The Late Embezzlement in the Pacific Bank.
PACIFIC BANK, New York, March 12, 1855.
TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.
In your article relative to the defalcations of our former bookkeeper, Jno. B. Urmy, you state among other facts, that in his yacht excursions "he was often accompanied by the cashier." You will permit me to state that I never was in his company, nor on board his yacht, but upon one occasion, and then by request of our Board of Directors to ascertain the probable cost of the same, and for purposes of investigation.
J. CAMPBELL, Jr., Cashier.

Espenscheid solicits the attention of his customers, and the public, to a great improvement just perfected in hats manufactured upon an entirely new invention, an improvement of his own on the waterproof stiff, by which it retains its shape much longer, and imparts to it a perpetual gloss. This invention, originating with him, will be used exclusively in the manufacture of his hats, and will give them a preference over all others in this city. Call and judge for yourselves of the advantages offered by this establishment. N. ESPENSCHEID, hat manufacturer, 118 Nassau street, between Beekman and Ann streets.

A Bad Hat is the Sign of Poverty, and if any one would get rich he must never appear poor. With one of KNOX'S magnificent spring style of hats on his head, anybody would look like a gentleman, for they improve the appearance, and, like charity, cover many other defects. Call and take a look at these masterpieces of genius in either of KNOX'S depots, Nos. 333 Broadway or 128 Fulton street.

White's Spring Style of Hats are the Hats that take the lead this spring. Gent's in want of a splendid and becoming hat will do themselves justice by calling on him at his emporium.
WHITE, 212 Broadway, corner of Fulton.

Spring Style of Hats Just Introduced.—Those of our readers in want of a fashionable hat can obtain one at HALL'S, 214 Broadway, who is the acknowledged leader of fashion in New York by public approbation. Corner of Liispenard and Broadway.

Genin's Spring Styles of Gentlemen's Hats and caps are now ready at 214 Broadway, opposite St. Paul's Church.

Cheap Rent, Important Improvements, and a rapidly extending trade enables BANTA to offer to his old patrons his spring style of gentlemen's hats, in taste, brilliancy of color and durability favorably comparing with any $4 hat, at $3. An examination, at 106 Canal street, is respectfully solicited.

Pianos.—T. Gilbert & Co.'s Celebrated Æolian pianos, Horace Waters' modern improved pianos, and those of a large number of other makes, comprising the largest and most desirable assortment in the United States, will be sold at prices which defy competition, for cash or satisfactory paper. Persons in the city receiving orders for pianos or musical instruments of any kind, will find it to their advantage to call.
HORACE WATERS, 333 Broadway.

Melodeons—S. D. & H. W. Smith's Melodeons, tuned the equal temperament, can be found only at the music and piano store of HORACE WATERS, 333 Broadway. The trade supplied on the most reasonable terms.

The Improved Violin.—The most easily learned as well as most popular musical instrument in use. Manufactured at 333 Broadway, over Waters' music store. W. ROBERTSON, inventor and teacher of the improved boyed violin.

The Grand Complimentary Concert to Lieutenant A. F. Chatman, comes off this Tuesday evening, March 13th, at the Broadway Tabernacle, Mrs. Georgiana R. Stuart, Mr. Vache, Mr. G. A. Cooke and a host of vocal and instrumental talent; also five military bands, &c., &c. Tickets 25 cents.

Niagara Falls in Winter.—Meade Brothers have for sale and on view the above scenery taken from all points in winter garb. Also, the American Procession in Australia, Rachel, the tragic actress, &c. Galleries free—pictures unsurpassed taken daily. 225 Broadway, four doors above the Astor House.

Dentists', Photographic and Daguerreotype electrotype and pyrotechnic chemicals, asbestos, cardimum, nitrate strontia, bisulphuret carbon, Persian insect powder, platina, nickel, bismuth, indigo satin white, ultramarine, potassium and sodium, bromine, jodried, plumbago, Vienna lime, cyanide potassium, fused and granulated; nitrate and oxide silver, gallic and pyrogallic acids, vanilla, fig blue, castor, fumigating pastiles, Thorn's extract copaiva, patent medicines of every description. The best oil cognac, essences, Jamaica and St. Croix rum, cider, gin, and otard. These goods in original packages, for sale by DR. L. FEUCHTWANGER, 141 Maiden lane.

