right. You can't make a fortune by looking at the best land, even at the rich farms of North Dakota. YET THE FORTUNE'S THERE ALL RIGHT! Do you want it? We guarantee to make any man's fortune who will simply help us develop the virgin farms in Monon and Hettinger Counties, North Dakota.
The man MUST WORK, but on land already covered with thick natural grass, that will yield big crops of wheat, corn, oats, barley, potatoes, etc. The immense crop this year will raise prices. We have rich land for $12.50 an acre, and IF YOU HURRY we will locate you on a free homestead of 160 acres, and for the land you buy. The earnest man who LIKES TO DIG should ask us for excursion rates, maps and facts.

Rogness-Asper.
At four o'clock p. m. Thursday December twentyeight, 1905, at the beautiful home of the bride's father in south Norway occurred one of the prettiest home weddings ever held in that township.
The contracting parties were Emil Rogness and Miss Caroline Aletha Asper, and the words which joined their destinies for life and united them in holy wedlock were spoken by Rev. J. S. Nummedal.
The large spacious parlor at the Asper home was tastefully decorated for the occasion. Louis Asper was the groom's best man and the bride was assisted by Miss Tina Rogness. The groom was attired in the conventional black and the bride was sweetly gowned in white Japanese silk and carried white roses.
After the ceremony which was witnessed by about forty of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties, an elaborate four course dinner was served in conformity with a handsomely printed menu card, which gives the Rogness-Asper wedding the honor of introducing this charming feature at wedding dinners in this county, and carnations were provided for all the guests.
The bride is a daughter of Mr.
Charles Asper and is a lady of refinement and excellent accomplishments.
The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs.
Halvor Rogness and is a quiet, sober, industrious young man of excellent habits.
We join with the numerous friends of the newly and happily wed couple in extending our hearty congratulations and wishing them a Happy New Year, good luck, happiness and prosperity in abundance on their journey together through life.

Will Go to California.
Sometime during this month a special sleeping car will come to Canton from Kansas City to convey a number of excursionists to Los Angeles via El Paso, Texas. The party will be composed of Dr. and Mrs. J. M.
Lewis, L. E. and Mrs. Tillotson and two children, O. T. Brandhagen wife and daughter, B. C. Jacobs and wife and N. Smith of Lennox. F. G.
Seaver and wife who are now at Sioux City, besides three other parties from Sioux Falls, and four from Boyden, Iowa. At El Paso, Mr. Laxson will join the party. At Los Angeles they will find Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Williams and a son of Mr. Smith of Lennox. Dr.
Lewis says he is going to have salt water fishing and an ocean trip, climb mountains and ride burros, pick oranges and lemons from the trees, and make a new auto record.
They will return to the banks of the Hapid Sioux about the time the frozen waters move south.

Death of John C. Kornder.
The subject of this sketch was born in Middle Bavaria, Germany September seven 1821. He was married to Rosina Barbara Warner in July 1854, and emigrated to this country in 1857, reaching Warsaw, Illinois, June fourteenth of the same year.
Eight children were born to them, four boys and four girls. One boy died at the age of four years.
The other sons are John of Douglas county, South Dakota, Henry of Mapes, North Dakota, and William of Centerville this state.
The daughters are Mrs. Barbara Sack of Hancock county, Illinois, Mrs. Mary Shaver of Adams county, Illinois, Mrs. Eva Helder of Sioux county, Iowa, and Mrs. Emma Brenner of Canton.

Father Kornder was converted December twenty-six, 1857, and sister Kornder was converted the twenty-fifth day of same month, and on the twenty-seventh, they both united with the German M. E. church of which he remained a faithful member through life. He fell asleep Thursday morning December twenty-eight, 1905.
The funeral was held from the residence of Alderman David Brenner, Saturday December thirtieth, at two p. m. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. S. Loveall.
The text was the words of Paul to Timothy. "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith, henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord the righteous Judge shall give me at that day." This text was selected by Grandma Kornder because she and her husband had given it much thought.
Some eighteen years ago he came to Sioux county Iowa where he resided until December second 1900. Since then he has made his home in this city with his daughter Mrs. Brenner.
The grand old Christian was buried in Forest Hill cemetery and around the grave were those he loved best in life.

