE LECTURES IN BROOKLYN.—Yesterday, as on the previous Sunday, there was preaching in the city park, and lectures on the subject of temperance in front of the City Hall. In the park Parsons held forth, assisted by another man, who relieved each other during service. Parsons opened the proceedings, spoke a while, and then his friend took the stand, when Parsons again got up, and the other followed, till both got through, and the audience were enlightened as to the evils of Popery. The congregation present numbered about two thousand persons, a large number of whom were women and children. The whole disposable police force was on hand, and a body of special police was scattered among the crowd. Several arrests were made for disorderly conduct; but, taking the whole together, it was about as orderly an assemblage as could be expected on such an occasion. The Mayor was on duty the whole day—in the morning to see that the liquor law was observed, and in the afternoon to preserve the peace in the city park. When the speakers had concluded, and walked off arm in arm, there was a rush of the crowd, but that was all it amounted to. Taking it all in all, every thing passed off creditably.

A lecture on the subject of temperance was delivered previous to the Park preaching, from the City Hall steps, to an audience of two or three people only. The lecturer was a young man, named Carmer. Cold water is a very dry subject, and not very apt to draw about the City Hall, especially when fun is anticipated in another quarter of the city.

DISTURBANCES ON SATURDAY NIGHT.—A man named Daniel Boomer was detected in breaking doors and windows with stones, on the corner of Hamilton avenue and Van Brunt street, when he was taken into custody. On being taken towards the station house, the officers (Fox, Conlan and Thompson, of the Third district police,) were assaulted with stones by a gang of about forty persons, and the prisoner rescued. Subsequently five of the gang, named Patrick Moore, Wm Donohoe, Thos. Ryan, George Baxter and Barnet Kearay, were arrested and locked up. A disturbance also occurred at the South ferry, among a number of rowdies, and in attempting to restore order, one of the fellows made a pass at officer Bowers with a knife, but was prevented from inflicting injuries by one of the deck hands, who took hold of the customer. No arrests were made. A difficulty also took place at the fire in Fulton street, but it did no amount to much.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT ON THE LONG ISLAND RAILROAD.—A serious accident occurred on the Long Island Railroad, on Saturday afternoon. As the cars were approaching the station at Jamaica, a young man, named John Brown, a clerk in a New York insurance office, jumped off the platform and fell, his left arm coming under one of the wheels, and nearly severed it. Yesterday morning the limb was amputated by Drs. Ayres and Cochran, of this city.

FATAL LEAP FROM A THIRD STORY WINDOW.—About two o'clock yesterday morning a man, named Chas. John, son a baker by trade, commit ed suicide by jumping out of the third story window of his residence No. 302 Fulton street. He had been ill for several days past, and, becoming delirious, committed the fatal act while in this state. He was instantly killed. He was about 35 years of age, and leaves a wife and two children.

AN OFFICER ROBBED.—Officer Webb of the Tombs, New York, was robbed of money and drafts, amounting to $130, at the bath house in New Utrecht, L. I., on Friday, while bathing. Some boys having got into the bath room relieved his pockets, they were arrested by officer Strang and the property recovered.

MORTALITY FOR THE WEEK.—On Saturday four cases but no deaths were reported to the Board of Health. The weekly list of mortality ending on Saturday, 19th inst., shows a total of 197 deaths, of which 78 were adults and 119 children. Of these 45 died of cholera, 38 of cholera infantum, 10 of cholera morbus, 9 of convulsions, 10 of diarrhœa, 12 of dysentery, 9 of consumption, &c.

Jersey City Intelligence.

A TEAM CARELESSLY DROWNED.—A team of horses, which, together with the wagon to which they were attached, were valued at about $600, were drowned at the Jersey City ferry, on the New York side, on Saturday afternoon. They belonged to George Christman and his partner, proprietors of the rolling mill, one mile from the ferry, on the Bergen Point plank road. When the driver passed through the gate into the ferry house, the gate keeper directed him to stop the signal having been given to the boat to start. But the driver whipped his team and drove rapidly through the ferry house. The boat had been unfastened from the bridge, and there was a space of more than a foot between it and the bridge. The teamster drove on; and one horse was entirely on the boat, the other one partly on, when the boat moved off, and the team and wagon went into the slip. The horses did not rise to the surface, the wagon and the iron upon it having fallen upon them. The driver fell into the slip, but was rescued. A man upon the wagon with him succeeded in jumping upon the boat.

WATER LET INTO THE BERGEN RESERVOIR.—The Commissioners of the Jersey City Water Works caused the Passaic water to be let into the distributing reservoir, on Bergen Hill, on Saturday afternoon, for a short time, in order to test the works there, and for the gratification of those who had assembled to witness its first introduction into that receptacle. The visitors were mostly from Jersey City; and a great proportion of them were ladies. Yesterday the water was allowed to run from the pipes, for the purpose of cleansing them. At the foot of Essex street a large jet issued to the height of fifty feet during the day. There appears now to be no obstacle to prevent the immediate use of the water.

THOS. FAYE & CO., 256 and 257 Broadway, directly opposite the City Hall.

Sewing Machines—The Absolute Necessity of using sewing machines has become apparent to all manufacturers who expect to compete successfully with their rivals in trade. The artistic finish and beauty of the machine work gives it a quicker sale and a better price than hand work, besides the great advantage of cheapness in manufacturing. That Singer's machines are vastly superior to all others, and give perfect satisfaction is attested by the experience of thousands. They are, too, the only machines of any value that can lawfully be used. All others infringe our patents, and those who attempt to use them will be prosecuted.
