NORTH CAROLINA SIX PER CENT STATE STOCKS —Treasury Department, Raleigh, N. C., March 12 1855.—Sealed proposals will be received at this office until 10 o'clock A. M. of the 14th of April next, for the purchase of one million dollars in bonds, running thirty years. These bonds are issued by the State of North Carolina for the construction of the North Carolina Railroad, and in addition to the faith of the State, all the stock held by the State in said road, and the dividends arising from said stock, are pledged for their redemption. They will bear date the first day of April, 1855, and will have coupons attached for the interest at six per cent per annum, payable the first days of April and October in each year.
Both interest and principal will be payable at the Bank of the Republic, in the city of New York, unless where the purchaser prefers to have them payable at the Treasury of North Carolina.
They will be issued in sums of one thousand dollars each. These bonds are by express constituent, exempted from taxation for any purpose.
Parties bidding will please address their letters, endorsed, "Proposals for North Carolina stocks," to the undersigned, at Raleigh, N. C. They will also state at what point, and in what kind of funds they propose to pay.
The bids will be opened at 10 o'clock A. M., of the 16th April next in the presence of the Governor, the Secretary and Comptroller of State, and of G. W. Mordecai, President of the Bank of the State of North Carolina.
The undersigned reserves the right of accepting such bids, in whole or in part, as may be deemed most advantageous to the State.
Successful bidders will be required, as soon as informed of the acceptance of their bids, to deposit in bank the amount of their bids, with the accrued interest from the first day of April, 1855, to the credit of the Treasurer of the State of North Carolina. This deposit may be made in the Bank of the Republic, New York, the Bank of the State of North Carolina, or the Bank of Cape Fear, Raleigh.
Documents showing the extent of the resources of the State and the amount of her indebtedness may be had at this office, or on application to Messrs. BROWN & DE ROSSETT, city of New York. D. W. COURTS, Public Treasurer of North Carolina.

MOULTRIE HOUSE ON SULLIVAN'S ISLAND, South Carolina, at public auction—By J. S. RYAN, No. 22 Broad street, Charleston.—On Tuesday, the 24 day of April, at 11 o'clock A. M., at the north of the Exchange; will positively be sold to the highest bidder, without any manner of reserve, that elegant and fashionable hotel on Sullivan's Island, known as the Moultrie House, together with all the furniture and fixtures incident thereunto, or in any manner appertaining to the same. The Moultrie House was built in 1849; the materials were all carefully selected, the work executed under the closest scrutiny, it has been well taken care of, and is now in an excellent state of preservation. The main building fronts on the beach 224 feet, with wings extending 114 feet at each terminus. The entire building is surrounded by a two story piazza, 15 feet wide, forming a beautiful promenade 884 feet in length, all under roof. On the first floor is a spacious and very inviting dining room, eighty feet long by thirty-eight feet wide; a ladies' parlor, thirty-two feet in length by twenty feet wide, two reception rooms, each thirty-two by twenty-five feet; four private parlors, each fifteen by seventeen feet. These apartments are so constructed that they can be opened by sliding doors, and assembly room formed 170 feet in length. On the second floor there are four parlors, connected by sliding doors, with a large promenade, one hundred and fifteen feet in length, under roof. There are about one hundred commodious sleeping rooms in the house, and the arrangements are such, that these accommodations can be enlarged to meet any emergency. On the northern wing, or extension, is an apartment fitted up purposely for a billiard saloon, and now contains four billiard tables, all in the most perfect order and condition and a well arranged bar. There is also an apartment appropriated entirely as a nursing room for children and their attendants. The arrangements and conveniences for cooking, washing, bathing, &c., are most ample and complete. The hotel is abundantly supplied with the most costly curled hair mattresses, beds, bed linen, towelling, &c., &c., &c., and all kinds of furniture, comprising in part of—Double and single bedsteads, washstands, bureaus, toilet tables, looking glasses, chairs, sofas, dining tables, sofa bedsteads, centre tables, office chairs, tete-a-tete setts, rocking chairs, &c., &c., all of which were purchased new, within the last three years, and compare exactly with the furniture of the building. Sullivan's Island is one of the most delightful summer resorts in the Southern country. It can be reached any hour of the day, by the different steamers chartered perpetually for that purpose. The Moultrie House has always commanded a large and fashionable patronage. It has been under a yearly lease of $3,000, which has just expired. A full inventory of the furniture will be prepared in a few days, of which due notice will be given. Terms of sale are one fourth cash, remainder in approved endorsed notes, drawing seven per cent interest, payable in Charleston, at four, eight, and twelve months, secured by a mortgage of the entire property sold, the same to be kept insured, and policy signed, and the purchaser to pay for mortgage. Possession given on the day of sale. N. B.—Persons desirous of obtaining any further information, or of examining the property, are respectfully invited to communicate with the auctioneer, who will take great pleasure in conferring with them.
