Highland.
January 30, 1906.
Gunhild Rikansrud is at Canton spending the week with Mrs. A. Peterson.
Anna Marken our accomplished school ma'am enjoyed over Sunday with "the old folks home."
O. O. Rikansrud, jr., arrived from Fort Dodge, Iowa, on Saturday and will be at home for a time "mending up" a bruised shoulder.
Gilbert Gudmunson leaves for his North Dakota home this week. While here he made Highland his headquarters and we're inclined to believe he don't always intend to bawl. "Centerite" will explain.
Bertin Twedt returned to his uncle's last week after a six week sojourn here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dedrickson were in Highland last week bidding "Adieu" to their many friends. They leave for their home at Briceyn, Minn., this week going via Sioux Rapids, Iowa, where they visit relatives a fortnight.
Rev. Nummedal took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. O. Johnson last Thursday after conducting services in the Grand Valley church. Mr. and Mrs. A. Sandvig also enjoyed the hospitality of the Johnson home the same day.
One of our confirmed bachelors will hail with delight the dawning of next Wednesday as then will sound the peal of his wedding bells. Now who'd have believed that of Andrew Satrum?
Lars Benson was taken to Sioux City last week where he was operated on for cancer. We hope he will stand the ordeal tho it was considered very serious.
Rudolf Steensland accompanied by O. T. Twedt, of Norway was out near East Soo Falls hunting cattle last week. They returned with a nice bunch bought at good figures. Glad to note Highland lads are not as "dormed slow" in business as they are in "getting up mornin's."
Georgiana and Lucile Myers of Canton spent last Sunday at the Olsen home.
Knut Thorsen entertained a party of friends last Saturday eve and it was reported by those whose pleasure it was to attend that they had the finest time of their lives.

Riverside.
Jan. 30, 1906.
Still they say, "glorious winter weather." But you have all said it so often now that we won't mention it.
A correspondent who sees his communications disfigured in the process of printing should always "grin and bear it." Last week when our "Old Sol" was overshadowed by the shade of "Old Saul" we grinned twice.
Earl Boyce is hauling wood to town from his farm on the river.

Richard Reiser and Syvert Rud of Mitchell, came down Saturday for a visit with relatives and friends.
Martin and Laura Holter and their cousin, Carl Holter of Platte attended the literary society at Cottage Grove Thursday night and report an excellent program.
The wolf chase Saturday afternoon in which two little innocent pets were murdered by a pack of hounds was a disgrace to the community. Our city sportsmen must seek milder sport or lose forever the respect of their fellow citizens.
Mr. and Mrs. Hans Brynjulson entertained a number of friends and neighbors Sunday.
That Grand Valley is now wide awake was very much in evidence at the society Monday evening. The house was packed and the program fine.
Hardin Olson and sisters visited at Hans Brynjulson's Sunday.
Our neighboring scribe to the westward makes haste to inform us that the fair scribe of Highland has stimulated him (or her) to "extra energy and ambition." Now, while the "Riversider" congratulates himself on being in no need of a stimulant, he hopes the "Centerite" will be irresistibly enchanted by the fragrance of the Lily of the Valley so gaily nodding toward him.

Highland Center.
News around here seems scarce as hens teeth. Don't blame it on ye scribe.
I read with interest in the items from Riverside last week about the "Awakening of Grand Valley." By the way, "Dear Riversider," do you know anything about the awakening of Highland, if not, please help wake 'em up. I hope now you understand the reason why Grand Valley hung their flag out. It was stated so plainly in last week's items, and to think that the honor was not yours.
Mrs. Otto Johnson spent Sunday in Canton visiting her brother, Christ Sandvig and also attended services at the Lutheran church.
Miss Anna Morken spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Fairview township.
Gilbert Gudmunson who has spent some time among us, departed for North Dakota last Monday.
O. O. Rikansrud, jr., of Fort Dodge, Iowa, spent a few days at home and departed Tuesday to resume his duty with the Illinois Central, where he has been the last 3 years.
Remember that Sander Brynjulson is our choice for the Legislature.
Rudolph Steensland was out side of the "boundary line" the later part of last week, "Cause known."