Card of Thanks.

generous friends for their kindness and assistance during the sickness and at the funeral of our beloved husband and father.

J. B. Slosson, the able and successful representative of the W. H.
Brown Co., who own vast tracts of fine land in North Dakota, received the following dispatch from Mandan, North Dakota, on Wednesday afternoon of this week. "Weather fine, bright and clear. No wind. No snow since middle of December. No snow since middle of December. Has thawed some." This is a very encouraging report from the northwest when we of the banana belt are covered with snow.

The county commissioners are in session.
Miss Marjorie Campbell is home from Hudson.
Augustana opened for the winter term on Tuesday.

Mrs. Judd last week.
Andrew Twedt of Norway was a visitor last Saturday.
A. E. Manson and wife are home from a holiday visit at Sibley, Iowa.
Col. Cuppett enjoyed his New Year dinner at Sioux Falls with relatives.
Miss Sadie Arnold of the Leader staff, is laid up with a severe attack of rheumatism.
Mayor and Mrs. Fitch entertained a large number of relatives to a grand New Year's dinner.
S. L. Whitlow and family of Delaware, were guests at the Rudolph Saturday for dinner.
Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Coon entertained a number of relatives to a grand New Year dinner.
Master Leo Lewis has gone to Inwood and will live with his uncle, Dr. Lewis during the absence of his parents to the coast.
O. M. Iverson, one of the Leader's staunchest friends, was up from Hudson the other day, and went to Sioux Falls on business.
U. T. Sando was a visitor and a renewal subscriber last Saturday. He is managing successfully the Carl Anderson farm in Layton.

Henry Brandon, one of the best farmers in Dayton township, was a visitor Saturday, and ordered the date on his Leader changed to 1907.
J. E. Holter led four ears of corn in the Leader office Tuesday that are beauties. Joe Millet says the sample is very fine and will score high.
Mrs. May DeVries was duly initiated into the mysteries of the Eastern Star Tuesday evening. Refreshments followed the regular order of business.
Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Boyd of Arlington returned home Tuesday, after a week's visit with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Halvor Rogness of Norway township. They came down to attend the Rogness-Asper wedding, Mrs. Boyd being a sister of the groom.
A number of young ladies have organized a basket ball club and played their first game Monday in the opera house. The Grays won by a score of eighteen to sixteen for the Blues.
Cora Anderson is Captain of the Blues and Pearl Peterson is Captain of the Grays.
Joe Millet and his son, Albert, of Eden were visitors Tuesday. Mr.
Millet, sr., came up to attend the annual meeting of the Farmers' Mutual Insurance Co. Albert came along to look up some prize corn records. Albert is a corn grower who will be heard from at the coming contest.

James Madden of Worthing was a Leader visitor last Saturday, and the editor enjoyed Bro. Madden's visit immensely. There is no man in Lincoln county with a kinder heart than James Madden. He is a true friend, a genial gentleman and a royal companion. He returned home on the noon train.
Col. Repp was a visitor last Saturday. He drew his check for $5.00, re-marking with absolute truth: "Editors can't live on wind." There are a few of our subscribers who have not learned that remarkable truth, but we shall expect cash results after they read Col. Repp's golden opinion.
Col. Repp's opinion bars nobody from coming in, even if they think that editors live on roast goose and cranberry sauce—which they don't.

L. L. Redfield and wife, Fred Redfield, wife and two children and Prof.
De Vries and wife returned from Parker Monday where they enjoyed a New Year dinner with Dr. Guy Redfield and wife of that city. Len says you talk about big turkeys, but the Parker bird beat anything he ever saw before. It weighed 24 pounds dressed, and the ten healthy Dakotans did their best to reduce it's size before leaving the table.
Len says he has helped to dispose of eighteen pounders and sixteen pounders, and once found a rebel turkey in Arkansas that weighed fifteen pounds, which wasn't hardly a small among a lot of hungry soldiers, but a twenty-four pound family turkey is enough to spoil a modest appetite.

