Supreme Court—Special Term.

Before Hon. Judge Mitchell.

OCT 27.—In the matter of extending Park Place—Judge Mitchell delivered an opinion in this case, confirming the report of the Commissioners.

Young America begins to show signs of good sense, for we understand that all the young men in town now patronize KNOX when in want of a neat, elegant fitting, pleasant appearing hat. Knox does know how to get up such an elegant hat, and his present fall styles knock everything like competition completely in the shade. His up town depot, in the Prescott House, is now the great centre of attraction for gentlemen of leisure and refinement, while his older established stand, at 128 Fulton street, still retains all its immense popularity.

Especnecked commends his Fall Style of Hats to every gentleman who wishes to select from the various styles before the public the best and handsomest hat of the season, at his old price, $3 50. 118 Nassau street.

'Tis the style of the hat, that gentlemen treasure;
Not the length of a broom a hatter can measure.

Rafferty & Lenak Wish to Have it Distinctly understood that they are not up for any public office, but that they continue to sell their inimitable daguerreanhats at 57 Chatham, and corner of Chatham and Pearl street.

Drake's Fall Styles.—For elegant Hats, of the latest and most approved patterns, call at DRAKE'S, No. 9 Bowery. N. B—Robert J. Tuthany, foreman, and James P. Brewster, salesman, will be pleased to serve their friends at the above establishment.

5,000 Hats at the Old Established Hatter—the New Hat Company, Nos. 146 and 148 Nassau street—equal to any four dollar hat in the city, to be sold at wholesale or by the single hat for only three dollars each. Those who have not been to see us will do well to call and save a dollar.

It is generally conceded by those who are supposed to be possessed of good taste, that White's fall and winter style of hat, is the most neat and genteel of anything ever issued at the low prices of $3 and $4. WEIR, hatter, 212 Broadway, corner Fulton street.

Ladies' and Children's Furs at Genin's Bazaar—The fur season having opened, the attention of ladies is invited to the large and comprehensive assortment of muffs, victorines, cloaks, cuffs, gloves, &c., at the Bazaar, including every species of furs, rare or common, and all made up in the best styles announced in Paris for the coming winter. GENIN'S Bazaar, 513 Broadway, St Nicholas Hotel.

Anson's Daguerreotypes—Large size for 50 cents, colored, and in a nice case, twice the size ever taken for 50 cents, and equal in quality and size to any that are made elsewhere for $2. ANSON'S, 589 Broadway, opposite Metropolitan Hotel.

The Best, the Cheapest, the Largest 50 Cent daguerreotypes are the first class colored ones, with her fame case complete, taken at 455 Broadway, corner of Howard street. GARBANATI, Artist.

To Daguerreotype Artists and Dealers.—Samples of a new and superior plate, now ready, just received from one of our firm now in Paris. We can recommend this plate as the best in market. Sample forwarded to any part of the United States.
MEADE BROTHERS, Importers,
283 Broadway, four doors above the Astor House.

New York Picture Company, 289 Broadway.—Daguerreotypes are taken by this company, with Holmes' new invention, the double camera, taking two portraits at once, patented by the United States government, directed by Captain Clark and fifteen others. 289 Broadway.

Pianos and Melodeons.—The most celebrated pianos and melodeons in the world. T. Gilbert & Co.'s premium pianos, with or without the æolean; Horace Waters' greatly improved pianos, celebrated for their power, brilliancy and richness of tone, and elasticity of touch; Hallett & Cumston's pianos (of the old firm of Hallett & Co.); a large assortment of pianos of other celebrated Boston and New York manufacturers constantly in store. Second hand pianos at great bargains. Prices, $20, $30, $50, $75, $100, $125, $130, &c., to $175. Beautiful pianos, which have been rented a short time, will be sold very low. Each instrument warranted. A large discount made for cash. To suit some purchasers, monthly payments will be taken. Cash paid for second hand pianos. HORACE WATERS, 333 Broadway.

