Mrs. B. T. Sundvold was very agreeably surprised last week by the arrival of her brother, Ola Eneboe, from old Norway. They had not seen each other for over 24 years, and the meeting was a pleasant and happy one. Two years ago a son and daughter of Mr. Eneboe came to this county and last year another daughter came over, and he came himself to see how he likes the country, and if it meets his expectations he will send after his wife and seven children and his mother. Mr. Eneboe is a first class painter and decorator.

Ed. L. Wendt was out on the west side of the Missouri last week and saw a genuine boom in full operation.
He rode on the cars to Presho, forty miles west of Chamberlain. At Presho everything was in a rush. One had to run from the train to the hotel if he got a bed. After looking over Presho he drove to Murdo 45 miles west of Presho, and half way between Mitchell and Rapid City, where a boom town is in course of erection already. Mr. Wendt says the country was covered with land hunters, and every one of them was in a hurry.
Here and there a wagon had broken down and occasionally a wagon was overturned. Everything is booming and boom prices prevail everywhere.
Murdo will play an important part in the onward march of the Milwaukee until Rapid City is reached, then that city will fill an important part in the construction of the Milwaukee westward. Mr. Wendt returned home satisfied to handle real estate on the east side of the Missouri.