C. O. Johnson of LaValley, called Monday to renew his sister's subscription to the Leader. He and his sister Miss Eveline, came to town to see their parents who were injured in the railroad accident last Saturday at the crossing just west of town.
Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Johnson were driving west just as the belated west bound passenger came along. One of the horses had got partly on the track when the engine struck it a tremendous blow throwing it and its mate clear from the track, overturning the buggy and throwing Mrs. Johnson out on the road, along with her husband. Mrs. Johnson is severely injured internally while her husband escaped with a few bruises.
They are at the home of Edward Isakson, where everything is being done to relieve Mrs. Johnson's condition. Both Mr. and Mrs. Johnson declared that if the engineer had sounded the whistle the accident could not have happened. After the accident Conductor Brainard stopped the train and brought the injured people to town. The horse hit by the engine had to be killed. The many friends of the Johnson family hope that Mrs. Johnson's injuries will not prove serious, although her son said Monday that his mother was badly hurt and might not recover.

Otto Wilson returned to St Paul Wednesday.
Miss Julia Buchelster was at Sioux Falls last Friday.
Miss Vera Lewis was at Sioux Falls last week returning home Sunday.
John Husman of Kimball sends a renewal subscription for the Leader.
Charles Hymers of Pukwana, is among our new subscribers this week.
There are nine phones on the new north line known as the Abbott line.
The New Year brought us a snow storm but we hope the snow will soon go away.
Earl Boyce was up in LaValley township last week visiting with old schoolmates.
The state board of pharmacy meets at the Rudolph next Tuesday and Wednesday.

view, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E.
M. Boyce last week.
Miss May Irwin returned to her home at Iretown after a visit at the home of N. N. Coon.
Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Boyce were visitors at the elegant home of Mr.
Ketchum north of town.

day and reports farmers in his section all prosperous and happy.

for a brief visit with Canton friends.
Frank Warner has returned to Nebraska, after a visit with his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. O. A.
Driver.
John Berdahl and wife are back from a visit with friends up at Brookings and to the Berdahl home near Garretson.
Invitations are out for a dance at the Rudolph Saturday evening, Jan.
6. Ainsworth's popular orchestra will furnish the music.
Lars Wirstad, the genial Dell Rapids banker, returned home Tuesday after a very pleasant visit with his many friends here.
The river is open below Beloit and ducks and geese were flying north last week. This is nearly as good as it is down at El Paso.
Harry Cuthbert bid his friends goodly last Monday and left for Iowa City to resume his studies which he will finish next June.
H. W. Rogness was up from Norway Tuesday and while a visitor at this office ordered the Leader sent to his sister, Mrs. Boyd, at Arlington.

Floyd Cooper, Frank Cuppett, Maud Lewis, Eva Conklin, Louise Kruger and Win Bennett have returned to their University studies at Vermillion.
Something extra fine at the Rudolph next Sunday, Jan. 7th., Ainsworth's orchestra will entertain you with their excellent music while you enjoy one of those fine dinners prepared by Mr. Anderson, the chef.
Last Sunday morning Helen M.
Lauesson and her little brother, Edward Jens Lauesson, were baptised by Rev. A. S. Loveall, and Master Edward entered a vigorous protest against so many strangers being present.
Miss Lajla Skartvedt, Elmer Isak-son and Joe Tetlie have returned to St. Olaf College at Northfield, accompanied by two new students, Miss Stella Sogn and Miss Ellen Skartvedt, the latter being a daughter of Sivert Skartvedt.
Henry Legel and Miss Clara Olson were quietly married last Saturday by Rev. A. S. Loveall at the M. E. parsonage. Mr. Legel and his bride returned to Valley Springs where he has a drug store. The Canton friends of the bride and groom wish them health, happiness and prosperity.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gemmill entertained the G. G. C.'s on the evening of the first day of the New Year, and the joys and pleasures of the evening were rendered amusingly interesting by an old fashioned candy pull. Miss Eva Conklin won a silver spoon as first prize and Dr. Guy O'Neil got a big stick of candy for not knowing how.
Lee Iseninger was up from Fairview Tuesday and called on the Leader to renew his subscription.
He reports his father out on his claim in Lyman county about eighty miles west of Chamberlain. Levi Iseninger was one of the first settlers in Fairview township, arriving there in September 1869, after driving two yoke of oxen from Monroe, Wisconsin. He was a Lincoln county pioneer and with the pioneer spirit he has gone out into Lyman county. The Leader wishes him great success.