Good Clothing for Cold Weather.—A Large stock of overcoats of all qualities; pantaloons in great variety; vests, a superb assortment; under garments of every description; all well made, and in every respect genteel and comfortable. For sale at reasonable prices, at No. 441 Broadway, ALFRED MUNROE & CO. No deviation from marked prices.

James Little & Co., Merchant Tailors, 412 Broadway, have one of the very best as well as the largest assortments of ready made clothing that can be found in the city. Their stock is made up in the best style, and they will guarantee to give a fit.

P. L. Rogers & Co.—The fall programme of this eminent clothing house (published in another column) announces that henceforth but one price will be asked or taken for any article of clothing at Union Hall. We like this plan. It is founded on equal and exact justice. There is nothing like a cheap price and no deviation.

Boys, Do You Hear That!—If the Boys of New York have not already informed their parents that the greatest variety of fashionable and cheap clothing for boys in this city is to be found at SMITH BROTHERS, 122 Fulton street, they are not the close observers we take them to be.

Winter Clothing at Half Price, at Evans' clothing warehouse, 66 and 68 Fulton street. $100,000 worth of fine winter clothing, from Broadway, for sale at half price. All New York city banks taken at par.

Dolan & Thompson have a large and beautiful assortment of winter clothing, which they are selling at a great discount. Overcoats from $5 to $16, at 104 and 106 Nassau street, corner Ann.

Scarfs of the Newest Styles, and of every quality, just received, and will be sold at great bargains; also, gent's best kid gloves, at 50; ladies' do., 40, and cravats, scarfs, pocket handkerchiefs, &c., equally cheap. E. H. LEADBEATER, 347 Broadway, corner of Leonard street.

Ribbons, Ribbons.—Just Received from Auction, a large stock of new and rich fall ribbons, which we will offer this morning at a loss to the manufacturers of over fifty per cent. E. H. LEADBEATER, 347 Broadway, corner of Leonard street.

Unreserved Sale at and under Cost.—Rich lace goods, Paris worked collars, handkerchiefs, chemisettes, sleeves, bands, ladies' and children's under clothing, &c., &c. NEWMAN'S, 765 Broadway, between Eighth and Ninth streets.

Notice.—From Auction, Kid Gloves, Kid gloves, kid gloves—1,200 dozen ladies' best quality, all colors and sizes, at 5s the pair, regular prices 7s; also, 150 breakfast sets. New styles at $3 50 each set. JOHN MADDEN, 573 Broadway.

India Rubber Gloves and Mittens for use in cold or wet weather; also ladies' lined gloves and bleaching gloves and mitts, a certain cure for rough or chapped hands. For sale at all the rubber stores, and to the trade only at 36 John street, up stairs.

"Hannah is a Medal whose reverse is discourtesy," says the proverb. GREEN, No. 1 Astor house, always keeps the medal right side up, treating his customers with attention, fitting them with such shoes as they can procure nowhere else, and keeping his promises with fidelity.

Broadway Theatre is Crowded every night, but MILLER'S shoe store in Canal street is crowded all the time; for at no store in New York can such beautiful gaiters and button boots, such slippers, ties, and toilet slippers, India rubbers, &c., with boys', misses', and children's boots and shoes be obtained at such reasonable prices, as at J. B. MILLER & CO.'S, 134 Canal st.

Paris Boots, just received per Washington from J. Perr, 72 rue Richelieu, Paris, and other eminent makers, suitable for the season, received monthly. A large supply constantly on hand by EUGENE FERRI, 62 Nassau street, third door above Maiden lane.

Per ship Constantine, Liverpool.—Hiram ANDERSON, 99 Bowery, has just received several magnificent English medallion royal velvet carpets, worth $250 to $1,100 each. N. B.—50,000 yards of beautiful ingrain carpet at 38c., 4s. and 5s. per yard.

$25,000 Stock of Valentines now ready, at CUPID CHRONG'S, No. 98 Nassau street.