Grand Valley.
Jan. 31, 1906.
Last Thursday evening the Grand Valley choir took advantage of the lovely weather and fine roads and went up to Cottage Grove in response to an invitation, to sing at their literary society. Their singing seemed to please, as they were most heartily encored.
Mr. and Mrs. Martin Renlie of Lincoln township, visited their cousins, Emil, Charles and Carrie Hanson, last Sunday.
Messrs. Oscar and Albert Helvig and ladies visited with their sister, Mrs. T. C. Thompson, last Sunday.
Four young gentlemen from this neighborhood, Chas. Hanson, T. O. Peterson, Nobel Helvig and Halvor Peterson, drove down to Fairview last Friday evening and took in the dance at that place. They thought it was such a nice place to go they have concluded to take their girls next time.
The ladies' aid society of this place meets with Miss Carrie Hanson next Wednesday afternoon, February 7.
Misses Minerva and Ella Johnson visited the Misses Torberson Monday and Tuesday.
Last Tuesday evening about twenty-five couple responded to an invitation from Mrs. Martin Renlie to come and help surprise her husband. And surprised he was, completely. Tripping the light fantastic toe to the sweet strains of Lullakens' orchestra was the chief amusement, and about 12 o'clock a substantial luncheon was served, after which in a few well chosen words, Theodore Torberson, in behalf of the assembled guests, presented Mr. Renlie with a handsome rocker as a remembrance of the occasion. All had a good time, and one young gent was heard to remark: "I want to come again."

Death of Thomas Shaaf.
Thomas Shaaf, one of the most respected citizens of Zion City, near Chicago, died on January 5, 1906, aged 88 years 9 months and 18 days and was only sick about one week.
Thomas Shaaf was born March 13, 1818, in Williamson township, Wayne Co., New York, where he lived with his parents until he was married to Eveline Lake in 1841. To this union a son and a daughter were born. William, the eldest, is now a resident of Canton, and the daughter is the wife of Mr. Olds of Broadhead Wisconsin.
Thomas Shaaf's first wife died when her daughter was 8 months old, leaving the care of two children to the bereaved father who was married again in 1847 to Miss M. J. Sidman who survives him after they had journeyed through life together for 59 years.
Thomas Shaaf was a sincere christian and a man highly respected by all who knew him.

Card of Thanks.
I take this opportunity to return the sincere thanks of myself and children to the friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness and sympathy during the funeral of our beloved wife and mother.
William Osborn and children.
The Warren Noble Theatre Company three nights next week, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Popular prices. Tickets at Noid's drug store.
Ole Hokenstad was induced to remain in town Tuesday night to hear Mr. Cuthbert speak. He went to the meeting and was so thoroughly disgusted with the young man's harangue that he left before the meeting was half through.
H. Rothenberger has gone over to Beresford to open an art studio, and the Leader can cheerfully recommend him as a gentleman and a fine photographer as well as a water color artist. He also makes a specialty of enlarging photos taken by or sent him. He has been in Canton for over a year and has been very successful in his art and gallery work. Call and see him when he opens in Beresford.
The ladies aid society of the M. E. church gave a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Knowlton Wednesday afternoon and evening. The refreshment part of the program commenced at 4 in the afternoon and at 7 p. m. nearly two hundred people were enjoying the festivities of the occasion and Dwight Slade sang as only Dwight can sing when the spirit moves him in harmony with the lady who presides at the piano. It was one of the most numerous attended and most enjoyable socials ever given in Canton. The social netted about $37.

They say the "Centerite" was out for a ride one day last week. He has evidently been in good spirits since.
Soren Rikansrud went to Canton Tuesday to see his big brother off.
Torkel Rikansrud was up from Fairview Monday and attended the debate at Grand Valley in the evening.
Sander Brynjulson, one of our most popular young gentlemen and Highland's choice for the legislature, seems to meet the approval of all.
If Riversider will just put his name to his items he will improve the looks of his correspondence, and then all the young ladies out this way would feel like giving him a nice little tea party.
Those from about here who attended "The Rally" at Fairview last Friday night report a "Russian time."
The G. V. scribe must be mistaken about Soren's interest at Ole Steensland's. Soren has no liking for goats—it was something else and the scribe has another guess coming.
Centerite.