Stereoscopic Pictures for $2 or $3, with cases and magnifiers complete. Daguerreotypes by Holmes' improved stereoscopic combination cameras for 25 cents, 50 cents, &c. Picture factory 289 Broadway.

Anson's Daguerreotypes, Large Size, for 50 cents, colored, and in a nice case lined with velvet, and preserver, twice the size others make, for 50 cents, and equal in quality and size to those made elsewhere for $2. ANSON'S, 589 Broadway, opposite the Metropolitan Hotel.

Hotching's large size 50 cent Daguerreian gallery removed to 373 Broadway, between Franklin and White streets. Having an additional skylight, he is prepared to attend with despatch all who may favor him with a call.

A good Phrenologist will prove it to your own conscience, by delineating your character, talents and peculiarities far more accurately than your own mother could do. He analyzes all the human elements and functions, thereby showing of what materials we are composed, and how to develope them. The Hon. Horace Mann remarks: "I look upon phrenology as the guide to philosophy and the handmaid of christianity. Whoever disseminates true phrenology is a public benefactor." Examinations by Prof. FOWLER, No. 308 Broadway, day and evening.

Important to Housekeepers.—Our Spring assortment of carpetings, oilcloths, curtains, and curtain materials, is now ready for inspection, and will be offered at greatly reduced prices. LORD & TAYLOR, Grand street, corner of Chrystie.

Spring, 1855.—Custom Department.—Our stock of cloths, cassimeres, and vestings for spring trade is now ready for inspection, embracing everything that is new and desirable, of our own importation or selections. The cutters of this department, headed by Mr. A. H. Van Pelt, are artists of the first class in their several lines of coats, vests, and pants, and our determination is to spare no pains or expense to make this a very popular department of our business. The directions to this effect are—first, to make every garment up to the best standard of taste and workmanship—the quality to be always fairly represented; second, to be prompt to the very hour a garment is promised; and, third, to be a little lower in price than garments of the same description can be had for elsewhere.
D. DEVLIN & CO., 258, 259 and 260 Broadway.

Attention is Called to the Sale of Valuable property on Ann, Canal, Tenth, West Broadway, Franklin and Varick streets, to be the sale of thirty-eight valuable lots on Murray Hill, fronting on Madison, Fourth and Lexington avenues, Thirty-fifth, Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh streets, to be made by E. H. LUDLOW, this day, at 12 o'clock, at the Merchants' Exchange. Every lot put up will be positively sold. Terms liberal. Maps can be had at the office of the auctioneer, 11 Wall street.

Dealers in Clothing Visiting New York this season, are respectfully invited to examine our stock of spring and summer clothing, as we feel assured they will find it, from its extent, variety, style, and cheapness, well worthy of their consideration. While the disposition of our manufacturers this season has been to greatly reduce their stocks, we have availed ourselves of the advantages of a low market for goods and labor, to manufacture a much larger stock than we have ever done before, consequently, we will be enabled to offer at remarkably low prices.
D. DEVLIN & CO., 258, 259 and 260 Broadway, corner Warren street.

Kelty & Ferguson, No. 289 Broadway, keep a complete assortment of window shades, manufactured by themselves and warranted. Persons purchasing at their establishment can save all commissions and second profits of any kind. N. B.—A large assortment of muslin lace and cretonne, from auction, for sale at about half the cost of importation.

Great Sale of Fancy Goods at H. S. Rogers' Fancy Bazaar, owing to the extensive repairs to be made in consequence of the recent fire on the premises. The remainder of this immense stock, embracing workboxes, reticules, papier mache work, fans, opera glasses, toilet boxes, gentlemen's and ladies' dressing cases, dressing and shell combs, elegant statuary, Parian, porcelain and marble vases, Newman's enchanted water colors, together with the most choice assortment of perfumery and soaps, with an endless variety of toys for the amusement and instruction of children. All will be sold without regard to cost, affording an opportunity to our citizens to supply themselves with everything unique and beautiful at less than half of the usual prices.
H. S. ROGERS' Fancy Bazaar, 449 Broadway.

Popular Trade.—E. H. Leadbeater & Co., 307 Broadway, are now selling rich silks, delaines, barages, brilliantes, linens, ribbons, shawls, &c., cheaper than any other establishment in the city. They offer this morning fine French ginghams yard wide, gat de barages, from 12c. to 18c., fine silks, 75c., 1s. and 5c., and all other kinds of goods equally cheap.