China and Earthenware, Now on Exhibition at the Crystal Palace, belonging to Alex. W. Copeland, of London, and Messrs John Rose & Co., of Shropshire England. This collection comprises tea and dinner services, toilet sets, dressing tables, &c.; also works of art, embracing Parian marble statuary, vases, rich porcelain pictures, and a great variety of other articles of vertu. The Palace will close in a few days, and I am instructed by the owners to sell the articles at a very low price, rather than to return them to Europe; some of them for 75 per cent cheaper than they could be purchased at their works, in England. There is an attendant at the Palace who will show the goods, or further information can be had at my store, No. 233 Bleecker street, one door from Sixth avenue railroad, at which place I keep constantly on hand a large assortment of China, glass, and earthenware, selected with great care during my late visit to Europe. CHAS. C. LEIGH.

Two Hundred and Fifty Building Lots in the city of Paterson, at Passaic Falls, at auction, on Wednesday and Thursday, Nov 1 and 2 on the grounds.—This property is beautifully situated for private residences, and it would undoubtedly be a good investment. As property in this vicinity is increasing in value rapidly. We need not begin to enumerate the advantages of this place over most property offered to the public, it being only thirty-five minutes ride from the city, and for natural and romantic scenery it is not surpassed by any. The owners have just finished a new and splendid bridge across the Passaic at this place, at a cost of $7,000, capable of bearing twenty tons to every twenty square feet, which is to be tested on the first day of sale. This property is also convenient to the railroad depot and all the principal factories. For maps and all particulars apply to the auctioneer, or JAMES W. BARKER, No. 3 Nassau street.

A New Discovery.—A Delicious Beverage.—Will invigorate and stimulate; but will not intoxicate.—Dr. HAMS' Invigorating Spirit.—Dr. Darius Hams, who hails from some place on the borders of Germany, has discovered a new and healthy beverage, which he claims will banish for ever the evil and morbid taste for brandy, gin, schnapps, wine, lager bier, and all other intoxicating drinks. This beverage he calls "Invigorating Spirit," and guarantees it to be a speedy cure for dyspepsia, kydney complaints, heart burn, cholic pains and flatulence. Persons troubled with distress or a heavy weight in the stomach after eating, are assured that Dr. Hams' Spirit will instantly remove all "bad feeling." Ladies in ill health, subject to lowness of spirits, headache, hysterics, will find Dr. Hams' Invigorating Spirit of great benefit. In flavor and deliciousness, it is better than any of the intoxicating beverages; it will stimulate, invigorate and exhilerate, drive away all bad spirits, but will not intoxicate. Price, one dollar per bottle. Can be had at Radway & Co.'s, 162 Fulton street, up stairs, agents; also Jas. Luce, corner Jane and Hudson streets, druggists; corner Hudson and Hammond streets; corner Macdougal and Houston streets; Mrs. Hays, 139 Fulton street, Brooklyn, and by druggists everywhere.

Wedding and Visiting Cards in the most fashionable styles, twenty-five per cent less than usually charged. A choice assortment of the latest styles of bridal envelopes, silver wafers, &c.; seals engraved, silver door plates, &c., at KEMBLE'S, practical engraver, 394 Broadway, two doors from Walker street.

Last of the Beautiful Lansdand Building lots.—These 500 building lots, with 100 farms, will be divided among 600 subscribers in a few days. $15 secures four building lots, twenty-five by one hundred feet, or a farm of from two to twenty acres. Hundreds are living in unhealthy apartments, and paying all their earnings for rent, who may now secure a delightful and healthy homestead near the city. Apply at once to CHARLES WOOD, 278 Broadway, where maps and pamphlets can be had gratis.

Defiance Salamander Safes.—Robert M. PATRICK is the sole manufacturer in the United States of the above celebrated safes, and F. C. Goffin's impenetrable defiance locks and cross bars. Depot 192 Pearl street, one door below Maiden lane.

Parnam's Burlesque Opera House.—This beautiful establishment is destined to become the fashionable resort of all patronizing Ethiopian entertainments. It is tastily fitted up and admirably adapted to such performances. The company is unquestionably the best in the city.