Charles O. Heskett was up from Sioux City Tuesday paying his old friends a New Year's visit, and they were all glad to see him. We found him standing on the sidewalk with Tom and Kunt Ulrikson, and its seldom one sees such fine looking men in a bunch. Each of them stands over six feet two, and they wear clothing in proportion to their height. Then Hans Brynjulson, J.
H. Orre and Mike Mickelson came along, but they were not in the class with the big ones, and the Leader's six feet was still in the shade. Mr.
Heskett drove out in the country to see a number of friends in the afternoon.

Alton Packard one of the greatest lecturers of the day will be heard in the opera house, 8:15 sharp.

son and State Senator, Charles H.
Cassill went to Sioux Falls Tuesday.
Geo. Fluett of Elk Point, brother-in-law of Attorney Jamieson, was in the city Monday a guest at the Jamieson home.
Seely & Tank, the popular clothing dealers, are offering greater bargains than ever. See their ad and reduced price list in this issue.
—Fresh bread, cake and pies every day at the Gate City Bakery.
C. A. Carlson and wife came over from Beresford to enjoy the opening New Year with his son, Attorney Carlson and family.
When farmers want to ship cattle now, all they have to do is to order cars. Their cattle will be inspected at the place where sold.
Gen. Wolgemuth, John Walrath and Frank Craft, prominent insurance men from Mitchell, were in the city consulting with President Rudolph of the State Mutual.
John and Mrs. Isakson entertained the Griegs last week, and we believe it was the first social function in their elegant new home, one of the finest in the city.
T. H. Anderberg of Alta, Iowa, a brother-in-law of Olaf Jensvold, is in Canton on business, and went out in the country Wednesday evening with Mr. Jensvold.
Our old friend Albert Larson sends us a $3.00 renewal for his Leader.
Albert lives at Campbell, Campbell county, and is prospering and his many friends in Lincoln county are glad to know it.
The rummage sale in the Kennedy building will close Saturday Jan six.
All those who are owing the society must call and settle. Sale will be open from one o'clock until six p. m.
Come and get closing bargains.
The stockholders of the Lincoln County bank held their annual meeting Tuesday evening, and elected the old officers to wit: A. R. Brown, president; O. A. Rudolph, vice president; O. K. Brown, cashier; and T. H.
Helsing, assistant cashier. The affairs of the bank are in a very prosperous condition.
Gust Borg, one of the happiest and most genial young men in the county, is again in Canton for a visit with his friends. He expects to resume the manufacture of cement blocks in Sioux Falls in the spring. Gust is a hard worker at all times but he enjoys nothing so much as his winter visits here.

Attorney Knudson presented Mrs.
Dr. Holmgren with a check for $3000 as a New Year's gift, being the amount of her husband's insurance in the Knights of the Maccabees, and John Moe, as local secretary and treasurer of the Modern Woodmen, presented the same lady with another $3000 check, representing the Woodmen insurance.
Mr. Daniel C. Johnson of Woonsocket was quietly married to Miss Deborah Thompson, of Dayton township Wednesday January three, 1906, by Rev. P. H. Tetlie. Mr. Johnson is one of the leading farmers of Sanborn county and the bride is one of the most charming and accomplished young ladies in this county.
The Leader extends congratulations.