Ed Cassill was up from Hudson Tuesday.
Mrs. Roy Scott is reported to be seriously ill.
Mrs. Chris Braithwaite is somewhat indisposed.
Mrs. Leo Davis' sister came over from Inwood for a visit.
Mrs. Tom Tattershall of Beloit, Iowa, is suffering from pneumonia.
Mrs. Sam Thorsen is some better and her speedy recovery is now looked for.
D. S. Guinter is home from a business trip to the northern part of the state.
Worthing has only two rural mail routes. Worthing ought to have had four.
Summer Johnston of Lincoln and Albert Grane of Norway were visitors Wednesday.
Theo. Gubrud was up from Moe Monday on business and favored this office with a call.
Rev. E. Olson of Highland called Wednesday and renewed his subscription to the Leader.
Ole Hokenstad, Peter Lukken, John Miner and Ed Wheatley were in Canton on business Wednesday.
Arthur Sogn of Norway was a caller Tuesday, and had his paper sent to Hudson instead of Beresford.
County Treasurer Slade is one of the most earnest and determined Roosevelt supporters in the state.
H. C. Carpenter, J. H. Heinrich, Tolof Torkelson and C. E. LaHar were up from Hudson Tuesday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Boyce, Mrs. Hammond and Willard Pryor were visitors at the asylum last Friday.
Miss Mildred Jones of Mason City, Iowa, has been the guest of Miss Florence McDermott the past week.
Mrs. Warner of Waterville, Neb., arrived Saturday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Driver down on the Riverside farm.
Miss Elneline Johnson of LaValley, had her paper changed from the Harrisburg route to the Worthing route this week.
William Bell called Tuesday and renewed his subscription. William is one of the Leader's prompt paying subscribers.
W. E. Abbott and A. S. Stuckey are advertising auction sales. Both had their handsome sale bills printed at this office.
Willard Pryor of Doon, Iowa, after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Boyce and Mrs. Hammond has returned home.
Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Ingold returned to Hawarden Tuesday, after spending a few days with their daughter, Mrs. Fred Redfield.
The genial Schaber of the Hudsonite was a Canton visitor last week and he found the cause of reform growing everywhere.
Ex-State Auditor Mayhew is a new subscriber this week. He was an honest official and the machine tried to crush him, but failed.
Mrs. John Peterson entertained a large number of lady friends last Friday afternoon in her elegant new home on east second street.
The ladies of the Congregational church are going to give a social at the home of Mrs. J. D. Cloud next Wednesday afternoon. The public invited.
States' Attorney Spangler of Mitchell came down from Sioux Falls Tuesday and went west. He reports Davison county in line for a "square deal" and ready to bury the bosses.
Ainsworth's orchestra furnished music for a delightful hop at the Rudolph Saturday evening, and entertained a large crowd of Sunday guests at the Rudolph for a Sunday dinner.
Hon. W. E. Benedict of Belle Fourche is a new subscriber this week, and Bro. Benedict believes it is high time for the people of the state to regulate their own affairs.
City Marshal Everson of Harrisburg was a visitor Tuesday. He was much pleased with the result of the bank robbery trial over at Tyndall, where the safe busters got from 10 years to 14 years each.
Wm. H. Miller, Jr., Sander Brynjulson, Knut Ulrikson, John W. Brenner and B. H. Tripp called to discuss corn and they are all enthusiastic corn men. Nels Larson called in the middle of the rush and said he loved corn, religion and contentment, and seemed as happy as any of the boomers.
Mrs. William Robinson will reopen the old Robinson restaurant on 5th street, Saturday, Feb. 10. Her husband was the Pioneer restaurant man of Canton, and few indeed there are in Lincoln county who have not at one time or another taken a meal with "Billy" Robinson. Mrs. Robinson wanted to rent her building, but no one seemed ready to do so, so she has concluded to open a first class restaurant herself, having secured all the necessary help to do so. The old time friends of Billy Robinson will do their share in patronizing the widow.
A. J. Berdahl and wife are down from Garretson, Mrs. Berdahl coming for treatment by Dr. Lena Eneboe. Mr. Berdahl says the rural precincts of Minnehaha are getting ready to destroy the boss system in that county and thereby help to clean it out all over the state. He says he never saw so much anti-machine republican war point as is now visible all along the Sioux Valley, and feels perfectly safe in saying that County Superintendent Ustrud will have the delegation solid behind him in the June convention—which means it will be against the machine bosses, and the good work has just commenced.

Ed Cassill was up from Hudson Tuesday.

Mrs. William Robinson will reopen the old Robinson restaurant on 5th street, Saturday, Feb. 10. Her husband was the Pioneer restaurant man of Canton, and few indeed there are in Lincoln county who have not at one time or another taken a meal with "Billy" Robinson. Mrs. Robinson wanted to rent her building, but no one seemed ready to do so, so she has concluded to open a first class restaurant herself, having secured all the necessary help to do so. The old time friends of Billy Robinson will do their share in patronizing the widow.
A. J. Berdahl and wife are down from Garretson, Mrs. Berdahl coming for treatment by Dr. Lena Eneboe. Mr. Berdahl says the rural precincts of Minnehaha are getting ready to destroy the boss system in that county and thereby help to clean it out all over the state. He says he never saw so much anti-machine republican war point as is now visible all along the Sioux Valley, and feels perfectly safe in saying that County Superintendent Ustrud will have the delegation solid behind him in the June convention—which means it will be against the machine bosses, and the good work has just commenced.