Powder Proof Locks—Their Value.—The office of Mr. John Freeman, coal dealer, 236 West Twenty-eighth street, was entered on the night of the 23d of October, 1854, by breaking through the door. All the valuable books and money were secured in one of Rich & Co.'s salamander safes, with Yale's improved powder proof locks, which the robbers in vain attempted to blow open with powder. They then fired the premises and left. Safes like the above for sale by STEARNS & MARVIN, 144 and 146 Water street.

Whiskers or Moustaches forced to grow heavily in six weeks by my onguent, which will not stain or injure the skin. $1 a bottle, sent to any part of the country. R. G. GRAHAM, 107 Nassau street, N. Y.; Hayes, 175 Fulton street, Brooklyn.

Hair Dye and Wigs.—Batchelor's celebrated hair dye is by all acknowledged: he best in the world. Sold wholesale and retail, or applied in nine private rooms at W. A. BATCHELOR'S hair dye, wig, and ornamental hair factory, No. 233 Broadway.

Chrehnak's Wigs and Toupees by a novel improvement are secured against all shrinking or loss of shape during wear. Their exact fit, extreme lightness, natural appearance and moderate price, recommend them to all wearers. No. 162½ Fulton street, west of Broadway.

Does the Scalp begin to Show through your Hair?—If so, baldness is at hand, unless you use proper means to prevent it. Apply Miller's invigorator night and morning, and your hair is safe. It will soon grow thick and strong. LOUIS MILLER, 295 Bowery. For sale by druggists generally.

Pearl Tablet.—A Fine Article for Improving the complexion, and giving the skin a fine, smooth surface, and healing pimples and other eruptions of the skin. Try it. For sale at GUION'S, 127 Bowery, corner of Grand street.

Aspinwall's Tonic Mixture, ranks within the infallible specifics in medicine, it is the positive antidote for fever and ague, curing it generally within a few days, never failing to produce the desirable result. Prepared by THOMAS & MAXWELL, successors to James Hegeman, 86 William street.

"Her cheeks were tinged with such a red
As morning beams on snow-wreaths shed;
The pearl and pink as sweetly shining,
As in sea shell's polished lining."

To Realize this Poetical Description of a brilliant complexion it is necessary to give vigor, pliancy and clearness to the scarf skin, and there is only one article before the world which will effect this object—Phalon's paphian lotion. So says Madame Tillion—so says every lady who has used it and contrasted it with other cosmetics. Sold by E. PHALON, 517 Broadway, (St Nicholas,) and 197 Broadway, corner of Dey street; and kept by druggists and fancy storekeepers everywhere.

Dr. Dod's Syrup of Alumnia.—This celebrated and highly recommended medicine for coughs, colds, asthma, and all diseases of the throat and lungs is always on hand at the principal depot, 476½ Broadway, and the leading druggists in this city and Brooklyn. Price, fifty cents per bottle.

A Dangerous Affair.—The Man who Forges a weapon to furnish further assistance to the powerful artillery of woman, directed against the hearts of unarmed men, must be a terror to bachelorhood. The aid which Bogle's hyperion fluid for the hair, and helseiona for the complexion, renders it, when used by the fair sex, the most powerful ally of Cupid that is. Sold by the inventor, WM. BOGLE, No 277 Washington street, Boston; in New York, by A. B. & D. Sands, No. 100 Fulton street; Chas. Shing & Co., Broadway; Rushton, Clark & Co., Broadway; Clickener & Co, 81 Barclay street, and by chemists and perfumers throughout the world.

Rheumatism, Scrofula, &c.—Hyatt's Life Balsam is the most certain remedy for those terrible diseases. You who are suffering the most torturing pains remember that a few doses of this most powerful, yet pleasant compound will afford certain relief. Thousands of cases have been cured, and published in the Sun, Herald, and other papers. Circulars containing these certificates can be had at the principal depot, No. 216 Grand street. Seventy-five cents per bottle.

Cholera.—Dr. Tobias, 60 Cortlandt street, guarantees to cure every case of cholera, when first attacked, with his Venetian liniment. It never fails. Only 25 cents. Who that values life will be without it? Sold by the druggists throughout the United States.