The first week of the New Year opens up very encouraging for the Leader. No less than nine new subscribers were added the first three days and we look for several more before the week closes. The new subscribers are: Mrs. P. A. Boyd, Charles Hymers, Gust Borg, Ben
Stubstein, E. A. Jones, J. M. Soiso, Gerber Bros., Jonas Johnson & Co.,
John A. Gilbertson.
The Farmers State Bank stockholders and directors held their annual meeting Tuesday evening. The following directors were elected: P.
A. Overseth, J. M. Lewis, J. G. Lax-on, Peder Gubbrud and Knut Ulrikson, after which the following officers were elected: P. A. Overseth, president, J. M. Lewis, vice president, and Charles H. Cassill, cashier. The Farmers State Bank is one of the solid institutions of this city and the business is growing rapidly.

The Mutual Lumber company held its annual meeting Tuesday and elected the following directors: G. L. Pray and C. H. Taylor of Lake City, Iowa, Ed. L. Wendt, John Isakson, O. M.
Gudmunsen, A. O. Tuntland and John Peterson of Canton, and the directors elected the following officers: G. L. Pray, president; Ed. L.
Wendt, vice president, John Isak-son, treasurer; O. M. Gudmunsen, secretary and general manager.
The business of the company was gone over carefully by the auditing committee, who reported that the business for the past year showed a general increase with fine prospects for 1906. Mr. Chapin who is president, owing to pressing business in other lines, was obliged to tender his resignation, and will leave Canton about March first. The company is under careful management and has prospered and expects to merit the patronage of the public in the future as in the past. There is a general regret among the stockholders that Mr. Chapin could not remain, but in the election of Mr. Pray the company secures an able businesman thoroughly conversant with the lumber business.

and Frank Craft, prominent insurance men from Mitchell, were in the

finest in the city.

County bank held their annual meeting Tuesday evening, and elected the
old officers to wit: A. R. Brown, president; O. A. Rudolph, vice president;
O. K. Brown, cashier; and T. H.
Helsing, assistant cashier. The affairs of the bank are in a very prosperous condition.
Gust Borg, one of the happiest and
most genial young men in the county,
is again in Canton for a visit with
the manufacture of cement blocks in Sioux Falls in the spring. Gust is a hard worker at all times but he en-
visits here.

Attorney Knudson presented Mrs.
Dr. Holmgren with a check for $3000
as a New Year's gift, being the
amount of her husband's insurance
in the Knights of the Maccabees, and John Moe, as local secretary and treasurer of the Modern Woodmen,
presented the same lady with another $3000 check, representing the Wood-

is one of the leading farmers of Sanborn county and the bride is one
of the most charming and accomplished young ladies in this county.
The Leader extends congratulations.

opens up very encouraging for the Leader. No less than nine new subscribers were added the first three
before the week closes. The new subscribers are: Mrs. P. A. Boyd,
Charles Hymers, Gust Borg, Ben
Stubstein, E. A. Jones, J. M. Soiso,
Gerber Bros., Jonas Johnson & Co.,
John A. Gilbertson.
The Farmers State Bank stockholders and directors held their annual meeting Tuesday evening. The
following directors were elected: P.
A. Overseth, J. M. Lewis, J. G. Lax-
on, Peder Gubbrud and Knut Ulrik-
were elected: P. A. Overseth, presi-

cers: G. L. Pray, president; Ed. L.
Wendt, vice president, John Isak-
son, treasurer; O. M. Gudmunsen, secretary and general manager.
The business of the company was
gone over carefully by the auditing committee, who reported that
the business for the past year
showed a general increase with fine
prospects for 1906. Mr. Chapin who
is president, owing to pressing business in other lines, was obliged to
tender his resignation, and will leave Canton about March first. The com-
is a general regret among the stockholders that Mr. Chapin could not remain, but in the election of Mr. Pray
man thoroughly conversant with the lumber business.

Alton Packard one of the greatest
lecturers of the day will be heard in
